Mother-Daughter Banquet by B. P. W.

Monday night, Pioneer Hall was the scene of another Mother & Daughter banquet given by the Business and Professional Women's club members to their mothers and friends. The affair was in charge of the executive committee: Mrs. Margarita Brodie, Mrs. Edith Walton, Mrs. Harriet Osika, Mrs. Clara Bosserman and Miss Ellen Braxton.

The long tables were beautifully decorated with bowls of garden flowers and at each place was a dainty nut cup filled with nuts and dainties. The place card was on the rim of the cup. The very attractive programs were white, with a black silhouette of an old-fashioned mother on the cover. At the place of each guest was a small blooming plant.

Mrs. Osika was toastmistress for the occasion. Following the repeating of the club collect, led by Mrs. Bosserman, Mrs. Osika gave a short address of welcome to the mothers. Her mother, Mrs. Belle Gould, responded in behalf of the guests. Between courses, Miss Ruth Towne led the group in the singing of old familiar songs. Mrs. Roy Barton sang three lovely solos, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. A very attractive feature was a dance presented by Miss Ethel Roop and Miss Florence Henderson. Last but not least, were two solos by Mrs. Leona Bryant. She was also accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins.

Mrs. Ames, 92 years young and the oldest mother present, was presented with a potted plant. This was donated by Mrs. Brodie in honor of motherhood, "the noblest profession of all."

There was a drawing for the bowls of flowers on the tables. The lucky ladies were: Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Sr., Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Miss Fenn, Mrs. Martha Young, Mrs. Roy Barton, Mrs. Betty Guilbert, Miss Florence Henderson and Mrs. Clarence Barton.

At the close of the program, each member introduced her guest and told where she was born. One was born in Finland, two in Sweden and one in London, England.

Members present were: Mesdames Georgia Richmond, Annie Robinson, Marjorie Rowland, Bertha Smith, Bonnie Walker, Edith Walton, Florence Barton, Hazel Hanna, Eya Stevens, Blythe Saylor, Ruth Beyers, Clara Bosserman, Leona Bryant, Saima Caughell, Inez Chase, Gladys Gano, Pearl Jackson, Belle Knife, Viola Newton, Harriet Osika, Ida Owen, Jennie Price, Misses Myrtle DeLong, Lois Fenn, Myrtle Minter, Ida Oerding, Ellen Braxton, Edna Robinson, Ruth Towne, Eleanor Menegat, Ethel Roop and Cherie Mae Hartwell. Guests were: Mesdames Geo. Taylor, Sr., Henry Lorenz, M. O. Hawkins, A. O. Rogers, Lindros, Geo. Leach, S. L. DeLong, Ella Nelson, Ames, Harold Minter, Newton, M. E. Bates, A. N. Gould, A. J. Coquille Young People Married

Two Coquille young people stole a march on their friends last Saturday and came back from Eugene, where their marriage ceremony was performed, on Monday. Harry L. Claterbos, Jr., and Miss Barbara Leslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leslie of this city, were the contracting parties.

The young couple had been talking of being married for some time but their parents and friends thought they intended waiting until Miss Barbara finished her course at the university. She was a graduate of Coquille high school in 1938.

The groom is an employee at the Smith Wood-Products plant who has resided here since his father became manager of the First National Bank branch here a few years ago.

They have taken an apartment in the R. A. Wernich home, where they will go to housekeeping, although the bride may go back to the university to finish this year's course.

The Sentinel joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life together.

Reedsport Loses At Bridge To Coquille

Coquille bridge players returned the visit of the Reedsport brigers last Sunday and won by a smaller score than when the Reedsport crowd were here a week or so ago. Last Sunday there was only twelve points between the two. It was rather strange that the high point pair for Coquille, W. E. Bosserman and Don McCune, did not win a game all evening, their scores resulting from sets of the opposition. Don McEniry and Wm. Barrow were second high. Others who went from here were D. E. Rackleff and Wm. Hicking, who by the way committed the unusual by coming in last, C. M. Gray, Hal Pierce, Dick McClary and Frank Martin.

C. H. S. Fourth In State Track Meet

Coquille high school's three man entry in the state track meet at Corvallis last Friday and Saturday placed fourth with 14 points. Medford high was first with 21 1/2, Seaside second with 15, and Ontario third with 14 1/2.

Dee Krantz ranked third in the shot put heaving the weight 47 feet, 7 1/2 inches. Marvin Goodman placed second in the javelin toss and third in the broad jump.

Bob Arnold came in second in the mile run and at the tape was the freshest one on the track. He had held back in the first half, allowing others to crowd him over and coming around the last turn was back in seventh or eighth place. From there his sprint carried him to second but he started a little too late to catch the winner. The state high school record for the mile, 4 minutes, 29.3 seconds, was set by Paul Wilson, son of V. R. Wilson of this city, who was a Jefferson high student in Portland when he set this record back in 1912.

Bible School To Open Monday

All prospective attendants are asked to meet in the main auditorium of the Pioneer Methodist church at nine o'clock where they will be assigned to their classes. The intermediate division will then go to the Baptist church, the juniors to the Church of Christ, the primaries to the Pioneer Methodist and the beginners to St. James Episcopal. No children younger than four years will be enrolled. There is to be a special class, both for junior high school students and another for senior high school students.

George Oerding's Fine Record

Nation-wide publicity for consistent production has been earned by George E. Oerding, district agent for Coquille, Oregon, and vicinity for the Continental Assurance-Casualty Companies operating throughout the United States and Canada.

Among all representatives of his companies, Mr. Oerding has achieved the distinction of being one of twenty company leaders who have qualified consistently with the production of a new life insurance policy each week.

Mr. Oerding's accomplishment was recently publicized in a full page article printed in the companies' monthly magazine which is distributed to over 10,000 representatives. In accomplishing this feat, Mr. Oerding contributed to the record achieved by his agency, the Fred H. Schroeder agency of Portland, in establishing an all-time company record in qualifying the largest number of consistent weekly producers in any agency of the company.

As a reward for his accomplishment, Mr. Oerding has been awarded two cash bonuses, and in addition Mr. and Mrs. Oerding were invited to attend a special conference in Portland on the occasion of an official visit of the vice president, W. Edwin White, from the company's home office.

Seniors Attend Baccalaureate

Pioneer church was practically full Sunday evening for the Baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 1946, and the young ladies and gentlemen of the class made a very impressive showing as they entered the auditorium to the music of the processional and took their seats in front of the altar.

Mr. Sias, minister of the Church of Christ, delivered the baccalaureate sermon, presenting truths and comments in a straightforward and convincing manner that could not fail to impress his young listeners, as well as the older ones.

From processional to recessional the program was presented as outlined in these columns last week. The music was excellent, the address splendid, and the class had entered upon the final week of their public school life.
