

Society and Clubs

Mrs. H. W. Oddy entertained at a charming party Friday afternoon to introduce Mrs. Earl Goodman, recently arrived here from Roseburg, to her new neighbors. The Oddy home was decorated with sweet peas and potted plants. Guests sewed and became acquainted with the honor guest. Refreshments were served during the afternoon to Mesdames William Gaffey, Bremer, Frank Strasser, John Zander, Gordon Epps, Ed Morris, Hal Stevens, Ed Yarbrough, Ralph Hurlbutt, Ivan Shuck, Charles Lewis, Albert Wells, Earl Goodman and H. W. Oddy.

Members of the Campfire group to which Mrs. Ellis Davidson, nee Vada Swinney, belonged some years ago when she was a local resident met Friday for a potluck dinner at the Richmond's Bandon cabin, LaVerne Knife arranging the party. During the day the girls amused themselves playing ping pong, darts and other games. Those attending included Mesdames Joe Sinko, Tom Stevens, Keith Kribbs, Melden Carl, Lois Lewellen, of Myrtle Point, Craig Perrott, Marion Clayton, Ellis Davidson and the Misses Priscilla Hickam, Edythe Farr, Carol Young and LaVerne Knife.

Miss Wilda Houser, who is working in Marshfield, was home over the week-end. A birthday dinner was given for her Friday evening, July 26, by her mother, Mrs. J. H. Schroeder, of Johnson's Mill. Guests present were Miss Hauser's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Liday; Richard Morrot, Mrs. V. L. Cornelius, Shirley and Verne Cornelius and "Sonny" Schroeder. Games were played and refreshments served later in the evening.

Pink snapdragons set the color note for the beautiful shower party given Thursday evening by Margaret Belloni to compliment Georgianna Johnson, bride-elect of Lynn Perrott. Dessert, which carried out the hostess' color scheme was as attractive to the eye as to the taste. Each guest received a miniature bride and groom favor. Following dessert and inspection of the many nice presents brought the honor guest, the group played bridge. Mrs. Lloyd Wood held high score and Mrs. Bob Littrell was consoled.

Those attending the party were Mesdames Ray Mattoon, Craig Perrott, Preston Moy, Monroe Swindall, Wasley Laird, Bob Littrell, Marvin Hopkins, Lloyd Wood, the Misses Maxine Johnson, Georgianna Johnson, Margaret Belloni, Patricia Peart, Helen Lund, Norene McKeown and Aloha Allen.

The Royal Neighbors surprised Mrs. Reuben Humber, of Marshfield, Friday evening with a large shower party, held at the George Burr home. After the many, beautiful gifts had been opened and examined, the ladies sewed and visited. Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Guy Torrey, Reuben Humber, J. M. Doring, E. E. Denham, E. L. Schroeder, R. M. Waggoner, Minnie Leach, F. G. McClellan, J. N. Towne, W. H. Schroeder, J. W. McGuffin, Oscar Larson, Ralph Menning, Katie Peart, Ruby Johnson, Al Burch, Clarence Summers, Parker Leatherwood, Aurora Willard, Ernest Embree, Geo. Burr, Harry Hocamp, May Ensele, Ernest Wardrip, Melvin Giles, Grace

Stone, Jack Leach and Fern, and the Misses Eva Schroeder and Rose Matney.

Mrs. Jay Carter entertained members of the Charta club Thursday for luncheon and pinochle. High score was won by Mrs. Ernest Whereat, consolation by Mrs. D. G. Ireland and travelling prize by Mrs. Tom Gambelin. Guests invited were Mesdames Jack Jarvis, Tom Gambelin and Tom Brown. Members present included Mesdames Jay Carter, Ernest Whereat, D. G. Ireland, Ted Snyder and Ernest Page.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stromquist were delightfully surprised Thursday evening when good friends arrived at their home with gifts and the makings of an excellent dinner. The gifts included an end table and a set of pyrex ware. Following dinner, the group played bridge and other games.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Irving Larson, Earl Tichenor, Roland Beals, Chester Liechty, J. Eric Tucker, Harold Stromquist and Mr. Harold Kolkhorst.

Mrs. Roy O'Mara, of Gold Beach, spent Tuesday visiting Mrs. Harold Stromquist.

