

Curry Wool Show Next Saturday

The H. I. Haber Wool Company, San Francisco, was successful bidder at 42½ cents for the Curry county wool pool, which price also included the usual number of lambs' fleeces. This price is net to the growers at Gold Beach, the center of the county. Over 300,000 pounds of wool, largely low quarter and braid are involved. Shearing is in full progress.

Excellent lamb prices as well as wool prices should be evidenced at the eighth annual Lamb and Wool Show scheduled for Saturday, July 13, at Gold Beach. Sheepmen are providing lambs to be barbecued for the free noon day luncheon. All families attending are asked to contribute cakes and bring their own cups and other necessary eating utensils. Coffee will be furnished by the business men of Gold Beach. It is customary to feed from one thousand to fifteen hundred people.

Wool improvement will be featured at the show. Each sheepman exhibiting a fleece will have individual suggestions, criticism, etc., involving the fleece he exhibits so that he can use the information for further flock improvement. Willamette valley and California Romney, Cotswold, and Lincoln breeders will exhibit rams at the show. These are also being offered to local sheepmen to be used in their breed improvement program. A few local purebred breeders will also exhibit purebred bucks. Edw. Rochford, from San Francisco Union Stock Yards, will judge the fat lambs.

New Repair Shop Opened

Jack Dolan, formerly with Mike's Implement Shop, together with Elmer Holverstott, have just finished putting in a new floor in the south part of the Rubber Welders' building at 410 South Hall street. They are also putting in a number of windows on the south and east side and painting the interior. They have just installed new arc and acetylene welding apparatus and are equipping the shop for all kinds of welding and general repair work, including auto repair.

We give you 24-hour service on developing and printing, 35c, any 6 or 8 roll films, at Curtis Studio. 15

SOCIAL NOTES

A delightful surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Oscar Langlois Saturday afternoon. Her aunt, Mrs. Ella Nelson, and some of her neighbors planned the party. They arrived at the Langlois home with a beautiful birthday cake and other appetizing refreshments. Guests, invited to compliment Mrs. Langlois, brought her presents.

Attending the party were Mesdames Oscar Langlois, Estella Dunn, Laura Edmonds, Geo. Taylor, Sr., Harold McCue, G. A. Gray, Elizabeth Ward, Ames, Lovelace, Hazel Pugh and Ella Nelson. From Bandon came Mesdames E. A. Philpott and Earl Philpott. Mr. Langlois was present, too.

The Rebekahs held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, with Mrs. George Holbrook, Noble Grand, presiding over the business meeting.

Mrs. Venetia Newby, of Amity, president of the Rebekah Assembly, made her official visit to the lodge. Following the short business meeting, Mrs. Newby gave an interesting talk. She was presented with a handsome pair of Myrtlewood book-ends by the lodge. Presentation was made by a drill team, composed of Elizabeth Lucas, Merle Kellenberger, Lillian Clark, Mary Clinton, Dora Kendall and Eileen Kendall, each of whom carried to Mrs. Newby a gladiolus and recited a verse, composed by Mrs. R. E. Boober.

Ida Oerding and Elizabeth Lucas were in charge of the program, which included two violin solos by Esther Jensen, accompanied by her sister, Ethel Wicks; two piano solos by Jackie Stevens, several songs by Virginia Oerding, of North Bend, and accordion solos by Doris Ann Wood, accompanied at the piano by Inez Rover.

Ice cream, wafers and coffee were served at the close of the program by Harriet Schaefer, Ruby Tools, Edna Bates, Marie Langlois and Belle Belloni.

Attending the meeting were visitors from Marshfield, North Bend and Bandon.

The Rebekah district convention is to be held Saturday at Powers. Representatives will be present from each lodge in the county. The Coquille group will have charge of the degree work.

A number of Coquille people enjoyed themselves on the 4th at a picnic in the Herman Clausen Grove near Broadbent. Following a hearty picnic lunch, members of the group swam, tossed horseshoes and competed in foot races. In the evening after supper, they gathered around the bonfire and sang songs. Attending the picnic were Messrs. and Mesdames Ed. Detlefsen, Orville Rakstraw, Herman Detlefsen, Alex Mackey, Herman Clausen, Martin Smith, the Misses Blanche Detlefsen, Anita Tedsen and Constance Clausen and Ernest Clausen.

A very enjoyable birthday dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Myers at their home last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Roland Syfert, Coquille, and sister, Mrs. C. H. Lechner, of Cottage Grove. Out-of-town guests were a sister of the honored guests, Mrs. Ralph Wetzel, and twin son and daughter, George and Joyce, of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Agnes Kenyon, Roy Hawkins and son, Joe, of Myrtle Point; Norman Lee and Ralph Weekley, of Redmond, Ore.; C. H. Lechner and son, Terry, of Cottage Grove. Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Myers and baby daughter, Nancy Lee, Marvin and Gladys Myers, Roland Syfert and hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Myers. Dinner was served at a lovely decorated table on the lawn.

Dunn Attending Conferences

Supt. Burton W. Dunn, of the local schools, left Wednesday morning to attend a series of educational conferences.

He will attend the Curriculum Conference held at the University of Oregon, Wednesday through Saturday of this week. This important conference is held in co-operation with the Northwest Regional Council and has on the program a number of national leaders in education.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the following week Mr. Dunn will attend a conference at Oregon State College on Adult Education—Guidance and Counseling—Science Education and Vocational Education. This program will feature the Conservation and Utilization of Northwest Regional Resources as Related to the High School Curriculum.

