

News Items From Adjacent Communities

Arago News

Ladies Aid met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gordon Fleming with the following in attendance: Mesdames Ward Evans, S. C. McAllister and Gordon Fleming. They met again yesterday at the same place to finish the quilt they are working on.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Jean accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wannamaugh, of Myrtle Point, to Bandon last Thursday, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cox.

Mrs. Wayne Woodward left Wednesday for Odell Lake, where she will join Mr. Woodward and Gerald, who have been employed there for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank left Saturday for Corvallis, where they went to attend the commencement exercises. Mrs. Burbank's brother, Price, being one of the graduates. They will return home Monday evening. Gordon Fleming and Junior Gulstrom have been helping with the chores while Mr. Burbank is away.

Mrs. Esther Fredenburg, of Langlois, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford, Thelma and Nola, Edna and Delbert Hayes, Kenton and Lillaverie Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fleming, Donald, Virginia and Glenn and Elton Rider all enjoyed a picnic at Broad-bent Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schroeder and Leslie, of Coquille, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gasner and Donna Rae, of Norway, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl left Sunday for Corvallis, where they went to attend the commencement exercises, their son, Wallace, being one of the O. S. C. graduates. They returned home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister drove to Bandon Sunday and enjoyed a picnic dinner in the grove there, after which they drove to Natureland home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hammack and family on Monday moved to Powers, where Mr. Hammack will be employed in the logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burtis drove to Gravelford Thursday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Webb.

Gordon Fleming spent from Wednesday until Saturday of last week at Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvus Miller, Phyllis and Alice left for Central Point last week where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Miller's brother, Cecil McQuigg.

Mrs. H. E. Watkins and Jean left Saturday for La Grande where Mary Watkins was a graduate from normal. Miss Mary will accompany them as far as Portland and remain there for a short visit before coming on down to the coast.

Mrs. Everett Lafferty, Allen, Mayre Lee and Howard of Langlois were Monday visitors at the George Hampton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Halter, Allen and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw, Patty and Arlan and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fleming, Donald, Virginia and Glen and Mrs. Ethel Burns all enjoyed a pot luck dinner at the Russell McBain home last Thursday in honor of Mr. McBain's birthday.

Stephen Aasen returned home from LaVerne college Sunday evening.

The regular weekly bible study was held Wednesday evening at the church with J. D. Root leading the discussion on the 13th chapter of Luke. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root and John Paul, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy, Mrs. Ward Evans, and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister.

Mrs. Al Volck of Langlois visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy Thursday.

Rev. H. A. Minter of Coquille conducted the regular Sunday morning church service. Sunday school followed with an attendance of around 30. There were no evening services. Services will be held next Sunday as follows. Preaching at 10 a. m. and Sunday school at 11 a. m.

A school board meeting was held Saturday evening at which time it was voted to make some needed improvements on the dressing rooms in the gymnasium and also to install a new oil heating plant for next winter.

Gordon Fitz Henry of Powers arrived at the A. B. Crawford home to spend most of the summer.

Fairview News Items

The following Fairview notes arrived last Wednesday afternoon after the Sentinel, published a day early, was out.

The Fairview Home Economics Unit held a meeting at the grange hall last Tuesday. It was an all-day meeting with a pot luck luncheon at noon. Miss Julia Bennett, Home demonstration agent, demonstrated, "Why We Behave As We Do." A lovely gift was presented her by the club, this being her last meeting at Fairview. The next meeting will be in September. Those present were: Deadmond, Joe Berkeimer, S. B. Mesdames Glenn Richardson, Ray Hendrix and daughter, Charles Greetner, Lloyd Teagarden, S. C. Duncanson, Doyee and children, Ivyl Frye and daughter, H. M. Waldo, Walter Norris, Ray Norris, Ned Kay, Charles Holverstott, R. J. Holverstott, Elmer Goodwin, Paul Prince, H. M. Hall, C. D. Reynolds, Charles Farmer, Roberts, Misses Nelda Norris, Glenda and Melva Richardson, Lorraine Norris, Helen Johnson, Mrs. Velin Moore and Miss Frances Pratt of Gravelford, and Miss Julia Bennett of Coquille.

Mrs. Fred Johnson underwent a major operation at the Keizer hospital last week.

Mrs. Clara Hoag, of Portland, left Wednesday for home. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. H. Benham and attended the Coquille graduation.

Luella Lawton returned to Fairview last Thursday after visiting her sister in Eugene.

Nadine Edwards left last Friday for Eugene, where her parents live. Harold Norris took her to Eugene.

Harold Shook of Talemage, California, left Tuesday for home after spending the past week with his sister, Mrs. I. H. Benham and attending the Coquille high school graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith left Friday for Santa Ana, California, where he plans to obtain employment.

