The Julius Rubles Home From Sun Valley Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble and daughter, Laura Emily, returned Sunday from a two weeks trip which took them into Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. Their first stop was at Murtaugh, Idaho, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Ruble's sister, Mrs. George Hartley. After several days there, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hartley, they drove to Bald Hill hot springs at Ketchum, Idaho.

Sun Valley was their next stop. The party was fortunate to arrive there when Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority was having its national convention at the lodge. Many extra activities were in progress for the benefit of the convention. The Rubles and their party watched ice skaters perform on an artificial lake in front of the inn, and attended dances on the porch of the inn. Other points visited included Craters of the Moon, Yellowstone National park, where the party stayed at Old Faithful lodge, Teton National Park in Wyoming, which is noteworthy for its lovely scenery and Jackson Hole, also in Wyoming. Following the tour of parks, the group returned to Murtaugh to spend a few days before coming home.

Society and Clubs

Members of the Cornerstone club enjoyed a delightful meeting Thursday afternoon, when they were entertained by Eileen Kern, Mrs. Don Shore and Mrs. Earl Seward, at a lawn party at the Clifford Kern home.

The club complimented Mrs. Shore with a shower. Following the inspection of shower gifts, the group was entertained with "Professor Quiz" questions and served refreshments. Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Tom Stevens, Harold Stevens, Fred Martin, Delbert James, Willard Burrell, Adrian Sias, E. H. Souder, Dolphus Bash, Jess Davidson, Levi Wilson, Paul Simpson, Clifford Kern, Berlyn Billings, George Chapman, Guy Kelley, Arthur Hooton, Walter George, Henry George, Ernest Odell, Elwyn Nosler, Ralph Harry, the Misses Edythe Farr, Yvonne Kern and Vera Hadsall.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Narregan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb entertained at dinner Friday evening at their Bandon cottage. Mrs. Narregan, who lives in Medford, is a Coquille visitor. Mr. Narregan, sales manager of the Coquille Gas and Power Co., is the son of a Medford high school teacher, who instructed Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Ed Lorenz. Several years after completing her work with the senior Narregan, Mrs. Lorenz had among her grade school pupils, Eugene Narregan.

Those attending the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Ed Lorenz, Eugene Narregan and J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Effie Miller, Mrs. Edna Hartson and James Blanton.

The staff of the First National Bank enjoyed a group picnic at the Birdie Skeels cabin at Bandon Thursday evening. Following a chicken dinner, members of the party played soft ball on the beach and later played cards. Those attending were the Misses Bess Maury and Gladys May, and Messrs. C. M. Howard, Louis Wiltshire, George Gratke, Howard Hickam, Orville Clinton and Vern Knox.

Mrs. Ed Morris and Mrs. Charles Culbertson were complimented by members of their birthday club Friday afternoon, when the ladies gathered at the Morris home with gifts for the two honored members, whose birthdays were being celebrated. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held Aug. 2, at the home of Mrs. Frank Strasser to honor Mrs. Strasser and Charles Lewis.

Members attending the party were Mesdames Bill Gaffey, Charles Lewis, A. S. Wells, Frank Strasser, Brenner of Washington, Wayne Goodman, Eallie Odly, Gordon Epps, John Sanders, Ivan Shuck, Ralph Hurlbutt, Carol Helvie and Grace King of Salem.

The Co-Workers club met Thursday for a potluck noon luncheon at the home of Mrs. John McNair. Members spent the afternoon chatting and doing fancy work. Mrs. Alpha Young won the guest prize.

At their next meeting, July 25, at the home of Mrs. Monroe Morrot, each member will bring her hostess a tea towel. Hereafter each hostess to the club will be similarly complimented.

Members attending the meeting were Mesdames Ora Bell, Jim Childs, Lou Smith, Melvin Schroeder, Alpha Young, Vera Hatcher, M. Morrot, Gena Chase, Chas. Dondono, Helen Detwiler, Clarence McNair, Mabel Holycross, the Misses Katherine Schroeder and Laura McNair. Guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and children Phyllis and Billy and Grace Scheean.

Members of the Ace of Clubs motored Friday to Myrtle Point where Mrs. Bob Foster of that city entertained them at 1:30 luncheon. Pinochle was the game for the afternoon. Mrs. Roy Wheeler took high honors for her play, while Mrs. Flossie Powrie held low score.

Mrs. A. A. Kyle will be the next hostess to the group on July 26. A guest at the last meeting was Mrs. W. H. Mansell. Members attending were Mesdames A. A. Kyle, Sunny McKibben, Dulcie Donaldson, John Darby, Ben Leatherwood, Roy Wheeler, the Misses Grace McKibben and Fern Kane. Myrtle Point members included Mesdames Bob Powrie, Flossie Powrie and Bob Foster.

One of Friday's charming parties was that given by Mrs. C. T. Selbig as a surprise for Mrs. Frank Pook, who was celebrating her birthday. Guests gathered at the Selbig home for luncheon, and showered Mrs. Pook with handkerchiefs. The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation. Those present were Mesdames Fred Kunz, Roy Rowell, George Goslin, A. O. Walker, Fred Hickok, Frank Pook and C. T. Selbig.

Announcements have been received this week carrying news of the marriage of Mary Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levine of Eureka, Calif., to Albert William Reynolds on June 27, at Eureka.

The bride, who attended school here for several years, has many friends and relatives in this district. She is a sister of Ed Levine of this city.

Pink gladiolus made a beautiful centerpiece for the luncheon table Thursday at the C. T. Selbig home, when Mrs. Selbig entertained members and guests of the Coquille-Myrtle Point club for luncheon and bridge. Prizes awarded to members of the club were high score to Mrs. John Arnold and low score to Mrs. Dick Arnold. Guest prizes were given Mrs. O. T. Gant for high score and Mrs. Don Gillespie for consolation.

The next meeting of the group will be on July 25 at the C. P. Zumwalt home.

Members attending the party were Mesdames John Arnold, John Beloni and Dick Arnold all of Myrtle Point, Mesdames C. P. Zumwalt and C. T. Selbig. Guests were Mesdames Walter Litzberger, O. T. Gant, J. E. Axtel and Don Gillespie.

The Myrtle club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Aina Eckholm. Plans were made by the members to entertain their husbands and children at a picnic next Sunday. Refreshments were served by the hostess after a pleasant afternoon of sewing and talking. The next meeting will be held July 25 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Mullin. Guests of the club were Mrs. Stella Elliot, of Santa Monica, Calif., Helen Anderson and Bobbie Anderson.

Members present included Mesdames May Anthony, Alice Standley, Margaret Southmayd, Helen Anderson, Ruth Varney, Margaret Mullin, Aina Eckholm, Ina Sandine, Bertha Edwards, Angie Youkum and Pearl Ruble.

Mrs. Earl L. Schroeder and her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Embree, entertained members of the Tauk-An-So club at the Schroeder home Friday evening. During the evening members of the group played cards and sewed. Alton Schroeder, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Embree, delighted the group with several songs. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. H. Hocamp. Those present were Mesdames Jack Leach and Fern, Melvin Giles, A. L. Burch, H. H. Hocamp, Guy C. Torrey, E. R. Johnson, J. W. McGuffin and Vernon Heimpzelman.
