

No Loss This Fire

The fire department was called out the second time last Thursday, about 4:00 p. m.; when a blaze started on the wood platform of the City Motors' used car lot, next to the Biegger Furniture Co. Whether it was cigarette or match which started the blaze is not known but the fire had been extinguished before the department could get there.

Get your Agfa Films at Norton's. Agfa is the best film you can buy. Also leave your films here for prompt developing and printing.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Enjoy a real VACATION by Greyhound!

DEPOT: ROXY BLDG.

PHONE: 545

GREYHOUND

STEVE'S

GROCERY

"Volume with Small Profits" is our motto
PHONE 166 FREE DELIVERY

PREMI SWIFT'S
SANDWICH MEAT 25c

ICE CREAM POWDER
JELLO 3 pkgs. 25c

PARD
DOG FOOD 3 cans 25c

IMITATION
VANILLA 12 oz. bottle 23c

SWANSDOWN
CAKE FLOUR pkg. 25c

PICKLES 15c
Bread and Butter Jar

FESTIVAL SALAD
DRESSING quart 19c

MARSHMALLOWS 10c
Pkg.

BACON SQUARES 7c
Lb.

Pineapple
JUICE 46 oz. can 25c

Orange
JUICE 46 oz. can 23c

For Dessert—Sliced Peaches & Cream
PEACHES 2 cans 25c

Pineapple
TIDBITS can 6½c

APRICOTS for Canning

Large size Yakima Tiltons
—Season very short—
BUY NOW and don't be disappointed

15 lb. box - 69c

LOCAL CARROTS BEETS

3 bunches 10c

BANANAS

Golden Ripe

4 lbs. 19c

Skyles-Oddy Wedding

Miss Frances Oddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Oddy of Coquille, was married to Richard K. Skyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Skyles of Astoria, at a quiet wedding at the home of the bride's parents last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

The ceremony took place before a background of greens, large baskets of lilies being placed on either side. Other bouquets of pink and white flowers were arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. Roy Barton sang "Because" and "Promise," accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. Mrs. Ivan Crum, of Westfir, played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Howard L. Graybeal, of the Pioneer Methodist Church.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a full skirt, long tapered sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip length veil, of bridal illusion, fell from a halo of tiny orange blossoms and pearl leaves. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Paul J. Ryan, of Eugene, her only attendant, wore a light blue lace and net dress with pink trim. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink roses and sweet peas in different shades. Mr. Floyd Scott, of Cottage Grove, was best man.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held.

The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at the Oregon beaches. For traveling, the bride wore a dress-maker suit of heather pink with a top-coat of cameo pink, navy and white accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Skyles will make their home near Oakridge, where he is employed by the Willamette National Forest.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Skyles, of Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ryan, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Scott, of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crum, of Westfir; Misses Yvonne Davies and Ellen Edna Nasburg, of Marshfield; Mrs. W. R. Rowland, of Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Brown, of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Leatherman, of Lee; Miss Ervilia Hollenbeck, of Corvallis; Miss Ruth Davis, of Hood River, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jacoby, of Eugene.

To Visit Here From Islands

Mrs. J. A. Lamb has received word from her sister, Mrs. Jane Williams in Hilo, Hawaii, that she and her son Maurice will be over here from there early in September and that Mrs. Williams will spend three or four months in Coquille and Medford. Maurice who is employed by the C. Brewer Shipping company, is given a four month's vacation to attend an accounting school and is one of the 275 young men which the Babson Institute near Boston can accept in September.

It is more than four years since the two went to the Islands and this will be their first trip to the mainland since they first went over.

Riverloam for your Gardens or Lawns. See Benham's Transfer. 1815

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore. 15

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Harold Gould and Mrs. J. Eric Tucker entertained Wednesday evening at dessert bridge in honor of Mrs. William Barrow and her son, Jerry. Guests brought presents, which were piled in a little red wagon for Jerry, the new and important member of the Barrow family, whose tender age barred him from attending the celebration in his honor. Miss Norene McKeown won first prize and Mrs. Lewis Wiltshire second prize. Attending the party were Mesdames Wm. Barrow, Don McEnty, Spenny Ross, Elbert Schroeder, Henry McCue, Lewis Wiltshire, Dan Fish, Ray Vaughan, Chas. Kasi, Andy Anderson, LeRoy Synney, Marlin Brandon and Miss Norene McKeown.

Mrs. Norman Fletcher entertained the Double Four club Wednesday afternoon. Following a Dutch lunch, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests, the group played pinochle. Miss Fern Kane won first prize and Mrs. Joseph Allard was consoled. The club will meet next on July 10 with Mrs. George McClellan. Members present included Mesdames Sunny McKibben, Joseph Allard, Norman Fletcher, George McClellan, Betty Payne, George Perrault, John Darby and Miss Fern Kane.

Mrs. Leslie McElhaney entertained friends Wednesday at 1:00 o'clock luncheon. Following the excellent luncheon, the guests played pinochle. Those present were Mesdames Frank Strasser, Roy Wheeler and granddaughter, Joanne Meek, Chas. Lewis, Albert Wells and Jackie Lou, A. O. Culbertson, Juanita and Harold, and the hostess, Leslie McElhaney.

High spot for the general public during the Eagle convention opening today in Marshfield and continuing through Saturday, will be the Drill Team competition scheduled for 8:00 p. m. Friday at Golden Field. Among the sixteen drill teams entering the contest will be Coquille's, which is led by Mrs. Ernie Johnson, captain. A number of drum corps from over the state will parade during the contest.

