

Popular Hotel Clerk Married

Before the fireplace banked with huge baskets of white gladiolus intermingled with gypsophila and flanked by two tall white candelabra, Miss Maxine Tice, daughter of Mrs. John Jacobs of Tacoma, Wash., and Kenneth L. Waggoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Waggoner of Coquille, were united in marriage at the home of the latter at eight o'clock Saturday evening, July 20, with Rev. George Turney, vicar of the Marshfield Episcopal church, officiating.

The bride, who was attractively attired in a smart gray dress suit, high-lighted by old-rose accessories and wearing a corsage of white gladiolus, was attended by Miss Ileana Harris, of Coquille, who wore a becoming teal blue afternoon frock with white accessories. William Matejka, Coquille jeweler, was the best man.

Preceding the informal ceremony, Robert Waggoner, Jr., brother of the groom who is attending summer school on the University of Oregon campus preparatory to leaving in the early fall to complete his study for the ministry, at Marion Colege at Marion, Ind., sang several appropriate selections. Miss Myrtle Minter, of Coquille, was the accompanist at the piano.

Immediately following the marriage ritual, a buffet dessert luncheon was served to the wedding party which included Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Waggoner and Lowell and Robert, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harbison, Douglas Donstead, Robert Schott, Miss Myrtle Minter, Miss Ileana Harris, William Matejka and the bride and groom, all of Coquille; Rev. Geo. Turney, of Marshfield, and Miss Mary Dye, of Myrtle Point.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner left on an eight-day honeymoon trip which will take them to Tacoma where they will visit relatives of the latter. Returning next Monday evening, Waggoner will assume his duties as clerk at the Coquille hotel.

Mrs. Waggoner was employed at the Eugene office of the Farm Security Administration and was at the time of her marriage, relieving an employee at the Coquille office who was on vacation. Mr. Waggoner is a member of the Coquille High school graduating class of '37 and the year immediately following he attended the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon, national fraternity.

SOCIAL NOTES

Ida Oerding, president of the Past Noble Grands club, presided over the short business meeting held by the group when it met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kay. Following the business meeting, the hostesses, Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Myrtle Benham, brought out Chinese check-boards to furnish the evening's diversion. Ida Oerding and Jennie Price won prizes for their skill at the game.

Next meeting of the group will be on Aug. 2 at the A. T. Morrison place near Bandon, where a potluck dinner is planned.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Pansy Ross, Jennie Price, Harriet Schaer, Emily Hersey, Birdie Skeels, Ida Oerding, Ruth Beyers, Isabelle Kay, Estelle Dunn, Myrtle Benham and Annie Morrison.

The James Richmond home was the scene of a lovely shower Friday afternoon when Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Jack Hultin, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mrs. William Peart and Mrs. H. L. Graybeal entertained for Mrs. Harold Stromquist, a recent bride. The many beautiful presents brought to the honor guest, were piled high upon a card table. After the gifts were opened, the hostesses served cream puffs filled with whipped cream and crushed raspberries and tea and coffee. The guest list included Mesdames Wm. Ireland, C. D. Minard, L. P. Mrs. George Holbrook, noble grand, presided over the business meeting of the Rebekah lodge, held Tuesday evening at the I.O.O.F. hall. During the business meeting plans were discussed for the open meeting to be held Friday by the Odd Fellows and for the picnic which the Odd Fellows have scheduled for Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Schaer gave an interesting report concerning the district convention held recently at Powers, where Coquille lodge had charge of the degree work. Lois Fenn was initiated into the lodge at that time.

During the Powers convention, Coquille took many honors. Mrs. Geo. Holbrook, noble grand, won the silver cup for giving the secret work letter perfect. This is the second year the local group has taken this honor. Mrs. Val Harless won it last year. Should this lodge be successful again next year it will then retain permanent possession of the cup. Another cup brought home by the local group was that given for the largest percentage of lodge members present at the convention.

Prior to the party, the visitors were taken through the hospital. Those patients whose birthdays fall in July attended the party, at which everyone played Bingo. Refreshments were served after the games. Auxiliary members attending from here included Mesdames Alton Dungey, Ernest Wherest, Howard Taylor, Jack Arnold, Frank Schram, H. G. Prey and Fred Kunz.
