A yellow and white birthday cake, topped with five candles, was enthusiastically greeted by the small friends of Jane Gould, when they gathered at the Harold Gould home Thursday afternoon, to help Janie celebrate her birthday. Balloons, candy baskets and other favors kept the young guests amused between games out of doors and a trip to grandfather A. N. Gould's home, where they were treated to a view of the deer, elk and other interesting animals kept there. Mrs. Gould was assisted in entertaining the youngsters by Mrs. Stanford Newton. Guests included Helen Taylor, Marcia Mauney, Patty Brown, Patsy Ray Detlefsen, Dianna Schroeder, Nancy Perrott, Mavis Newton, Peggy Ann Hughes, Jimmy Hatcher, Cynthia Rust, Sherrill Hatcher, Carol Ann Creager and Martelle Roper and Rose Mary Rickard of Myrtle Point.

The Helping Hand Division of the Missionary Society of the Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. Aaron Wilson Thursday for a potluck dinner and business meeting. As its new project, the group has undertaken to give assistance to the Hales, missionaries recently sent to the Philippines. From here will be sent household linens, which are short lived in the Islands due to the strenuous laundering given them by natives. The group will also send clothing to Mr. Hale, who is not a large man according to our standards, but finds himself much too big to fit into garments designed for the diminutive Filipinos. Those present included Mesdames George Chapman, Berlyn Billings, Mitts and daughter Mrs. Jones of Cottage Grove, Ralph Harry, Eida Souder, Archie Hatcher, John Sanders, E. T. Davidson, Hess Davidson, Fred Martin, Murphy, Henry George, C. Adrian Sias, Aarof Wilson and Maude Woodyard.

Little Deanne Baynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baynton, celebrated her third birthday Friday, June 7 from two to four by having a number of her little friends and their mothers. The cake was decorated with pink wax dolls and looked very pretty lighted, as the little guests sat around the table for their refreshments. Pink balloons streamed down from the ceiling.

Those present were: Mrs. A. Elliott and Sandra Ann, Mrs. Le Roy Swinney and Bobby and Janet, Mrs. Howard Taylor and Danny, Mrs. John Gamblin and Dorothy Ann, Mrs. Tom Gamblin and Linda Lou, Mrs. Lawrence Hatcher and Dickie, Mrs. Elmer Cunningham and Ladeau, Dorothy and Lonny McKibben, Patty Briskin and the little hostess Deanne and mother, Mrs. Paul Baynton.

One o'clock dessert luncheon was served members of the Ace of Clubs Friday, when they met at the home of Mrs. Roy Wheeler for an afternoon at the card table. High score for the day's play went to Mrs. Hazel McKibben, while Mrs. Mattie Leatherwood received low score prize. Guests attending were Mrs. Merrill Foss and Mrs. William Mansell, while members present were Mesdames Roy Beyers, Ben Leatherwood, Sunny McKibben, Grace McKibben, John Darby and sister Fern, Chas. Mansell, Roy Wheeler, A. A. Kyle and Bob Foster.

Helen Kyle entertained the feminine members of her bridal party at a bride's luncheon, given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle, Friday. After inspection of the wedding gifts, the guests were served a dainty luncheon. Those present were the Misses Jeannette Wheeler, Eunice Howe, Dorothy Belle Newton, Elinor Paque of Portland and Mrs. John Zander.

Of interest to many Coquille people was the large wedding in Marshfield Friday of Miss Phyllis Jameson to Kenneth Crabtree. Rev. Charles M. Guilbert performed the ceremony at Emmanuel church before many of the couple's friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Ernie Harrison, was lovely in an afternoon dress of rose crepe. Among the Coquille people attending the wedding were members of the E. M. Kay family.

Mrs. W. C. Jones entertained Saturday at dessert luncheon for Lurene St. Clair, who will become the bride of Wasley Laird on June 14. Dessert of ice cream and cakes in pastel colors, was served to guests whose places were marked at the card tables by tiny paper parasols bearing their names.

Following refreshments, Miss St. Clair opened packages, which had been piled under a large white paper umbrella on the dining room table, by her many friends, who attended the shower. Guests attending the party were Mrs. W. J. Phillips and Mrs. David Drew of Marshfield, Mrs.

Amos Payne of Myrtle Point and Mesdames George Laird, Lafe Compton, Henry Belloni, Summers, Willard Burrell, Donald Shore, Rolly Newton, Clyde Barrow, Harold McCue, D. H. St. Clair, and Misses Jeannette Pierce, Jean Laird and Lurene St. Clair.

The Co-Workers club met with Mrs. Ora Bell last Thursday, with potluck lunch at noon. The time was spent in crocheting, knitting and chatting. Mrs. Mabel Holycross held the lucky number for the club prize. The club will meet again on June 19, with Mrs. Gena Chase. Those present were Mesdames Lena Embree, Katharine Schroeder, Millie Child, Chas. Dondono, Alpha Young, Lon Smith, Gena Chase, W. H. Schroeder, Mack Gant, Homer Detwiler, Lena McNair, Ernest Embree and son, Ora Bell, Mabel Holycross, Norma McNair, Julia Davidson, Laura McNair, Misses Julia Davidson, Laura McNair, and invited guests, Martha Negar, Juanita Stinson, Maxine Gant and Mrs. Edith Gardner.

