Social Notes

The Episcopal Guild picnic Wednesday at the Bert Folsom and Sam Tuttle cabins at Croft lake was attended by about fifty ladies and children. Some members of the Myrtle Point Guild and the Bandon Guild were there. Dining table and card tables in both cabins creaked with the load of food prepared by the notoriously good cooks in the organization.

After the picnic most of the children and some of the women went swimming, while others spent the afternoon talking and sewing.

The Double Four club met with Mrs. Joseph Allard for dessert and pinochle Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Betty Payne won high score for the afternoon's play and Mrs. George McClellan won low score prize. Members present included Mesdames Geo. McClellan, Sunny McKibben, John Darby, George Perrault, Betty Payne and Norman Fletcher. Miss Fern Kane was a guest.

Mrs. Harold Dey entertained members of the Friday Evening Bridge club at her home last week, for dessert and cards. High score prize went to Evelyn Elliott and second prize to Geneva Norton. Members present were Mesdames Evelyn Elliott, Faye Wagner, Maxine Stevens, Mary Stevens, Lorraine Perrott, Frances Detlefsen, Geneva Norton and Ruth Dey.

The Job's Daughters business meeting Monday evening was very short because many of the members were out of town at that time. Jean Laird, honored queen, presided over the meeting. Announcement was made of the installation of new officers, which will take place June 24. Following installation there will be a party.

Members attending the meeting were Jean Laird, Gretchen Clinton, Marybelle Yarbrough, Dorothea Yarbrough, Kay Leslie, Geraldine Cole, Beverly Norton, Colleen Ireland, Jessie Sherwood, Patsy Holverstott, Donna Dunn and Betty Donsted.

Dorothy Belle Newton gave a surprise shower a week ago Friday evening for Miss Helen Kyle, bride-elect of Roy Adamason. Assisting Dorothy Belle were her mother, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. James Richmond and Mrs. Belle Knife. After the many beautiful gifts had been inspected, strawberry shortcake was served to the following guests: Mesdames Wm. Ireland, W. G. Tyrrell, Wm. Peart, Henry Ellis, L.

Bear Creek News

Ancil Haga, who has not been feeling well for some time, will be confined to his bed for a few days. The doctor has ordered a complete rest while his blood is being built up.

Howard Hancock and family called on friends and relatives last Sunday. When on Bear Creek he dined on the Morris Ray ranch but now has a ranch on the Coquille-Myrtle Point highway.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Miller, who spent several months visiting relatives in Michigan, returned home last week. They report having been compelled to shovel snow twice while on their trip.

Mr. Bettencourt, who formerly worked on the John Devereux ranch, is now employed at the Ancil Haga place. He will help Graydon with the milking and farm work while Ancil is unable to attend to it.

Miss Muriel Herman, a student at Oregon State College for the past nine months, is home for the summer vacation.

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the beach Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Verna Head, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Haga, for the past three weeks. Mrs. Head is expecting her husband in from Klamath Falls this week and plans to return home with him. Those enjoying the picnic dinner and ice cream were: Mrs. Verna Head, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albertson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haga and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heffley, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Haga and children and Cecil Albertson.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Reasonable prices on homesite lots in new subdivision of acreage, on and adjacent to highway, now being offered by owner. Located west side of highway, north of Sixth street and south of high school. Mrs. R. A. Wernich, phone 136J.

Reposessed twin maple poster bed, coil spring and innerpring mattresses sold new for $36.25 now $19.50. Easy terms. Coquille Furniture Co.