The Fairview school held their graduation last week with the following receiving their diplomas, Helen and Pauline Kiprod, George Hughes, Edward Stevenson, Lyle Waldo and William Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reed of Los Angeles, California, are working for Mrs. Ray Deadmond.

Harold Norris returned home last Monday morning from Eugene where he accompanied Nadene Edwards.

Donna Jean Duncanson is around on crutches now after having an unfortunate accident at Bandon when a log rolled on her. She was taken to the doctor but found that no bones were broken but was quite swollen.

The Fairview young people motored to Powers Monday to enjoy a weiner roast given by the Powers young people. Games were played around the bonfire, followed by a weiner roast. Those going from Fairview were: Vesta and Donna Jean Duncanson, Marge Ryan, Shirley Bailey, Maxine Engels, Luella Lawton, Ralph Zeener, Owen Brown, Frank Snodgrass, Ray Comer, Elmer Goodwin, Ray Crabb, Jeff Woodward, Bud Comer, Harold and Raymond Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Benham and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hol-verstott, Kenneth and Lindy Lou and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thurman and family motored to Bridge last Sunday to attend the dinner given in honor of Mrs. Melissa Brownson who celebrated her 90th birthday Sunday.

There were 33 in attendance made up by her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Mrs. Brownson seems to be quite active for her age.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richardson motored to Roseburg last Friday to visit friends and relatives. Glenda and Melva Richardson remained with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stelzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sonneland and Nancy purchased the south forty of the Barnett place and will make their home there in the near future.

Miss Luella Lawton left Monday evening for Powers where she will stay a few days to be with her father and brothers, before they start on the evangelistic tour. She plans to return to Fairview Wednesday.

Ira Deadmond of Eugene arrived Thursday morning to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deadmond and other relatives.

McKinley News

A wedding of much interest in Grange circles took place Sunday at the Dora chapel when Miss Priscilla Miller, daughter of M. C. Miller, master of McKinley Grange, was given in marriage to the overseer, Harry Mast. The young couple went to San Francisco on their honeymoon to visit the fair. On their return they will live near the Laird, Benham & Laird camp where Harry is employed.

Cecil Dugger received word Sunday that his aunt, Mrs. John Dugger, who lived near Coquille on the Arago road, passed away; his wife had been helping care for Mrs. Dugger and had only returned home for a short rest. They both returned to be with the uncle until after the funeral.

Ted Brown, who has been employed at the C. D. Ray camp, received a painful neck injury and has had x-rays taken but it is not known at this writing if the injury is serious or not.

Bill Frame has been laid up with a back injury for several days. His brother, Earl Frame, and wife and infant son, of Tillamook, are visiting at the Frame home this week.

Work has been started on the Middle creek bridge just below the McKinley postoffice. If the bridge is taken entirely out as seems necessary to put on a different angle for a safer approach, it may be some time before traffic can be resumed over this route.

Mr. and Mrs. William Egenhoff and a party of friends from Marshfield were Sunday guests at the W. W. Lawhorn home. Miss Mary Boone was a house guest there until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lawhorn and infant daughter, of Ophir, were visitors over the week-end also.

Mrs. J. B. O'Sullivan has as guests, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Avery, from California. They left for home Tuesday.

The W. W. Rhules had a house warming party at their new home Saturday. Besides all the family and their wives and husbands, a number of local friends enjoyed their hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy Heller and friends from Coquille motored to Port Orford Saturday night and returned Sunday.

Rhonald Maiden was among the injured last week and is now home from the hospital. He was hurt at Kline's camp in the Fairview neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Maiden have a new car, a Chevrolet, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Brown are driving a Lafayette-Nash. It is difficult to keep track of the neighbors because of the new cars. In the good old days it was as easy to tell who was coming by their car rattles as it was in the horse and buggy days and we could tell the team as far as the eye could see.

Capt. Greenley has brought his wife and daughter out from Myrtle Point to spend the summer at the CCC camp. They will occupy the house built by the Eldon Holmes family.

Myrtle Point News

Miss Kathleen Gilkison, Miss Lorraine White, and Norman Williams drove from Portland Wednesday for Memorial Day. Miss White and Mr. Williams returned Monday to resume their work. They were accompanied by Delbert Steele, who went up to visit the Rose Show for the week.

Mrs. Robert MacKerrow and Mrs. Donald Gilkison have rented the building formerly occupied by Snodgrass Shoe Repair and opened a Steak and Coffee shop last Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Lafferty returned from Portland Saturday, where she had been on business. Miss Ethel Ropp, who accompanied her, continued on to her home at Willowa for a visit before entering summer school.

