

Minor Mention

Mrs. A. O. Terry returned this week from a two weeks' visit to Klamath Falls. She and her sister are now operating the cafe next to the Pastime Tavern.

Miss Ruth Kreuger, faculty member at Oregon State College, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson. Miss Kreuger was a former school-mate of Mrs. Watson in North Dakota.

Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Mrs. L. H. Hazard left Monday morning for Portland, expecting to return today, bringing Ann Hawkins, who is attending St. Helen's Hall, home for spring vacation. Mrs. Hazard will visit her daughter, Mrs. Adrienne Sercombe, and family.

Mrs. Robert F. Roake and daughter, Judy, arrived here Saturday afternoon from Portland for a week's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Pook. The latter met her in Roseburg.

Cliff Yarbrough returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland on which he left last Friday.

C. M. Gray drove out to Eugene last Friday and brought in a carload of university students who came home for the spring vacation. They were Elaine Gray, Margaret Smith, Barbara Leslie, Yvonne Kern, Kenneth Lawrence and Douglas Donsted.

Geo. Gratke returned to duty at the bank Monday, having got home from his two weeks' vacation which he spent skiing on Mt. Hood and at Sun Valley, Idaho, the day before. He says it was really a grand vacation and he would have liked to continue the ski sport for another month. His mother, Mrs. M. Gratke, is now visiting in Portland and will return to Coquille the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Anderson went down to Curry county Sunday to be employed on one of the Cope ranches. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Sara Margaret Nye.

George Ulett, Jr., came in from the University of Oregon Medical School at Portland, for a few days of spring vacation with his parents here.

Dan Puckett, of Marshfield has accepted a position with the J. A. Lamb Co. here.

Jack Martin, who is taking a law course at the University at Eugene, is spending the week of spring vacation in San Francisco with friends from school.

Geo. W. Zerr, of Portland, who is putting in the new jail at North Bend, was in Coquille this morning. He says there are ten tons of steel in the new bastille over there. He and Mrs. Zerr, who has been visiting here for the past week, expect to go up to Portland tomorrow. He will return at once to finish the job at North Bend.

Leaves for China This Week

Every law-abiding citizen realizes that the U. S. immigration laws must be enforced but there is a lot of indignation among those who agree that all laws must be enforced when the federal government allows a man of the notorious Harry Bridges type to remain in the U. S. while a quiet, unassuming Chinese like Tommy Wing must suffer deportation.

The immigration officials last fall gave Tommy six months in which to close up his affairs here and the last of this week he will again go to Portland to be sent on his way to China. Accompanying him will be one of the boys who was worked in the hotel kitchen and who entered this country illegally.

If a petition would be considered by the authorities, nearly everyone in Coquille would sign such a request—that he be permitted to stay here—for he has proved himself a good citizen, although he did not have citizenship papers.

Ray Hickam to Grants Pass

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hickam and son, Buddy, left Monday night for Grants Pass, where Ray is to be day clerk at the Hotel Del Rogue. Ray has been with the Coquille Hotel for eleven years and says it is quite a wrench to leave the old home town but he feels that the greater amount of sun-

Donald Shore, employee at the Thornton Tire Service on Front street, underwent an operation for hernia at the Coquille Hospital on Tuesday. He slipped slightly while working the lever on one of the tire cappers at the shop last Friday, the hernia resulting.

Duane Fitzgerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Fitzgerald, returned to Coquille last Thursday, having completed his studies at O. S. C., where he was majoring in forestry.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Witters returned Sunday from Grants Pass. His father was much better when they left and it was thought he would recover from the illness which was the cause of George going over there last week.

Campfire girls will attend Union Sunrise services at 6:00 Easter morning on court house lawn rather than hold their own meeting as formerly planned.

Miss Beryl Unsoeld, from Orick, Calif., and Miss Isobel, from Oakland, came in last Sunday to spend a week here with their mother, Mrs. Geo. Unsoeld.

Miss Dorris Compton came home last week from O. S. C. to spend the spring vacation. Her sister Marilyn, came on Tuesday this week.

Coquille Valley Moose Lodge Will Be Instituted Sun., April 7

The new Coquille Valley Loyal Order of Moose lodge, which combines members from Coquille, Myrtle Point and Bandon, will be instituted Sunday afternoon, April 7, at two o'clock in Coquille.

At that hour nearly 100 will be initiated, following which the installation of newly appointed officers will take place. Another large class will also be initiated that same evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Lunch will be served after both meetings and several Moose talks will be heard at the afternoon ceremonies, with Al J. Sartori, of Spokane, Wash., past supreme governor of the order as principal speaker.

R. F. Gove, membership director of the Moose, forecasts a membership of at least 350 for this new Moose unit.

Camera Club To Meet At City Hall March 27

The Coquille Camera Club will meet at the Council Chamber in City Hall Wednesday, March 27. There will be several local interest amateur movie films shown. These meetings are open to the public. Anyone interested in amateur movie or still photography is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

New Faces In County Jail

Claude Bell was brought up from Bandon last Wednesday night to serve a ten-day sentence on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

From North Bend were brought Frederick Hendricks and Ray Stinson last Thursday. The former is charged with stealing an electric drill and the latter with receiving and concealing stolen property. They were bound over to the grand jury with bail for each set at $500.

Geo. Eisele, from Myrtle Point, entered the county jail on Monday to serve 30 days of a 60-day sentence for being drunk on the highway.

Ray Taft, Marshfield, having gotten into trouble, and having his parole revoked, entered on Monday to serve out the old $50 fine for conviction on an assault and battery charge.

A. L. Gorrings was arrested on a bench warrant on Tuesday. He is accused of making false statements as to injuries by which he secured about $200 from the State Accident Commission. The charge is that he was not injured and was not entitled to the money.

Geo. Wilkins was fined $100 and given 30 days in jail here Tuesday by Justice Barton for peddling and delivering liquor to a place where liquor is sold without a license.

Belle Knife Hospital Notes

Last Thursday Monte Walters, of Fairview, entered for treatment of an injured finger, and Mrs. Lillian Gant, of Lee, entered for treatment. Mary Denalinger, of North Bend, underwent a toxic goitre operation last Friday.

On Saturday Andy Parks, of Fairview, entered for treatment, Ray Cornwall, of Fishtrap, for a minor operation and Stanley Newton for an appendectomy. Cornwall was dismissed today.

Also on Saturday Mrs. B. E. Jones entered for medical attention and Kenneth Kistner, 16, underwent an appendectomy. Other appendicitis operations were for Betty Wilson on Tuesday and Homer Detwiler, local mail carrier, last Thursday.

Mrs. Georgia Bunch entered for flu treatment on Tuesday.

Dismissals were Mrs. Harold Robbins and baby last Wednesday, Vern Knolf on Thursday, Lillian Scolari on Monday, Mrs. Lyle Varney and baby and Mrs. E. A. Huff and baby on Tuesday.

Harbor Editor Goes Hollywood

After hobnobbing with royalty of screen and radio as Edgar McDaniel has just done at Hollywood, will he be the same "old Mac," editor of as good a paper as there is on the Oregon coast? Our guess is he will be and that North Bend still looks pretty good to him and that he would rather manage the Coos Bay Harbor than live in the cinema capital.
