

Minor Mention

Mrs. Thomas Vaudin, of Seattle, arrived here Monday to spend several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rowell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton drove out to Lucky Boy scout camp on Blue river, to spend the week-end with their son, Ben.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Mirasoul, of San Francisco, who lived in Marshfield for many years, stopped here Monday on their way north to British Columbia. Accompanying them were Mrs. Merrill Hicking and daughter, Nancy Jean.

Mrs. George McClellan and daughter, Donna, left Tuesday for Oregon City, where she is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Carl G. Floten.

Mrs. C. E. Martindale and Marjorie and Clinton, left Saturday for Brush, Colorado, where she plans to spend a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jeffries. Mr. Martindale and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Martindale, who are visiting here from Coalinga, Calif., drove Mrs. Martindale to Portland, where she boarded an eastbound train.

Mrs. Hazel Sharkey, of Tenino, Washington, who was been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jennie Price, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Zwicker and daughters returned to Coquille last week, after spending the 4th with relatives in Salem.

Homer Slick spent the week-end in Medford visiting old friends and looking over mining interest he has in the Forest Creek district.

Mrs. Ella Donaldson and son Lester arrived Saturday from Susanville, Calif., for a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harry left Saturday for San Francisco, where they will spend a week attending the fair.

Walter Maben, for years keeper of the light house at Cape Blanco, accompanied by Mrs. Maben, arrived last Friday to visit his brother, W. H. Maben here, and old friends at Sixes. Since leaving Cape Blanco, Mr. Maben has been in charge of the light house at Point No Point near Seattle. He will retire from the service next year. They expect to leave for home tomorrow.

J. Reed Robinson of Eugene arrived Saturday to spend several days visiting at the home of his son, Wayne Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mapes of Gaston spent the weekend at the L. L. Bunch home on Rink Creek. Mrs. Mapes is a cousin of Mr. Bunch.

Lumella Chapin of Salem, who will replace Mrs. Harold Stromquist, nee Rose Naef, as an instructor in the high school, visited here Sunday to make living arrangements for the coming year. She and Marjorie Jones, another new instructor, will make their home at the R. A. Wernich residence.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bunch enjoyed a weekend visit from their daughter, Mrs. Joe Finley and husband of Roseburg.

Mrs. Frank Strasser's mother, Mrs. Brenner of Napavine, Wash., is visiting her for several weeks.

Mrs. Grace King, who has been a house guest of Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt returned to her home in Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and children Phyllis and Billy of Westport, Wash., have been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNair.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clausen and Linda took Phillip Clausen, Billy Kistner and "Brude" Leslie out to Camp Lucky Boy, the boy scout camp at Blue River Saturday. According to Mrs. Clausen 125 boys are registered for the current camp session.

Mrs. Marlin Brandon and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder returned Sunday from Laurel Lake, where they spent last week at the Chaney cabin.

Mrs. Tallant Greenough and Mrs. Marlin Brandon left Tuesday for Laurel Lake, where they will spend the week at the Chaney cabin.

Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Miss Bess Maury enjoyed a visit from last Thursday until Monday morning this week, from a brother and two sisters of their father, the late L. F. Maury. The visitors were Mrs. J. E. Cowgill, of San Carlos, Calif., Miss Mary and H. C. Maury, of Central Point, Ore.

J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, whose headquarters are in Portland, was calling on Coquille business men Tuesday morning.

Miss Margaret Stewart, who has spent the past year with an aunt in New Jersey, is expected home the first of next week. Mrs. R. L. Stewart and Mrs. Lafe Compton intend driving to Portland Saturday to meet Margaret Sunday morning and to bring Marilyn Compton, who has been attending a camp near Portland, and Margaret home with them.

Pioneer Methodist Church is sending a delegation of Epworth Leaguers to the annual Institute which meets at Little River all of next week. The pastor, who will have charge of the Morning Watch services, is also attending. Included in the delegation will be Dorothy Belle Newton, Donna Dean Bosserman, Mavis Tyrrell, Jane Oerding, Phyllis Lemanowsky, Clara Pierce and Buddy Howard.

Mrs. Etella Elliot, of Santa Monica, Calif., is visiting Mrs. Helen Anderson. Mrs. Elliot expects to remain here for a month or six weeks.

Margaret Belloni, who is enjoying a week's vacation from her duties at the Smith Wood-Products company office, left Monday to visit her brother, George Belloni, of Eugene, and her sister, Mrs. Alfred Tallon, of Dallas. Miss Belloni will go to Portland Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Julia Bennett and serve at the reception, which will follow the marriage ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Rubie returned Sunday from a ten day trip which took them as far south as San Luis Obispo, where they visited Mrs. Rubie's sister. Accompanying them was Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Portland, who is a sister of Mrs. Rubie. During the trip, the party spent several days at the fair in San Francisco.

