Jr. Woman's Club

The Junior Woman's club, for the fourteenth time this year, will meet in Guild hall Monday evening at eight o'clock, with Miss Ellen Carver, Miss Georgianna Johnson, Miss Lorraine Sanders and Mrs. Preston Moy as hostesses.

Miss Julia Bennett, Coos county home demonstration agent and also a member of the junior club, will be in charge of Monday's program, called "Fun Nite." A large attendance of juniors is expected.

According to figures recently released, the Coquille Junior Woman's club is, this year, the largest junior club in the state of Oregon.

Tuesday at the all-day County Federation meeting in Marshfield, this local junior club was represented by four ladies: Mrs. Leo Sohler, Mrs. Wayne Robinson, president; Mrs. Alton Clausen and Mrs. Charles Briggs. Mrs. Robinson was appointed by Mrs. Harlan Montgomery to act as chairman of the nominating committee to report at the semi-annual meeting in Myrtle Point next October.

At the April 8 meeting of the junior club, the Coquille senior club, under the direction of Mrs. Roy Boober, will present its return program.

After Monday's meeting, the juniors will have three more meetings, a Golden Jubilee Birthday Party, and the installation banquet.

Farr-Mulkey Wedding Sunday

length gown of pastel blue taffeta. She carried a mixed bouquet.

The groom was attended by his brother, Leonard Farr. Ushers were: Charles E. Mulkey, brother of the bride; Don Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Nosler and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bailey.

Three hundred friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony of this popular young couple, among whom were nineteen Boy Scouts in uniform, who sat in a body as a courtesy to their former leader.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the newly married couple for the relatives and wedding party. The long table covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake; a wreath of silver leaves below each tier and topped with the traditional bride and groom. Under the cake dolly were tiny forget-me-nots and on either side of the cake were white tapers in crystal holders. Presiding were Mrs. Alice Farr of Albion, Washington, grandmother of the groom and Miss Eva Haines of Eugene. Assisting in serving were: Earla Phillips, of Myrtle Point, Gwen and Marylon Haines of Eugene and Maxine Sias. Guests at the reception were: Mrs. Alice Farr, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farr, Miss Edythe Farr, Leonard Farr, Mrs. Maud Skaggs Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Haines, Gwen and Marylon, Miss Eva Haines all of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Nosler, Don Bailey, Miss Annamse Holverstott, Mrs. Millie Heywood of Cle Elum, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Sias and Maxine, Charles Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Phillips and Earla and Mrs. Bessie Wood (the last three families being close friends of the Mulkeys and who seem just like their own folks).

C. C. Farr and Leonard took moving pictures of the ceremony, reception, etc. When the bride and groom left for a two weeks vacation south, Mrs. Farr was wearing an ice blue jacket frock with black accessories. On their return the young couple will be at their home at 890 West 4th St.

Norway Joint Knocked Over

A wreck on the road to Myrtle Point last Saturday night resulted in the arrest on Monday of Stella Frye and her son, Joe, on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor. The former is out on $1000 bail and Joe still languishes in the county bastille with bail set at $500.

Joe Coffman and Ralph E. Dusseau had patronized the Frye place at Norway and when they left, so stratic was their driving, that they hit the Bender car driven by Mrs. Ada Bender.

They were arrested and after pleading guilty in Justice Dodge's court at Myrtle Point to the charge of being drunk on the highway, they signed sworn statements as to where they secured their liquor and the Fryes' arrest followed.

Sea Foods

Although there is a scarcity of fresh fish at the present time, we can supply you with excellent quality of fillet of Sole, Finnan Haddie, fresh Oysters and picked Crab Meat.

With warmer weather we suggest chive, cream or country style cottage cheese, along with our usual line of pickles and luncheon meats.