Thursday and Friday will be given to attendance at the "Radio and Education" conference sponsored by the Portland summer session of the Oregon State System of Higher Education and will be held in the Lincoln high school in Portland. This is the first conference of this kind in Oregon and is held in co-operation with the Federal Radio Education committee, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C., and station KOIN and KALE, of the Oregon Journal; KGW and KEX of the Oregonian; KBND of Bend; KUIN of Grants Pass; KORE of Eugene and KOAC, the state-owned station at Corvallis.

Going To Camp At Fir Point

Names of those who have signified their intentions of attending the sixth consecutive annual Christian Young Folks' Camp of the Churches of Christ of Southwestern Oregon, from Coquille are: Marjorie Rae Baumgartner, Doris Haddall, Verene Bailey, Viola Ownby, Patricia Noller, Elizabeth Hooton, Mrs. C. A. Sias, Maxine Sias, Donald Bailey, C. A. Sias, Wilton Willey, Paul Cole, Dorothy Robertson, Danny Cardwell and Fairy Cardwell.

This camp is held at Fir Point, near Glendale, Oregon. Over 100 students, besides a force of over a score of instructors and camp help, have attended each of the last few years and it is expected that this year's attendance will exceed any previous year's.

Mr. Sias will act as dean of men and will teach in classes. Donald Farr will be in charge of recreation again this year. Joel R. Benton, of Marshfield, will again act as director of the camp.

A bus and two cars will take the delegation from this district, leaving Monday 8:00 a. m., July 15.

Farm Meetings Next Week

being grown there in trial plots, and a standard commercial fertilizer trial which includes the application of several kinds of commercial fertilizer to Ladino clover and grass pasture. Mr. Schmidt is chairman of the Pomona Grange agricultural committee and has cooperated with the agricultural agent in conducting trials for a number of years.

An alfalfa variety nursery including Grimm, Ladak, Hairy Peruvian and Orestan on which applications of agricultural lime and various commercial fertilizers have been applied, will be observed on the Roy Shull farm and irrigation equipment operated by a gasoline tractor will be seen in operation on the Ellis Shull farm.

The tour will close at the Clausen farm where irrigation has been practiced for several years. Subterranean clover being grown in trial plots with other new legumes and standard commercial fertilizer plots which are being maintained for the second year will be studied.

Arthur King, extension specialist in soils from O. S. C., will attend all of the meetings and assist the county agent and the owners of the farms to be visited in explaining the various projects. All persons interested in this work are urged to attend.

American Legion Picnic Sunday

Coquille Post, American Legion and Coquille Unit, with their families will hold their annual picnic Sunday, July 14, at LaVerne park on the North Fork.

Wienies, buns, ice cream, coffee, sugar and cream will be furnished.

All Legion and Auxiliary members are urged to bring their families and have a good time.

Come early, the committee says proceedings will start at 10:30 a. m.

Calling cards, 50 cc. $1.50.

Wallace Beery in Outdoor Drama At Roxy This Week

"20 Mule Team" Adventure Saga Of Men Who Sought Fortune In Desert

Wallace Beery and Leo Carrillo who teamed sensationally as Pancho Villa and his lieutenant in "Viva Villa" join forces for the first time in "20 Mule Team," saga of the pioneers of Death Valley, which opens Thursday for a three-day run at the Roxy Theatre.

Beery is seen as Bill Swagg, veteran muleskinner of the desert trail, driving back and forth through blistering heat to the railroad at Mojave, 162 miles away, while Carrillo appears as his faithful "swampy," the Indian Piate Pete. Completing the trio of leads is veteran character actress Marjorie Ransome as Josie Johnson, owner of the hotel and saloon where Beery is in the habit of "unshydrating" himself.

Another Beery, Noah, Jr., joins his uncle for the first time, playing the romantic male lead of the young company paymaster, Mitch. Arne Baxter, newcomer from the New York stage, is the feminine heart interest as Jean, Josie's daughter, who jilts Mitch and tries to elope with the gambler, Stag Roper, played by Douglas Fowley. Completing the featured cast are Clem Bevans as the prospector Chuckawalla; Berton Churchill, Arthur Hohl, Charles Halton, Minor Watson, Oscar O'Shea and Lloyd Ingraham.

Filmed on location in the original locale, Death Valley, "20 Mule Team" has all the wild riding and gunplay of the best Westerns as the fight is on to locate a new borax "mother lode." Richard Thorpe directed, J. Walter Ruben producing.

Marriage Licenses

July 3—John Wilbur Reed, of Sitkum, and Louise Hendershot, of Myrtle Point. They were married by Rev. T. M. White at his home in Myrtle Point last Wednesday.

July 3—Alvin Johnson, of Marshfield, and Nita Jones, of North Bend. They were married the same day by Justice G. N. Bolt at his office in Marshfield.

July 9—Carl Louis Evans and Gladys Churchill, both of Bandon.

Paden-Mehl

Gertrude Mehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Mehl, was married Sunday at the home of her parents to Frank Paden, son of Mrs. Chester Paden, of Roseburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Winfield S. Smith in the presence of members of the two families.

The bride wore a light blue redingote and navy accessories. Her corsage was made of gardenias. Gertrude Mehl, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a fuchsia redingote with navy accessories and a corsage of gladiolus in harmonizing shades.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mehl gave a small reception. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Chester Paden and Miss Marion Paden, of Roseburg.

The newly married couple is now at home in Eugene, where Mr. Paden is manager of a Safeway store.

Bring your out-of-town guests in to see the large display of myrtlewood novelties at Bergen's.