Mrs. Lela Avery won the Co-Workers club door prize Thursday afternoon, when the members of the organization met at the home of Mrs. Morris Morrot for a potluck luncheon, and an afternoon of sewing. Next meeting of the group will be August 8 when Miss Katherine Schroeder entertains at the home of Mrs. Ora Bell.

Guests invited to the last meeting included Mrs. Cole and daughter, Maxine Gant and Roberta Morrot. Members attending were Mesdames Charles Dondono, Ora Bell, Johnnie McNair, Laura McNair, Alpha Young, Andrew Hatcher, Louis Detwiler, Genie Chase, Jim Childs, Mack Gant, Lela Avery, Lou Smith, Jessie Robinson, Mabel Holycross, Morris Morrot and Miss Katherine Schroeder.

Mrs. LeRoy Swinney entertained Friday evening at a beach party at Bandon to compliment Mrs. Ellis Davidson, nee Vada Swinney, who is visiting here from Medford. After refreshments, members of the party played games. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Harold Stevens, Tom Stevens, LeRoy Swinney, Mrs. Marion Clayton and Mrs. Vada Davidson.

Grange No. 306 held a successful fun night Friday at the W. O. W. hall. During the short business meeting over which Joe Varney, master, presided; John Martin, Mrs. Fred Wheaton, Mrs. Paul McNair, Henry George and Ed Dettelosen, were appointed members of a committee to work on the grange's fair booth. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wimer gave the highlights of their recent trip to Salt Lake City, where they attended the Townsend club convention.

Many musical games were played after the business meeting. Tessie Rubie, at the piano, furnished the music. Mrs. C. Vernon Smith won the "pig in a poke." Refreshments were served to some 35 grange members by a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kistner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry George, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Halter.

Cape Perpetua recreational park was the meeting ground for members of the Zosel family Sunday when the clan held a reunion to celebrate the 80th birthday of Theodore Zosel, of Coquille. Members of the family gathered for a hearty picnic dinner and spent the remainder of the day visiting or swimming. Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peltier and Mr. Elroy Prosch, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fredrickson and Danny, Ethel Peltier and Martha Slusersenko, of Salem, Phillip Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Neumann, Grant Neumann, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gild, all of Amity; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stevens and Marianne and Merle, George Wallace, all of Williamina; Mrs. C. C. McDonald, of Portland, and Wm. Jarvis, Mrs. Mike Fetch and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rubie, Tessie Rubie and Theodore Zosel, from Coquille.

Mrs. A. O. Culbertson was hostess to the pinochle club Tuesday for dessert luncheon. High score prize was captured by Mrs. Albert Wells and second high by Mrs. Roy Byers. During the afternoon, Mrs. Charles Lewis was given a surprise handkerchief shower as special recognition of her birthday. Mrs. Frank Strasser was a guest at the meeting and will entertain the club members August 13. Members attending included Mesdames Roy Wheeler, Jack McLaren, A. A. Kyle, Merrill Foss, Ben Leatherwood, Leslie McElhaney, LeNorme Powder, Albert Wells, Roy Byers, Charles Lewis and A. O. Culbertson.

The Ace of Clubs met Friday afternoon for dessert luncheon and pinochle with Mrs. A. A. Kyle. Mrs. John Darby won high score prize and Mrs. Flossie Powrie consolation prize.

Guest of the club was Mrs. Ernest Whereat. Members present were Mesdames Bob Fowrie and Flossie Powrie, of Myrtle Point; Mesdames Roy Wheeler, Ben Leatherwood, Dulcie Donaldson, Charles Mansell, Sunny McKibben, John Darby, A. A. Kyle and Misses Fern Kane and Grace McKibben.

Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained at luncheon Tuesday. The guest list included Mesdames Frank Rover, M. O. Hawkins, Roy Barton, Stewart Norton, Kenneth Lawrence, R. A. Wernich and Pete Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stevens entertained over the week-end at their Brewster cabin, to compliment Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Montieth, of San Jose. Main feature of the gathering was a classic picnic lunch which included classic picnic lunch which included in the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Louis Fugelson, Jim Stevens, Stanton Stevens, Tom Stevens, Harold Stevens and family, Stanley Stevens and family, Leslie Montieth and George Clinkenbeard, of North Bend, Miss Vera Hadsal and Mr. Don Stevens.

