Social Notes

Wednesday Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. W. H. Mansell were hostess at the meeting of the Episcopal Guild held in the Parish House. A short business meeting was followed by a social afternoon. Present were: Mesdames F. L. Greenough, Ida Owen, Chas. Stauff, A. O. Walker, G. S. Goeline, Jas. Watson, Frank Pook, George Gilman, J. S. Barton, Hal Pierce, L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, M. Oratke, C. V. Smith, C. T. Seibig, E. W. Lorenz and the hostesses.

Mrs. Sam Arnold entertained the Friendly Dozen club Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting with a dainty lunch served at the close of the afternoon by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jack Arnold. Others present were: Mesdames Levi Wilson, A. G. Trendell, Fred Wheaton, L. C. Kelley, Clyde Minard, Louis Fugelson and Fred Von Pegert.

The Tauk-an-so club met with Mrs. Parker Leatherwood Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. W. McGuffin was assistant hostess. The evening was spent in cards and sewing. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served. Present were: Mesdames Ernest Johnson, W. H. Wilmer, Mary Wigan, D. H. St. Clair, L. E. Embree, E. L. Schroeder, W. C. Jones, Jack Leach and Fern, R. M. Waggoner, Clarence Summers, Henry Belloni, Eeta Stewart and the hostesses.

Twenty-two Royal Neighbors from Coquille attended the county convention at North Bend April 12. The Coquille group put on the initiatory work and a fancy drill. The state supervisor Mrs. Broll, of Ashland, was present for the occasion.

Kay Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simmons of Riverton, celebrated her sixth birthday Tuesday, with a party from two-thirty until five o'clock. The youngsters played various games and then sat down to a table laden with goodies, favors, candles and a large birthday cake. Children present were: Sherill Hatcher, Marjorie Dacy, Joanne and Jimmy Newton, Myrna and Mel-don Ganser, Carren and Donald Mol-thu, Doanle Taylor, Freddie Shelton, Stanley Bogard, Peter Clausen, Janet Johnson, Nedine Molthe, Kay and Duane Simmons. Mothers present were Mesdames Howard Taylor, Bert Ganser, Ole Newton, Bernice Clausen, Bernice Molthu and Harold Simmons.

Jr. Woman's Club

An exceptionally interesting evening was enjoyed by the Coquille Junior Woman's club at Guild hall Monday evening.

At eight o'clock, Jimmie Bunch showed the colored motion pictures of the fashion show put on by Mrs. Marjorie Rowland of the Excel Dress Shop under the sponsorship of the Junior club last month.

Mrs. Wendell Sandall led group singing with Miss Inez Rover at the piano. Mrs. Stanley Ayres led the flag salute.

Mrs. Charles Briggs discussed the summer plans of the "Youth Council of Coquille" and the club voted to contribute $25 for its part of the recreational program.

Mrs. Donald McEniry announced the hostess committee for the next meeting to be Mrs. J. Eric Tucker, Mrs. Harold Gould, Mrs. Leo Sohler, and Miss Vesta Miley.

The president, Mrs. Wayne Robinson, asked that all officers and standing committees give their annual reports at the meeting on May 13. Mrs. Stanley Ayres, Mrs. Harold Stevens, and Mrs. Don McCune were appointed on the nominating committee.

The following committees for the installation banquet, which probably will be held at the Country club on Saturday evening, May 25, were appointed: Mrs. Charles Briggs, program; Miss Kramer, Miss Beverly Norton, and Miss Margaret Belloni, decorations; new president, toast-master; dance, Miss Marjorie Knight, Mrs. Craig Perrotti, and Mrs. Marlin Bandon; tickets, Miss Carol Young and Miss LaVerne Knife; transportation, Mrs. John Purkey.

The money recently derived from the sale of vanilla was turned over to the treasurer. Club girls still owing for the flavoring are requested to give their money directly to Mrs. Henry McCue.

The next meeting (and the last for this year) will be held on the second Monday of May. On that evening a special "Tribute to Mothers" will be paid, and the 1940-41 club officers will be elected.

Dr. Bunch and his son Jimmie took snapshots of the "Golden Jubilee Birthday Party" which followed the business session. Mrs. Sohler was chairman of the party which raised a sizeable sum of money for the foundation fund of the General Federation of Women's clubs. The room was attractively decorated with iris, and the white birthday cake bore 50 yellow lighted candles. Each girl present contributed one cent for each year of her age while the group sang "Happy Birthday To You."

Mrs. Marlin Brandon, past president, and Mrs. Wayne Robinson (past president very soon) were both honored with a very beautiful corsage of Cecil Bruner roses and had their pictures taken for the "Golden Jubilee Birthday Party" scrapbook.

Haga's Grocery Opened Saturday

Attention is called to Orvil Haga's grocery adv. on another page of this issue. Mr. Haga opened his new grocery store in the Shelley building where Marcus Shelley's Igloo is located, last Saturday. The store has a most neat and attractive appearance and is in a good location. Mr. Haga was formerly a resident of Coquille but for several years has conducted a store in Bandon which he has just sold.