House guests at the Don Estes home are Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia Laloli and sons, Richard and Francis, of Ferndale, Calif. The Laloli family arrived here Wednesday.

Miss Ossie Knife, niece of Mrs. R. B. Knife, and Miss Helen King, both of whom arrived here from St. Louis, Mo., early this month, are part of the staff of nurses employed at the Belle Knife Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison drove to Portland Friday to take their daughter, Ann, to Namanu, a girls' camp at Bull Run. After a week at camp, Ann will go to Hood River, where she will visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, for three weeks.

Among the Coquille girls attending Namanu camp at Bull Run are Helen and Margaret Ann Wilson, Sally Bonney and Joan Savage. Pat and Martha Berg will leave Saturday for the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kelley, of San Francisco, are visiting Mr. Kelley's brother, Harry L. Kelley, at Allegany. They have spent some time here with Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kelley, their uncle and aunt.

Mrs. Maud Skaggs Woodyard intends leaving Saturday on a six weeks' trip. She will go first to Winona Lake, Indiana, where she will take a two weeks' course in music and conducting, under some of the most famous teachers in this country. She will also visit a sister in Kansas, friends in Denver and Chicago, and will make a trip through Glacier Park.

The Past Noble Grand club will meet Friday, July 19, at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kay. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Schroeder and son, Wayne, returned last week from a six weeks visit with relatives in Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois. Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Mike Broad left Coquille May 12 by train, accompanying their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Smith to Bemidji, Minn., where Mrs. Smith passed away following an operation. Mr. Broad left July 2 for Minnesota and returned Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Broad and her father, Mr. Smith who will make his home with the Broad.

Clay Brown, sales manager of Smith Wood-Products' plywood business, who recently moved from Coquille back to Portland, came in yesterday morning for a conference with the plant management here. He was accompanied by his son.

Mrs. A. O. Culbertson and children, Juanita and Harold, returned Sunday evening from a visit of several weeks at Port Angeles and Olympia. Mr. Culbertson, who accompanied them north, returned home a week earlier than the rest of the family.

LeNorme Pownder plans to spend the week-end in Portland, where business calls him.

Just home from that vacation? Why not send your hosts a piece of Oregon Myrtlewood from Bergen's large and unusual selection.

Ben Gassaway, formerly with the Gaither Motor Co., of Toledo, has this week accepted the position of sales manager for the Bosworth Motor Co. Mr. Gassaway is a married man with several children and expects to move his family here as soon as he can get a place to live.

Dr. Marshall Kennedy arrived in Coquille on Monday to become associated with Doctors Rankin and Gould in the Coquille Hospital. Since finishing his internship at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, Dr. Kennedy has been east for a visit with his parents in Oklahoma.

Richard Carruthers, son Richard, and Dr. Anderson, of Astoria, were visitors at the F. L. Greenough home Tuesday evening on their way to San Francisco.

Miss Jean Young left Sunday for Astoria, where she joined Miss Alice Fish on a trip north to Victoria, B. C. The latter's sister, Mrs. Beryl Wilson, is making splendid recovery from the skull fracture she suffered on the Fourth when thrown from a horse.

Guests of Mrs. Geo. W. Bryant at her home on Knowlton Heights are her sister, Mrs. Genevieve Westfall, of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. Bryant's sister, Miss Della Bryant, and a friend, Mrs. Georgie Woodward, both from Hood River, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Dunn are entertaining Mrs. Dunn's sister, Mrs. Ina Consalus, and Miss Marjorie Consalus, who arrived here Monday from Plummer, Idaho.

President J. D. Carl and Directors Geo. Hampton and Ed Detlefsen of the Challenge Co-operative Cheese Association are attending a cheese meeting in Portland this week.

Miss Carol Young is spending a week's vacation from duty in the Mt. States' office here with Mrs. Robert Roak in Portland.

Get that portable phonograph for picnics and dancing. Covered with airplane linen. Very good looking. Only $14.95 at Norton's.

T. S. Stevens, of "Steve's," spent the week-end and early part of this week in Yakima, Wash.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the Frank Thrift home when friends of Mrs. John Asen gathered there for a potluck luncheon to compliment Mrs. Asen. Those ladies who did not contribute to the luncheon brought prizes to add interest to their bridge contest. Attending the party were Mesdames John Asen, of North Bend, Phil Bourne, of Marshfield, T. B. Currie, E. E. Leslie, U. E. McClary, E. M. Kay, Harold Ziegler, Ed McKeown, Hal Pierce and Frank Thrift.

