Chevrolet Exhibit At Fair Outstanding

Chevrolet dealers of northern California were high in their enthusiasm this week in their comments on the beautifully new and completely modernized Chevrolet exhibit which is drawing record-breaking crowds daily to the General Motors exhibit at the Golden Gate International Exposition. Chevrolet attractions: the chromium and officials of Chevrolet Motor Division have made our 1940 exhibit on Treasure Island the most attractive of its kind ever seen anywhere," said Cliff Gulseth, Southwestern Motors Chevrolet dealer. "Our Chevrolet display is the largest in the General Motors exhibit and embodies a host of advances in the industry that are receiving the immediate acclaim of visitors. Presenting sparkling new colors and features, six 1940 model Chevrolets of all series are placed to advantage around the elaborate display floor and surround the two main Chevrolet attractions: the chromium chassis, which affords the public a perfect view of the strong construction and mechanism of our 1940 car, and the "Magic Mirror" stage, which automatically frames a smart new 1940 Cabriolet against an all-season's background."

Motorists who haven't already visited the Chevrolet display in the General Motors exhibit are advised to do so by Mr. Gulseth, in order that they may see at close hand the many improvements, both from a comfort, as well as a safety angle, that Chevrolet Motor Division engineers are constantly striving to give the driving public. "Throughout the exhibit, are many highly interesting and educational features," he said, "and I personally believe that an inspection of this 1940 showing will be well rewarded."

Victory Dinner at Church of Christ Friday, June 14, 6:45 P. M.

A "Victory Dinner" will be held at the Church of Christ Friday, 6:45 p. m. A potluck dinner will be first on the program. All members and friends of the church are invited to attend. New members, since March 18 when new members prior to that date were honored, who will be honored at this dinner will be Martha and Norma Miller, Mrs. Martin Gasner, Mrs. Nora Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hardenbrook, Mrs. Mary Carter, Mrs. Amy Mintonye, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Bash, Elton Salisbury, Mrs. C. R. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eastman and Miss Janice Osterhout.

The occasions for this dinner are the facts that in the report year of the church, June 1 to June 1, there have been 101 added to the local church; the high average attendance in the Bible school of 214 since Jan. 1, 1946; the high spirit of cooperation throughout the entire church; the beginning of Mr. Sias' third year with the local church, and the laying of plans for the future.

At the dinner there will be special numbers such as yodelling by Fred Martin and a reading by Mrs. Mary Hatcher. Immediately after the dinner all will retire to the auditorium where numbers on the program will include short talks by: T. M. White and Harold Stone, of Myrtle Point; Ralph Harry and Willard Sloan, of Coquille, and C. Adrian Sias, local minister.

Interpersed with these talks will be cornet and trombone solos by Geo. Holbrook and Harold Winegar and a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Towne. There will be a baptismal service. The meeting will be dismissed not later than 8:45 p. m. To insure room for all, the meal will be served cafeteria style with tables placed for use of those who wish.

South Sea and Lamour Glorify "Typhoon" Film At Roxy Theatre Sun., Mon., Tues.

All the romance and color of the South Seas are combined with the loveliness of Dorothy Lamour as a sun-tanned, sarong-clad island beauty to brighten Paramount's Technicolor South Seas adventure-romance, "Typhoon," which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Roxy Theatre.

Miss Lamour's newest role since "Road to Singapore" places her on an uninhabited Polynesian island, far from the sea lanes, where she has grown to womanhood after being shipwrecked as a little girl. Robert Preston, Lynne Overman and J. Carroll Nash are co-featured with Dotty in top roles.

One of the main supporting characters is Koko, trained chimpanzee, whom Dorothy finds on the island, and raises as her companion and playmate. Koko and Dorothy are inseparable, and Dorothy's primitive companion proves a real headache to Robert Preston when he joins the two-some.

There are thrills aplenty to the story, and plenty of visual punches in its technicolor telling. Important among these latter will be Dorothy Lamour in her scantier-than-ever, bright cloth sarong—which this time is actually a "lava-lava." The amazing technicolor photography of the typhoon, on an island fire, and a tidal wave had preview fans gripping their seats! The awe-inspiring spectacle of tropical fury is reported on a par with, if not greater, than the effects achieved for the earthquake in "San Francisco." Torrential rains are followed by a gale which uproots whole palm trees. No expense was spared to squeeze every bit of thrill from the fury.

Robert Preston, playing opposite Dorothy, appears as a wastrel ex-sailor and Lynn Overman supplies humor throughout. Louis King, who includes "Bengal Tiger" among his many successes, directed.