Mrs. Paul Simpson and Mrs. Levi Wilson arranged a surprise housewarming party Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Odell, who have recently moved into their new home on Maple street. Guests brought the Odells many presents. After the gifts were opened, the group played "Pig" and "Contract." Refreshments were served by the two hostesses to Messrs. and Mesdames E. H. Souder, Oscar Harwood, who are visiting here from Missouri, Don Shore, Henry George, Elwyn Nosler, Loren Salisbury, Levi Wilson, Paul Simpson and Mr. Ray Shore, who is visiting here from Los Angeles.

Many members of the Missionary Society of Pioneer Methodist church drove down to the A. T. Morrison home near Bandon Thursday for a potluck lunch, which was served under the trees. After lunch, Mr. Morrison took many of the visitors on an inspection tour of his fine cranberry bogs. Those attending were Mesdames Leland Peart, Joan and Rose Marie, Cyril McCurdy and son Jimmie, Clarion Gormley and Joanna, Ernest Purvance, Noble Chowning and Colleen, Leland Peterson and Edward, Elton Savage and Joan, Lewis Howe and Donna May, R. B. Rogers, Jas. Richmond, Louis Fugelson, Wm. Peart, Jack Hultin, Clyde Minard, George Taylor and daughters Joyce and Helen Ester, H. L. Graybeal, Lillian Vredevelt, Julius Rubie and Laura Emily, F. G. Leslie, Estelle Gray, Birdie Skeels, Frank Schram, Blanche Davis, Miranda Way, Houston, W. P. Laws, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morrison, the Misses Helen Hudson, Kay Leslie, Phyllis Litzberger, Nancy Haga and Billy Margaret and Ruth Laird.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Montieth, whose birthdays fall within several days of each other, were complimented with a double birthday party Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Stevens entertained for them. Refreshments were served to the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. George Clinkenbeard, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Montieth and Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Stevens.

Bring your out-of-town guests in to see the large display of myrtlewood novelties at Bergen's.

Where's Elmer?!

TIP TOP CONFECTIONERY

Getting Some Hot Toasted Nuts and a Magazine
to take on his vacation
--
OUR BULK CANDIES
Are Delicious
Have You Tried Them?
--
Cold Lunches for Hot Days

STEVE'S GROCERY

"Volume with Small Profits" is our motto Free Delivery C.O.D. Service Phone 166

BANANAS firm, golden ripe lb. 5c

No. 2 Fresh Shipment Thompson Seedless
SPUDS 50 lb. bag 59c | GRAPES 2 Lbs. 13c

FIRM MIDSEASON
TOMATOES  59c
Flavor Unsurpassed crate

LETTUCE Large Solid Heads 2 for 9c | GR. PEPPERS U. S. No. 1 Crisp Fresh ea. 7c

MEDIUM SIZE
Cants 3 for 10c

KITCHEN QUEEN FLOUR hard wheat 49 lb. sack $1.33

DEL MONTE FRUITS FOR COCKTAIL 2 for 25c

FOUNTAIN No. 2 1/2 Tin SPINACH 2 for 25c

HILLS - M. J. B. - GOLDEN WEST COFFEE 2 lb. can 45c

DEL MONTE PINEAPPLE TIDBITS can 6c

MATCHES 6 box carton 15c

ALL FLAVORS This Delicious Drink for warm days MIRACLE AID 3 pkgs. for 10c

VIENNA SAUSAGES 2 for 15c

SWIFT'S DEVILED MEAT 3 cans 10c

MAINE Packed in Oil 3/4 oz. Tin SARDINES 5c

LUXUS 2 for TUNA FLAK'S 25c

PREFERRED STOCK large cans DILL PICKL'S 12c

SWEET Festival large jar PICKLES 23c

Tru-pak Fancy Large size OLIVES can 15c

Kraft American Velveeta, Pimento Velveeta CHEESE 2 lb box 57c

YOUR GROCER--

is an important factor in your every-day life.

Good Food—dependable quality—is not only desirable, but economical and necessary to the physical well being of your family.

To the housewife with small children, or heavy social demands on her time, reliable telephone and delivery service is a time and labor saver not to be underestimated.

Merchandise uniformly priced as low as handling costs will permit, aid in keeping the family budget balanced.

Our Policy is to provide our customers with this type of service. You will make no mistake in becoming a member of this large satisfied group.

The Busy Corner Grocery
The Make - It - Right Store

Telephone 69