Pretty Church Wedding Sunday

bouquet of white carnations and gardenias.

The music of Bobbie Burns at the electric organ and the singing of Mrs. G. W. Tyrrell added charm and dignity to the ceremony. The first number was an organ solo of "I Love You Truly," then followed Mrs. Tyrrell's beautiful renditions of "At Dawning" and "Oh Promise Me." Prior to the entrance of the bridal party, Mr. Burns played "Liebestraum." The bride and her coterie entered the church to the stirring strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, which was played softly throughout the entire ceremony, giving a romantic background to the solemnity of the occasion.

A great urn of purple Canterbury Bells, luscious rhododendrons and potted plants spread about the altar with lavish hand, all combined to make a charming background for the lovely bride and her party. Bridesmaids were Jeannette Wheeler, Eunice Howe, Dorothy Belle Newton and Eleanor Paque of Portland. Mr. John Zander acted as best man for the groom, while the ushers were Howard Kyle and Ernest Adamson, Jr. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. A. A. Kyle.

Following the ceremony, the young couple was honored by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle. More than seventy persons were served pieces of the three tiered, 25 pound wedding cake by the bridesmaids.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Adamson set off on their honeymoon trip. They will travel down the coast to Los Angeles, stopping enroute at the Golden Gate Exposition. From California they plan to travel to Phoenix, Arizona and north by the inland route to Belknap Hot Springs. They will return to Coquille during the first week of July.
