Society and Clubs

Georgianna Johnson, bride-elect of Lynn Perrott, was complimented Friday afternoon by Mesdames Fred McNelly, C. P. Zumwalt, E. M. Kay, Earl Nosler, James Brady, Roy Neal and W. E. Bosserman, when they gave a beautiful shower party for her at the Zumwalt home. Guests arrived for 1:30 dessert luncheon. The guest of honor was seated at a special table decorated with a skillfully executed, heart-shaped centerpiece, made by Mrs. Fred McNelly, of summer flowers in pastel shades. Bouquets of mixed flowers and gladioli decorated the other tables, as did pink tapers.

Following luncheon the guests sang favorite songs. Mrs. Glenn Neidelgh accompanied the singing at the piano. Those present were Mesdames Geo. Bryant, Hal Pierce, Frank Thrift, Ed-McKeown, Fred Hudson, Ernest Perrott, Craig Perrott, Glenn Neidelgh, John Perrott, of Bandon, T. B. Currie, A. N. Gould, Kennet Lawrence, Preston Moy, C. T. Selbig, E. E. Leslie, George Johnson, Fred McNelly, C. P. Zumwalt, E. M. Kay, Earl Nosler, James Brady, Roy Neal and the Misses Georgianna Johnson and Maxine Johnson.

Mrs. W. A. Ireland, Mrs. Noble Chowning and Mrs. Claron Gormley were hostesses Thursday for the regular monthly tea of the Pioneer Missionary Society, held at the Ireland home. The meeting opened with a sacred song, which was followed by a prayer given by Mrs. James Richmond. Mrs. G. A. Gray gave the devotions, while Mrs. Elton Savage and Mrs. C. C. McCurdy gave the lesson. Their topic was "Our Human Heritage."

The musical program included a piano solo by Mrs. Leland Peart, who played "Minuet" by Paderewski and a duet by Mrs. H. L. Graybeal and her sister, Lillian Vredevelt, who sang "I Want My Life to Count for Jesus." Mrs. Birdie Skeels accompanied them at the piano. The meeting closed with a group and a prayer led by Mrs. G. A. Gray.

Plans were made by members of the society to hold a potluck luncheon Thursday at the A. T. Morrison home near Bandon.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Leland Peart, W. P. Laws, George Taylor, Frank Leslie, James Richmond, Frank Schram, R. B. Rogers, C. C. McCurdy, Elton Savage, Julius Ruble, Estelle Gray, John Jayes, Emily Hersey, Blanche Davis, Fred Houston, Birdie Skeels, Florence Seeley, H. L. Graybeal, Lillian Vredevelt, J. W. McGuffin, M. O. Hawkins, Paul Walker, G. A. Gray, Miranda Way, Wm. Peart, Jack Hultin, Wilkins, W. A. Ireland, Noble Chowning and Claron Gormley.

Mrs. Bert Folsom entertained a number of friends Wednesday at her Croft lake cottage. Arriving at the lake early, members of the party went swimming during the morning, enjoyed a potluck dinner at noon and played cards during the afternoon. Those enjoying the day at the lake were Mesdames E. E. Leslie, Fred McNelly, Hal Pierce, Genevieve Westfall, of Oakland, J. L. Smith, Ed. Lorenz, J. A. Lamb, Bert Folsom and Mr. George Folsom.

Complimenting Mrs. Genevieve Westfall, of Oakland, California, who is her visiting her sister, Mrs. George Bryant, Mrs. J. A. Lamb entertained Thursday afternoon at a charming informal party. The guests sewed, talked and enjoyed the dainty refreshments served by their hostess. Those present were Mesdames H. A. Young, George Bryant, Genevieve Westfall, Hal Pierce, J. L. Smith, Ed Lorenz, Bernadean Wilson, L. L. Rosa, Bert Folsom, A. N. Gould, Inez Chase, J. A. Lamb and Miss Genevieve Chase.

