

Social Notes

The Zodiac club members met at the home of Mrs. Helen Detlefsen Wednesday for one o'clock luncheon with Mrs. Ruby Johnson as hostess. The party was in honor of Mrs. Detlefsen, who has been ill. The table was most attractive, carrying out the Easter motif with cute flowers, ice cream, etc., in the color scheme. This was the end of the club year and "revelation day," each member revealing her secret pal. Everyone received lovely gifts from their pals as a farewell memento. New pals were drawn for the new year. Mrs. Fuller received the door prize and Mrs. Detlefsen drew the lucky number. Present were: Mesdames Jane Burch, Ethel Fuller, Vera Hooton, Blanche Mast, Mildred Howe, Helen Detlefsen, Edith and Ora Tennant Edna Kern, Gladys Wheeler, Lorraine Thorp, a guest, Mrs. McPherson, and the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs. Kern April 10th, honoring Mrs. Roy Wheeler.

Many Seek
Enumerator Job

The circuit court room in the court house was crowded Tuesday with the men and women who are applicants for positions as enumerators in Uncle Sam's 1940 census taking in Coos county.

C. A. Schooling, assistant supervisor for this district, conducted the school, and said those accepted would not be asked to take the oath until after the rate of pay for the work in Coos county was made known from Washington, D. C.

The taking of the census is expected to start next Monday. It is expected that the county will be entirely covered and all noses counted in a month.
