Church of Christ

Missionary Society An interesting meeting was held Thursday afternoon by the Missionary Society of the Church of Christ, when members met in the church parlors. During the business meeting, over which the president, Mrs. Gus McCulloch presided, $10.00 was voted to be sent to the Chasas, missionaries in the Philippines. An additional $10.00 was set aside for Melba Palmer, a missionary in Tibet. Miss Palmer has many friends here, for she attended the Coquille schools about sixteen years ago, when her father was the minister of the Church of Christ.

Mrs. C. C. Farr led the program, which featured the subject, "Work Among Negroes." Mrs. V. L. Bailey gave a paper concerning the work in Jamaica which is being done by Blake Elliott, a missionary. Mrs. Pearl Cardwell told of the accomplishments of Mr. Titus Has achieved in Africa, while Mrs. George Chapman's subject concerned the undertakings of Robert Moffatt in Africa. In keeping with the rest of the program, Mrs. Willard Sloan read the poems, "Lullaby" and "Song of Summer," written by that great negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Ernest Odell and Mrs. Jess Davidson, members of the hostess committee, served watermelon.

Guests included Mesdames H. A. Pike, Edna Lee, George Lee, A. H. Chapman and A. H. Smith, all of Green Acres. Members present were Mesdames Archie Hatcher, George Chapman, Anne Dungey, Ernest Benham, Guy Kelley, Walter Newton, Harold McCue, Ernest Odell, Hardenbrook, Carter, A. N. Forley, Fred Schaefer, Tom Schaefer, Henry George, A. S. Bean, V. L. Bailey, Irwin McKee, Dell Towne, W. A. Sloan, Ed Davidson, Evelyn Billings, Gus McCulloch, Pearl Cardwell, Belle Houston, C. C. Farr, Cal Young, Elwyn Noeler and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Missionary To Show Pictures

John T. Chase, recently home from Korea where he has spent the past five years in missionary work, will show moving pictures of that country and his work there, tomorrow (Friday) night July 26, at 8:00 in the local Church of Christ. Mr. Chase is home on a few months furlough, and will soon return to Korea. He has been partially supported by the local Church of Christ in his missionary work among the Koreans. It will be with great pleasure that his pictures and talk are received. An invitation is extended to all who will attend. There will be no charge.