Visitors Like Coos Country

Mr. and Mrs. Art Graham had as guests from July 8 to 15, the latter's two brothers, O. M. McFarland, of Oakland, Calif., and Edwin L. McFarland, of Prineville, Oregon, who were accompanied by their wives. The McFarland brothers are Spanish War veterans. Edwin went to the Philippines as bugler in Co. I, 2nd Oregon volunteers and was in several battles. O. M. McFarland is past department commander of California Spanish War Veterans and is now adjutant. This was the McFarlands' first visit to Coos county and they expressed themselves as delighted with the aspect of the country. They left here Monday in their car for Tillamook to visit relatives.

Belle Knife Hospital Notes

A nine pounds and four ounces baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Duffy, of Coquille, last Thursday.

O. A. Hughes, who left the hospital last Thursday re-entered on Friday for further treatment of his infected knee.

Owen Brown, of McKinley, on Friday, Lawrence Gulseth, of Coquille, on Sunday, and Laura Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie of Arago, on Tuesday, underwent appendectomies.

Yesterday Mrs. Raymond Schroeder underwent a major operation and Dan Hildebrand a tonsilectomy.

LIBERTY

FRI. - SAT.
JULY 19-20

ZANZIBAR

A heroic band daring a trail of terror . . . in search of Africa's strangest secret!

ZANZIBAR

Hundreds of jungle man-eaters . . . battling to the death in nature's arena!

ZANZIBAR

A beautiful White Huntress . . . sacrificed to torture in the crocodile pits!

ZANZIBAR

Thousands of crazed savages . . . whipped to blood-curdling frenzy by witch-doctors!

ZANZIBAR

with
LOLA LANE JAMES CRAIG
Eduardo Cienfuegos Samuel S. Hinds
Tom Fadden Clarence Muse and a Cast of Thousands

FEATURE No. 2

Music in my Heart starring
TONY MARTIN
RITA HAYWORTH
MATINEE
Sat. 1:30

Wed Thur July 24-5

Bargain Nights
Kiddies 10c Adults 15c

Better Than Ever!
"Blondie On A Budget"

with Penny Singleton
Arthur Lake
Larry Simms
LATEST NEWS EVENTS

Marriage Licenses

July 13—Lauren Costelloe and Mildred Ponting, both of Port Orford.

July 13—Floyd Leslie Parrish, of Myrtle Point, and Loy Delilah Ward, of Broadbent. They were married last Saturday by Justice E. A. Dodge at his office in Myrtle Point.

July 13—Geo. E. Slagle and Ellice N. Cochran, both of Myrtle Point. They were married at the Dick Arnold home in Myrtle Point on Sunday by Justice Clarence Barton.

July 15—Willard Charles Spooner, of Marshfield, and Emma Lou Watson, of North Bend.

July 15—Rommy Emmet Meek, of Marshfield, and Shirley May Brown, of Eastside.

Do you know a birthday, Mister? Wife or mother, daughter, sister? Just the proper flower or myrtlewood gift at Bergen's.

V. R. WILSON, O. D.
OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined. Glasses Fitted. Broken lenses duplicated. Optical repairs while you wait. Artificial eyes furnished.

ROXY

THUR. - FRI. - SAT. July 18-19-20

"When a man marries his trouble begins . . . and when he's married twice . . . at the same time!!! you get a picture like this, with

MORE LAUGHS
THAN ANY ONE SHOW SHOULD HAVE!

IRENE DUNNE
CARY GRANT

MY FAVORITE WIFE

with
RANDOLPH SCOTT
GAIL PATRICK

SUN. - MON. - TUE. July 21-22-23

NEW THRILLS TO COMPARE WITH TRACY'S GREATEST!

SPENCER
TRACY
in Clarence BROWN'S Production of EDISON THE MAN with RITA LYNNE CHARLES GENE
JOHNSON OVERMAN COBURN LOCKHART
HENRY TRAVERS FELIX BRESSART
MATINEE SUN. 1:45
Mat. 10c & 30c Eve. 10c & 40c

Wed. DISH NIGHT July 24

Produced by DAVID O. SELZNICK who made
"GONE WITH THE WIND" and "REBECCA"

SELZNICK INTERNATIONAL presents
LESLIE HOWARD in INTERMEZZO
A Love Story
introducing
INGRID BERGMAN
Produced by DAVID O. SELZNICK

Week End Specials

60c Stationery, Wonder Package	19c
75 Sheets, 75 Envelopes
Horton's Butter Caramels	9c
1/2 lb.
$1.50 Cara Nome Cologne with Atomizer	$1.00
500 Kleenex Tissue	19c
Lucien LeLong Cologne with Atomizer	$1.00

FUHRMAN'S PHARMACY

We fill any Doctor's Prescription