Young People Wed Saturday

St. James' Episcopal Church was the scene of a charming wedding Saturday at high noon, when Lurene St. Clair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack St. Clair, pledged her vows to Wasley Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Laird. The church was decorated with calla lilies. Rev. Charles M. Guilbert officiated in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

The bride was given away by her father. Her only attendant was Miss Jean Laird. Jack Laird was his brother's best man.

Miss Gretchen Clinton played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a navy blue princess coat worn over a light blue dress. Her white hat was of the off-the-face style. She carried a white satin muff trimmed with lilies of the valley and an orchid. Her attendant wore a navy blue coat over an aqua dress.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Coquille Hotel to the following guests: Richard Walker, Georgianna Johnson, Lynn Perrott, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Mr. Tillman, Jack and Jean Laird, Gretchen Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack St. Clair and Mrs. Jeannette Pierce.

Immediately after the wedding breakfast, the young couple left for a short wedding trip to Portland and Seaside. They have now returned from their trip and are making their home at Rock Creek for the summer.

Jacoby-Gilman Nuptials Sunday

Miss Elda Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gilman, became the bride of Mr. Harry D. Jacoby, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jacoby of Eugene, at a charming wedding at the Gilman home Saturday, at 10:00 a. m.

Great bunches of sweet peas and vases filled with Canterbury bells adorned the rooms in which the double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend W. S. Smith, before a few intimate friends and relatives of the young couple. Miss Frances Oddy, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a floor length gown of blue lace and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Edward Jacoby, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was given away by her father, George A. Gilman.

The bride was beautiful in a floor length gown of white marquisette and finger tip veil of white tulle. Her bouquet was of delicate rosebuds and gardenias.

The two traditional wedding favorites, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," were sung by Mrs. Maud Woodyard, whose lovely voice made them truly inspirational.

Following the wedding, Mrs. G. E. Jacoby assisted Mrs. Gilman at a small reception honoring the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Jacoby left soon after the reception on their honeymoon, which they will spend in Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Jacoby is a graduate of Coquille high school and the University of Oregon. After completing her college course, she taught at Riverton for several years and at North Bend last year. Mr. Jacoby graduated this year from the school of Art and Architecture at the University of Oregon.

Were Wed In Portland Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stromquist will be at home in their residence on Sanford Heights after July 1st, when they will have returned from a honeymoon trip spent at Wallowa Lake.

The Stromquist-Naef nuptials took place Tuesday at Moreland Presbyterian church in Portland. Rev. John Paxton officiated. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. C. D. Smith, wore a white lace, high bodice, fitted gown with train, long sleeves, with a point over the hand and a band of seed pearls at the neck. The veil, with seed pearl trimming, had also been worn by her mother. Miss Naef carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, buvardia and bride's roses.

Her only attendant, Miss Virginia Kinsling, wore a gown of shell pink tulle with fitted bodice, trimmed with bows of delphinium blue. She carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses, tied with a ribbon of delphinium blue.

Bill Naef, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man.

Following the wedding a large reception was given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ross E. Naef. Among those pouring, was Mrs. Geo. Parker, of Lakeside, the bride's aunt.

Ben Leatherwood and Lester Abbott went to Portland Sunday on business.