The Lincoln club met with Mrs. Agnes Nigren on Tuesday of last week. A business meeting followed lunch and several readings were given by different members. Afternoon was spent chatting, sewing and knitting. Mrs. W. H. Schroeder received the first prize. Those present were Mesdames Flora E. Dunne, Clara Wheeler, Maud Bean, Gena Chase, Roxy Haskins, Bertha Wilson, Jos. Child, W. H. Schroeder, the hostess, an invited friend, Mrs. Nigren and two small sons. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Frank Thrift entertained Monday at dessert bridge. High score prize and traveling prize were both won by Mrs. R. E. Boober. Mrs. Hal Pierce held second honors. Those attending were Mesdames John Aasen, of North Bend, R. E. Boober, who came down from Newport for the party, E. M. Kay, Hal Pierce, Harold Zeigler, Mary McKeown, U. E. McClary, Frank Thrift and T. B. Currie.

Mrs. George Holbrook, Noble Grand of the Rebekah lodge, presided over the meeting Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Initiated into the organization was Mrs. Parker Leatherwood. Following the business meeting refreshments were served to a large number of members.

The Laf-a-lot club met Thursday for dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ed. Detlefsen, where the afternoon was spent sewing and talking. Following is a list of members attending: Mesdames Josh Ruble, Geo. Gilman, O. K. Rakestraw, W. E. Cross, Will Meyers, Ed Detlefsen, Cora Mackey and John Martin.

Many friends of Miss Leta Wallace, of Portland, who has been visiting Mrs. M. Earl Wilson and Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunch gathered Monday evening at the Bunch home for a picnic dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinton and Dick, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Walker and Rhea, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leslie, Mrs. Inez Chase, Mrs. Edith Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Folsom and George, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berg and Patricia, Diana Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Kline and sons, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gant and George, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Couch and Mrs. Sara Wheeler, of Portland, Mrs. Wilson and Margaret Ann and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tuttle and Sammie Kramer, Dixie Wadington and Dr. and Mrs. Bunch.

Mrs. L. C. Davenport entertained Thursday at her home on the Fishtrap road at a bridge luncheon. Guests included Mesdames Wayne Caudle, Robert Ocheltree, Herbert Houghton, Lois Schmidt, of Myrtle Point, and Wilda Shepherd, of Dora.

Georgianna and Maxine Johnson entertained members of the Omnit club Tuesday evening at a shower honoring Miss Lurene St. Clair, who will be a bride of this week. Large bouquets of sweet peas, gaily wrapped gifts and a colorful dessert combined to give this meeting a gala atmosphere for the honored guest.

Mrs. R. L. Littrell won high score at bridge, while low score prize went to Ellen Carver. Guests present included Margaret Belloni, Aloha Allen, Lurene St. Clair, Jean Laird, Frances Littrell, Virginia Wood, Mary Edna Swindal, Norene McKeown, Lorraine Perrott, Gretchen Clinton, Jean Moy, Helen Lund, Audrey Mattoon, Ellen Carver and the hostesses, Maxine and Georgianna Johnson.

The Dorcas division of the Church of Christ Missionary society met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gus McCulloch, with Mrs. Belle Hooton as co-hostess. Following 1:30 dessert luncheon, Mrs. Hooton led the group in a short devotional service and presided over the business meeting.

Plans were made to send a Christmas box to the Smiths, missionaries in Alaska. The organization is a work on a layette, which will be given to a needy family in this community.

Inasmuch as the Dorcas division will not meet in July, it has accepted an invitation from the Green Dell ladies to meet with them in August.

Following is the list of members attending the meeting: Mesdames Guy Kelley, Arthur Hooton, C. E. McKee, Jerry Peart, Ed Aasen, Art Towne, Vern Bailey, Alton Dungey, E. H. Odell, W. A. Sloan, Paul Simpson, Harold McCue, Jennie Lafferty, Belle Hooton and Gus McCulloch.

A group of young matrons and their children met at the Alton Clausen home Wednesday morning to perfect plans for organizing a picnic club to meet regularly during the summer. After a picnic lunch near the Clausen farm, the party completed its arrangements and spent the balance of the afternoon in conversation and games with the children. Those present were Mrs. Charles Briggs and two young sons, Mrs. Wayne Robinson and daughter, Darilyne, and Mrs. Alton Clausen and daughter, Linda.

Announcements have been received locally of the marriage of Lorna Eloise Barham, of Salem, to Charles Arthur Meyer on June 2 at Salem. Don Lanham accompanied Mr. Meyer to Salem, where he acted as best man at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will return here in the fall when Mr. Meyer will resume his duties as athletic coach for the Junior High.

The Charta club was entertained Thursday for 1:00 o'clock luncheon by Mrs. Val Harless. Members of the club presented Mrs. Ted Snyder with a birthday present. After luncheon, the group played pinochle. Mrs. Jack Jarvis won first prize, Mrs. Ernie Pagel took low prize, while the traveling prize was awarded to Mrs. Walter Paulson. Members present included Mesdames Irving Larson, Val Harless, Walter Paulson, Ernest Whereat, Jay Carter, Ted Snyder, Jack Jarvis and Ernie Pagel.

B. and P. W. Club Dinner Monday

The B. & P. W. club will have a pot luck dinner at the Guild Hall Monday evening, June 17 at 6:30. The preparations and program are in charge of the transportation committee, Inez Rover, chairman; and the health committee, Geneva Norton, chairman. A guest speaker will be the outstanding feature of the program.

At the last meeting the members present were asked to vote on the two following questions: Which club member has made the most outstanding contribution to democratic thinking in the club during the year? Which program this year was the most successful? The answers to these will be announced at the potluck dinner. All members are invited to attend.
