Last week Guy Wright and J. Finley Schroeder took a shipment of sheep to San Francisco market. Harve Smith, of Langlois, made the purchases.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bender had as their guests, Mrs. E. O. Carter, Mrs. N. E. Bond and M. R. Lee, all of Myrtle Point, and the group motored to a grove near Lakeside, where the Townsend monthly caravan meeting was held. There were nearly 200 present. An interesting report of the St. Louis National convention was given by Delegate Tom Drake, of Coquille. There were visitors present from Ohio and from Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. Chase, of the latter place, made an excellent talk, as did Mr. Richards, of Empire. H. M. MacLeon acted as chairman of the meeting. A potluck dinner was held at noon. On July 30 delegates from all county clubs will meet with the Coquille club and at that time, it will be definitely decided where the annual Southwestern Oregon Townsend picnic will be held. The date will be the third Sunday in August.

Walter Laird has just finished cutting his second crop of alfalfa.

Martin Ganser was working at Brodie Shingle mill the first of the week.

Dal M. King has had a bridge built across a gulch on the bottom lands of his fine dairy farm. He has also had a large slashing made in the hardwood bottom.

J. Finley Schroeder motored to Gravel Ford Sunday morning, to join a lot of other fellow workers who offered their service to erect a house for J. C. Jackson, a blind man, who recently lost his home by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tennant and family expect to take up their residence in Coquille by the end of August or before the commencement of the school year.

Miss Anita Tedsen, who is here from Portland, visited for the past week at the Herman Detlefsen home on the Roseburg highway, just out of Myrtle Point.

The Myrtle Point Methodist Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Barklow here Wednesday. Those present from Myrtle Point were, Mesdames John Arnold, E. O. Carter, L. A. LaFlamme, from Catching Creek, Mrs. A. R. Davenport, and from Norway, Mrs. Roy Robison and Mrs. A. H. Bender. Visitors were Mrs. Capt. Keller and daughter. Refreshments of fresh crushed strawberries, ice cream, cookies and coffee were served.

Miss Dorothy Bender accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schroeder, of Myrtle Point, to McMinnville, Ore., last Wednesday. She expects to visit at the home of her brother, Edward, and will be in Portland for a few days at the home of her uncle, C. L. Bender. She will return home in about two weeks.

Walter M. Laird, with his team, is employed on the R. E. A. project in erecting the farmers' electric line.

B. F. Claver, local chicken man, is still on crutches. He was hurt in a fall about June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rylander have more hay than both their barns will hold.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner and Mrs. Clarence Strong, both of Ontario, Oregon, visited last week at the J. H. McCloskey and Mrs. Lizzie Lett homes.

Probably the highest price realized for prime white-face two-year old steers in the Portland market last week, by Coos county growers in many years, was reported by Peterson Brothers, of Arago. Theirs brought $100.00 per head. Old timers say there is money to be made at this price.

Sheep are also looking good and several carloads of lambs were shipped by the Carmans, J. C. Warner and James Doreux, of Gaylord, and Frank Van Leuven, of Bear Creek. To climax it all, long wool clip in Curry county sold recently at 44c per pound.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Haughton are away from home for the summer, being at Blue River on the McKenzie, where Mr. Haughton is employed in a camp which is operated by his son, Lawrence. Mrs. Haughton has just written this writer that all their camp men had to go to Lucky Boy Mine to fight fire and she states that all they got to eat for the first few meals was beans, sandwiches and coffee. Mr. H. is languishing for some of those good Coos county apples, what they have there are infected with bugs. It was feared for a while that their camp men were trapped by fire but later news said they were O. K. They are located about 14 miles from Belknap Springs.

Miss Mina K. Hall, who is at the A. R. Bennett home, Norway, has received an announcement from her sister, Mrs. T. W. Eaton, of South Dakota, nee Rosa Hall formerly of Myrtle Point vicinity, that her son has graduated from the State Teachers' College, of Spearfish, S. D. He will be employed as athletic coach in the same college the coming school year. In his training, he became a licensed air pilot and took his mother and sister, Doris, on an airtrip over the Black Hills.

The teachers for the Norway school for the ensuing term will be Mrs. Laura Brandon and Mrs. Tallant Greenough, both of Coquille. The school clerk is Mrs. Elfreda Robison.

Next Sunday is Pioneer Day at Coquille grove. A good representation from here expects to be present. The Pioneers always reserve the last Sunday of July for their day but this year other organizations, namely the Odd Fellows and Masons, are picnicking on this same day. Makes it bad to have these conflicting dates, as there are many who would like to attend them all and it just can't be done. Many Pioneers, or Junior Pioneers, are also members of the orders mentioned. We hope that next year this can be changed to the satisfaction of all.

McKinley News

Alice, the small daughter of the R. W. Browns, sustained a painful fracture to her right arm in a fall from a fence while playing at her home last week.

On Monday night the people of McKinley met to discuss the proposed consolidation with the Dora district. The meeting was held for the purpose of informing the people just what consolidation would mean and so they would be better able to ballot when the matter comes up for vote on July 31. The general opinion was that while it might have its advantages, it has its disadvantages, too, so it would be well to give it a careful study before going into it.

The Middle Creek bridge is really closed as those found out who came from across the creek to the school meeting and had walk the plank high above the river. We are finding out just how much we need a bridge and what an inconvenience we have to stand this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Brown have returned from a trip to southern California, where she had gone to visit her parents and Rex took his mother, Mrs. Nellie Brown, to be with her sister in Garden Grove.

It seems that under the Hatch act all employees of the CC camps have to register before a notary that they are citizens and not enemy aliens. They were all down to register before Mr. Hansen, McKinley postmaster. The new camp is principally from Nawth Calina.

They have fixed up the Cherry Creek grove until it is a fine camp ground for any occasion. Running water from a spring has been installed and cooking places (out-door fireplaces) are at hand for making coffee.

The following McKinley notes were received last Thursday morning too late for use in the issue of July 18th:

Three young ladies from Coquille, Betty Donsted, Odette DeGeiter and Violet Carrillo, are house guests of Miss Carrillo's grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Hansen. The girls rode their bikes out to McKinley.

With at least seventy-five per cent of the houses in this district wired—the REA requirement—McKinley folks are all ready for the lights to be turned on.

The regular meeting of the McKinley Welfare Club, held in the Cherry Creek Park, was enjoyed by all attending. A discussion of wiring the hall was the only business of the day and it was decided that the Hall board should investigate the matter.

The closing of Middle Creek Bridge for several days is reported by the county bridge crew. This will, of course, inconvenience some of the residents but a new bridge was very much needed and the crew has been most courteous to every one needing to cross the bridge while they were working on the structure.

Duane Frye is spending some of his vacation with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Heller drove to Floras Lake over the week-end.

Mrs. Steve Dubas and infant daughter are staying with Mrs. Helen Beyers for a few days.

The school board of District No. 27 met on Monday night to authorize the clerk to post notices of the special election for the purpose of voting on consolidation with the Dora district.