Monday, June 10, will open a children's playground at the city park each morning from 9 to 12 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Lafferty. Mrs. Lafferty is very capable, having had years of teaching experience. There will be a charge of 25c a week for each child attending. This will be run for eight weeks. Each week will be that a child must have been in attendance at least four days of that week prior to the contest.

Monday evening the Royal Neighbors met for their regular meeting. Mrs. Mary Johnson, Miss Marilyn Ziebarth and Mrs. Janice Goffield were taken into the order by initiation. Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Merry Matrons Club, R. N. A. will meet June 13 at the home of Mrs. Rufus Lemon with Mrs. Walter Sparks and Mrs. Fred Mants as hostesses.

Mrs. Vesta Cobb and children of Salem are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Snyder.

Mrs. L. W. Clinton entertained her pinocle club Wednesday afternoon at her home on the River road. Members present were Mesdames Richard Stratton, Merle West, Harry Christy. Guests were Mesdames Vern Lundy, John Arnold, William Brown and Miss Margaret Waldamott. Prizes were won by Mrs. Christy high, and Mrs. West low and Mrs. Brown high guest prize.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Clinton with Mrs. Harry Christy as co-hostess.

Mrs. Cora Mulkey had the misfortune to cut her hand with an axe Monday. She was treated at Mast hospital where 20 stitches were taken.

Mrs. Harry Lindsay and daughters, Virginia Lea and Lula Marie, spent Monday with friends at Glendale and then went on to Grants Pass, where they visited until Friday with Mrs. Lindsay's mother, Mrs. Lula Garrett, and sister, Mrs. George Williams.

Mrs. Amelia Hill came in from Roseburg Thursday to visit her mother, Mrs. Melissa Brownson and other relatives and to be present at the family gathering on Sunday, celebrating Mrs. Brownson's 90th birthday anniversary.

June Booher will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening. The topic is "The Price of Friendship."

Alton Brostrom, of Myrtle Creek, will begin an evangelistic meeting here on Thursday evening, June 6, to continue until Sunday evening, June 23, and possibly longer. Services will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the people of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes, of El Cerrito, California, and two grandsons, Vern Willey, of El Cerrito, and Robert Lantis, of Ashland, Oregon, were guests for a few days last week at the Ray L. Beckett home. They returned home by the coast road.

Frank Culver went to Myrtle Point Saturday and had a broken-rib taped. The accident occurred at Eden Ridge where he is employed.

E. J. Walker and sons, E. J. and Jerry, A. L. Booher and son, Jim, Glenn Hutton and Clarence Fiser went to Coquille Saturday and got the church bell from the old Methodist church building. The bell was kindly presented by Dr. Richmond to the local church.

Clarence E. Ellison, who was principal of the school at Helix the past year, after five years as principal here, arrived Sunday evening at the Ehrig home to visit friends here. Orville Rice, who has been attending the Normal at La Grande, came in with him.

Mrs. Ray L. Beckett was hostess at a lovely birthday dinner Sunday for the pleasure of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Fiser. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fiser, Ruth and E. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Beckett, Virginia and Alden.

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore.

USE YOUR PHONE CALL — 258

SPECIAL Fri. - Sat., June 7 - 8

FREE DELIVERY C. O. D. Service

SAUSAGE Same Good Quality 2 lbs. 25c

SIRLOIN STEAK Cut from Prime Beef per lb. 18c

FRESH SIDE PORK By the piece or sliced per lb. 15c

BOILING MEAT Cuts of Young Tender Beef per lb. 11c

LUNCH MEAT Large variety to choose from per lb. 25c

Ham and Veal PADDIES Serve them for any meal. Something different 7 for - 25c

Bond's Market 419 Front St.

Father's DAY

YOU CAN'T FORGET IT AND THESE GIFT SUGGESTIONS AIM TO MAKE DAD FEEL YOUNG AGAIN

Sport Shirts

Wear them wherever you are, whatever you do; they're cool summer comfort in the best of new style.

Slacks

- Slacks
- Ties
- Sox
- Slippers
- Belts
- Handkerchiefs
- Suspenders
- Shirts & Shorts

A pair of our well tailored slacks will be appropriate for many occasions.

Ties

One of those Non-Crushables in attractive patterns or one of the famous Oswego Indian weaves would be appreciated.

LORENZ DEPARTMENT STORE

Since 1887

FOR--

- Wool Bags and Twine
 - Hay Salt
 - Dairy Fly Spray
 - Household Fly Spray
- AND
- MEO - 181

The one shot weed killer for Dandelion, Plantain, and Quack Grass, that will not kill your lawn.

GO TO

Eaton's Feed Store

Marshfield Phone 111 Coquille Phone 76 Myrtle Point Phone 118 Bandon Phone 431