One of this week's delightful parties was that given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Guy Mauney, who entertained at bridge luncheon. The spacious rooms of her home were lovely with their decorations of gladioli and mixed bouquets. Mrs. Charles M. Guilbert held high score and Mrs. Lyle Compton, second. Mrs. Mauney also presented gifts to Mrs. Jack Sercombe, a charming Coquille visitor, who returned to her home in Portland today, and Mrs. Ray Jeub, who will leave soon on a trip to Minneapolis. Guests attending the party were Mesdames Ray Jeub, J. Arthur Berg, Weldon Kline, Albert Powers, L. L. Bonney, E. E. Leslie, Jack Sercombe, Charles Guilbert, G. E. Stark, J. D. Rankin, George Chaney and Lyle Compton.

Mrs. Harold Blum entertained ten young folks at her home last Saturday in honor of her son, Lawrence's sixth birthday. Following an afternoon of games refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to Marcia Mauney, Patty Brown, Shirley Cornwall, Judith Ann Wilson, Darrell Cox, Jr., Richard Rankin, Larry Cornwell, Billy Church, Lawrence and Jack Blum.

The Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. The short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Geo. Molbrook, Noble Grand. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Ruth Rogers, accompanied by Ena Marless at the piano, led the group in songs. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mildred Schaefer, Mary Schroeder, Ella Strang, Gladys Gano, and Wilda Van Meter. At the next meeting, July 8, the president of the Rebekah assembly will make her official visit.

The Missionary Society of Pioneer Church met last Thursday for its regular monthly social meeting. Instead of the usual tea, about forty ladies sat down to a bounteous potluck lunch. The serving committee which consisted of Viola Newton, Lavinia Peart, Georgia Richmond and Ula Schram, served the following ladies: Mesdames L. W. Oddy, R. B. Knife, Carla Savage, Fred Houston, Cora Wimer, R. E. Carlile, Harold Zeigler, B. W. Dunn, W. A. Ireland, F. G. Leslie, Blanche Davis, Inez Pinkston, Gladys Gano, Miranda Way, Zoe Fugelson, W. P. Laws, Cyril McCurdy, R. B. Rogers, C. Finley, A. H. Oden, Alma Minard, Bob Lawrence, Doris Oerding, Jack Hultin, H. L. Graybeal, Ella Nelson, George Taylor, Jr., Henry Ellis, Laura Edmonds, O. B. Harriman and Lundy Peart; also three guests, Mrs. Estell Gray, Mrs. K. M. Hudson and Mrs. D. B. Kemer.

The business meeting was called to order at 2:15 p. m. Mrs. B. W. Dunn had charge of the program. The subject of the devotionals was "Brotherly Love." Geraldine Oerding, accompanied by Verene Bailey, rendered a violin solo, entitled, "Melody." The study hour was devoted to the story of Miss Nannie Holding, a missionary. Mrs. Howard Graybeal, Mrs. Leland Peart and Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Jr., each read an interesting article on this subject.

Marriage Licenses

June 20—Stanley D. Matuszewski and Betty D. Faulkner, both of Empire.

June 22—Peter B. Jacobson and Mary Adell Young, both of Marshfield.

June 22—Charles David Pierce and Annie C. McNaughton, both of North Bend.

June 22—Barton Anderson and Ruth Elaine Murphy, both of Marshfield.

June 22—Matt J. Avsec and Edna J. Asplund, both of Marshfield.

June 22—Dewey Cox and Laura Gesman, both of Coquille. They were married by Justice Barton at his office here last Saturday.

June 22—Gene F. Beck and Bernice Mink, both of Marshfield.

June 22—Ralph L. Todd, of Coquille, and Laurel Maxon, of Myrtle Point.

June 24—John William Duncan and Dorothy Roberta Young, both of Marshfield.

June 24—Everett L. Clark, of North Bend, and Katherine J. Perry, of Marshfield.

June 24—Benjamin W. Daniels and Eleanor L. Bruer, both of Marshfield.

June 26—Irwin Whitaker, of Eugene, and Helen Dien of Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Caudle and son Daunt plan to leave Saturday for San Francisco, where they will attend the Golden Gate exposition. Following a few days spent at the fair, they will go south to Selma, California, where they will visit relatives of Mrs. Caudle.

Cloverleaf Dairy, pure milk and cream. Phone 7R42.

Where's Elmer?!

TIP TOP CONFECTIONERY

Bulk Candy

Come in and buy some Read one of our
Magazines
tonight
Fill up your refrigerator with
Coca Colas
these hot days

Breakfast Suggestions

Triangle Pancake Flour

makes delicious cakes. And we give you a package of

Triangle Rolled Oats

FREE with the purchase of a package of Pancake Flour

Swift's Premium Ham or Bacon

sliced just the way you like it.

Staley's Breakfast Syrup

A trial can—1 quart—25c

And Coffee—Say! Have You Tried Corona?

That's real Coffee—with strength and flavor. We like it and we recommend it to you.

COME IN AND LET'S TALK ABOUT FOOD

The Busy Corner Grocery

The Make - It - Right Store

Telephone 88

Our Fourth of July Special

A Rilling Hair Cream Treatment with every Shampoo and Fingerwave! This Hair Cream also enlivens the Permanent and adds Lustre to the Coiffure. This week only.

We also have some Washable Silk Turbans on hand. Ideal for the beach, vacation motoring, and all-in-all a very very useful piece of Headwear. An assortment of $1.00 colors. Priced at Another handy item for Milady is the "Juva-Tex" Automatic Compact. Holds a week's supply of powder and can be refilled from 10 to 20 times. Washable and gets 20c better with each washing. Priced at only

Visiting artist, Evelyn Matteson, formerly of the Castle Pioneer Beauty Shop of Portland, Oregon, will be at the ROXY BEAUTY SALON, FRIDAY and SATURDAY, JULY 5 and 6

Roxy Beauty Salon

ROXY THEATRE BLDG.

Phone 50