Revival Meeting To Close Sunday

The revival meetings of the Church of Christ of Coquille will close this coming Sunday. The various churches of the city have arranged for the evangelist, Arthur Charles Bates, of the First Christian Church of Klamath Falls, to speak at a mass meeting in the Church of Christ building, Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock on the subject of "Stewardship." This meeting is primarily for church members but all who will come are welcome.

Tonight, Thursday, a delegation is expected from Marshfield Church of Christ, including Mr. Benton, minister, and his wife and the Doane twins. These boys, ten years of age, will sing two duets. They are especially talented and it will be worth while to hear them. Mrs. Nina Nosler will draw a crayon picture, accompanied by music and by a reading of a new poem, entitled "The Ninety and Nine." The sermon subject will be, "Caught with the Goods."

Sermon Friday night, "When Iron Gates Open." Solo, "The Blest Love of Christ," written by Mr. Sias, will be sung by Ruth Towne, by special request.

Saturday, sermon, "Christianity versus Morality," duet, "His Will Be Done, Not Mine," Cecil Finley and Mr. Sias.

Sunday, 11:00 a. m., "Church Invalids," will be the sermon subject and "The Devil's Chloroform" at the closing service at 7:30.

The church is located one block east of Henry street bridge at 280 East Fourth St. Good crowds attend each service, including many young folks. Mr. Bates spoke to the high school students Tuesday and was much enjoyed by them. Saturday the young folks' fellowship club will attend in mass and have their meeting at the close of the regular service.

Special Services Next Week

Special services are planned in the local Church of Christ Wednesday and Friday nights, to which the public is cordially invited. The dates are March 20 and 22, at 7:45. The Church of Christ of Marshfield plan to attend in a body. Their minister, Joel R. Benton, will be the speaker for these services and they will furnish the special music.

On Tuesday and Thursday nights the church from Coquille will attend the Marshfield services, when C. Adian Sias, Coquille minister, will preach and the Coquille church will provide the special music. On Monday night, March 18, there will be a reception for all new members to the church since the coming of the Siases to Coquille in June of 1938. It will be in the form of a potluck dinner at 6:45, a brief program and a talk by Mr. Bates. All members and friends of the church are welcome. The dining room has been doubled in size and it is planned to have extra tables and dishes to care for all who come.

State's Finest B. B. Teams Are Competing At Salem

The State High School Basketball tournament which is held annually at Willamette University, will hold the spotlight of the state sports fans this week as the four-day meet takes place to decide the champions of this year's high school basketball quintets. Under the direction of Roy "Spec" Keene, head of the Willamette athletic department, the tournament began at 1:00 p. m. yesterday afternoon and will be concluded Saturday evening with the championship and third place games.

With Monroe and Westport winning their respective tournaments in the B team brackets, the list of sixteen entrants is now complete. Among the teams entering are eleven repeaters among who are: the defending champions from Salem, the host team; other favorites, Tillamook, Pendleton, University High of Eugene, Astoria, and Klamath Falls; the dark horse quintets, North Bend, Baker, and Oregon City; and the B team repeaters, Butte Falls and Westport. Other teams qualifying for the event are: Monroe, Helix, Ashland, Chemawa, and Lebanon. The officials for the tournament are Pilsu, Coleman and Heneges.