Mrs. Bob Plieth entertained at a pretty party Friday afternoon to compliment Mrs. Fred Bennett, who was further honored by a shower of gifts from friends who gathered at the Plieth home. A daintily decorated basket, holding the presents, was brought to Mrs. Bennett. After the gifts had been opened and admired, refreshments were served. They included a cake frosted to resemble a white package tied with pink sugar ribbon. Those present included Mesdames Myrtle Doring, Mary Williams, Tom Stevens, Ed Morris, Arlin Elliott, Harold Stevens and Bob Plieth.

An important event for our youngest set occurred Friday last when Karen Mauney celebrated her second birthday. The young guests and their mothers gathered in the yard of the Guy Mauney home, where they were served refreshments, which included pieces of Karen's birthday cake.

Guests included Mrs. George McClellan and Donna, Mrs. J. D. Rankin and David, Mrs. Layton Nosler and Steve, of Marshfield, Mrs. Walter Paulson and John Walter, who at three weeks of age, is already starting his social career, and Mrs. Guy Mauney, Marcia and Karen.

Ken Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gould, celebrated his ninth birthday Saturday afternoon at a party given by his mother in the grove back of his grandfather's home. Not only did the guests admire the animals roaming about the Gould properties, but they partook of a birthday cake, decorated with animals. Ken's guests were Warren Jenkins, Clifford Menning, George Litzenberger, Peter Harvey, Donald Minard, Cynthia Rust, Joe Sayre, Jr., Mavis Newton, David DeVoto, of Santa Rosa, Perry Roper, Jr., of Myrtle Point, and Jane Gould.

A jolly beach party at Bandon Saturday evening was the one attended by Messrs. and Mesdames Eddie Tillinghaste, of Hood River, Clyde Collier, A. R. Terrell and Walter Burrel. The group prepared dinner over a large bonfire on the beach, and late in the evening several of the men in the party bathed in the surf.

Complimenting her cousin, Lucille Kern, of Tacoma, Yvonne Kern entertained Friday evening at an informal party. Guests included Jane Kramer, Markie Smith, Ann Hawkins, Jean Laird, Gretchen Clinton, Barbara Clasterbos, Clarabella Watson, Eunice Howe, Jeannette Wheeler, Beverly Norton, Joy Norton, Dorothy Belle Newton, and Lucille Kern.

Mrs. Kate Watson and daughter, Jottie, are visiting this week in Myrtle Point at the Henry Schroeder home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Collier are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Eddie Tillinghaste, and the husband of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb entertained at their Bandon cottage Sunday for out-of-town friends. The party arrived at the beach early for dinner and stayed throughout the day. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Ed Nichols, of Glendale, Calif.; Charles Kash, E. E. Johnson and J. A. Lamb, of Coquille; Mrs. Marvin Lyons, Buddy Johnson, of Long Beach, Calif., and Anne Branstetter, of Capetown, Calif.

Mrs. Harry Hocamp entertained members of the Tauk-An-So club at her home Friday evening. The group spent the evening enjoying those diversions specified in its name. Late in the evening, the hostess served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Earl L. Schroeder, Jack Leach and Fern, Clyde Minard, Guy Torrey, J. M. Doring, Ernest Embree, A. L. Burch, E. R. Johnson and Henry Belloni.

At the Tuesday evening meeting of the Royal Neighbors, held in the old Woodmen Hall, the birthdays of those members born in July were celebrated. Members complimented at the meeting were Myrtle Doring, Elissa Summers, Margaret Belloni, Mabel Kyle and Kenneth Wagner. Plans were made for a lodge picnic to be held soon. Refreshments were served to 18 members and one guest, former district deputy, Anne Montgomery, of Marshfield.

Wilson-Swain

The marriage of Miss Gloria Swain and Mr. Harry Wilson was solemnized Saturday, July 25, at the home of Rev. G. A. Gray. The attending couple were Mrs. Clarence Shoemaker and Mr. Lloyd King.

The bride wore a lovely blue crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The matron of honor wore black and white crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of gladioli.

Those attending were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Swain, and the groom's mother, Mrs. George Wilson. The bride's parents were married 25 years ago in the same room.

The bridal couple will be at home to their friends at the Collier Hotel in Powers.
