

School Report 79 Years Old

Gus Bender, of Myrtle Point, brought in to the Sentinel office this week a scrap book kept by his mother, who was seven years of age and who was Thurnelda Hermann in the list of names below.

It is a copy of the report made by Binger Hermann, later congressman from this district, who at that time—in 1861—was teacher in school district No. 2, Coos county.

All of the ten children listed, whose ages ranged from 5 to 12 years, are now deceased. The report was for a three months' term, was submitted Oct. 10, 1861, to the directors, and the district comprised all the Coquille river valley from Beaver Slough to above what is now Broadbent and where the school house was located.

The names of the pupils were Russell C. Dement, Jasper and George Yoakam, Cass and Wash. Hermann, Thurnelda and Frank Hermann, Nelly Dement, Martin Yoakam and Chas. E. Schroeder, all well known names in the county for the past 80 years.

The statement accompanying the report was a notice of the official establishment of District No. 2, made by Chas. E. Hodgkins, superintendent of Coos county, Oregon Territory, at Empire, Dec. 9, 1857.

There are a number of other historical items mentioned in the scrapbook to which the Sentinel would like to make future reference if Mr. Bender can spare the book for a time.

Oscar Larson To Have New Shell Station In M. P.

The new Shell station which Oscar Larson is having constructed at Myrtle Point will be ready for dedication and operation next week. It will be managed by James Robinson, who is to be transferred from the City Motors service station here.

More Old Age Pensions Possible

An addition of twenty-five names of Coos residents past 65 years of age who are entitled to old age pensions was made possible the past week when the ban was lifted on the increase of names on the list.

The amount paid to an individual for old age benefit under the present plan varies from $5 to $30 per month, depending on the need.

For the purpose of illustration a $20 monthly payment will be taken. The county pays $5 of that, the recent state appropriation figure was set at $5.74 and the federal agency matches it with $10. The 75 cents by the state pays office and field expense, and the accumulation of funds in the county relief fund, due in some measure to the cutting off of those not entitled to the benefits, has enabled the local committee to add 25 more to the list of those who may receive old age pensions.

To Foreclose 1936 Delinquent Taxes In September

Ray Vaughan, in charge of the tax collection department of the sheriff's office, states that letters have been sent out to all property owners whose taxes for the year 1936 are delinquent, that foreclosure suit will be filed on Sept. 15 against all property on which the taxes have not been paid by that time.

It is anticipated the foreclosure summons will be published soon after that date. While the summons will not be as large as the 42 newspaper pages of last year's it will be of considerable size. Bandon property which was not included in the 1939 summons will be included in this year's.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

New Cash Award Offered In Drive—Only Nine Days Left

Still another money-making opportunity is offered to the candidates in the Sentinel's subscription campaign.

The Sentinel today announces a second new subscription campaign in which it will give another prize of $10 in cash. This is entirely different from the first new $10 cash prize campaign which ended Wednesday, and the second $10 cash prize will be given on a different basis from the first $10 in cash. Details are in the large announcement ad in this issue.

One candidate will receive a $10 cash prize in addition to whatever other prize or commissions he or she wins. All prize winners will be formally announced by the judges on Saturday, August 10.

The drive took on the nature of a favorite son and daughter war this week as the citizens of the various districts and neighborhoods began concentrating efforts so that their candidate should win one of the district capital prizes and highest honors.

Subscribers all over the territory served by the Sentinel are taking advantage of the special offer being made by this paper during this campaign. Subscribers either new, paid up, or in arrears, can take advantage of the special offer of 3 years for $5.00.

Interest in this short campaign has reached its height this week as the deadline for the drive August 10, draws near.

Daily, standings in The Sentinel window and in today's paper will add even more excitement and this is expected to increase until the climax comes in just nine days. Anticipation of these vote standings has already drawn intense interest, not only among the candidates themselves, but among the interested subscribers of the paper and the backers of the various candidates.

The vote standings of the candidates who are active in the subscription and prize campaign will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Pioneers Enjoy Annual Picnic Here Sunday

(Continued from page one) Point, introduced J. E. Norton, who delivered the address of welcome during which he expressed the regret of the assemblage at the passing of old-time Coos residents who had been at the 1939 picnic.

A short response and talk was given by Wallace Dement, Myrtle Point, a descendant of one of the earliest of Coos pioneers.

When the president asked all those who were over 70 years of age to come to the platform, where they were given a rousing cheer, some 30 or 35 responded. They were asked to give their names and the year in which they came to the county, and the following is a partial list of those who responded. Some of the elderly folks spoke so low, and there was so much unnecessary noise in the building, that the names of all of them were not heard by this scribe nor even by the secretary who sat at the rear of the platform. For this reason the names of several do not appear in the following list:

Mrs. Frank Robison, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Hansen, Milton R. Lee, A. L. Volkmar, Levi Snyder, A. G. (Frosty) Hoyt, W. H. Schroeder, D. F. Dean, Chas. Bunch, Sarah Robison, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Dora Hanly, Willis Hoover, Geo. T. Moulton, Mrs. J. D. Laird, Mr. Monson, W. T. Brady, Jas. McGuffin and Geo. Ross.

Mrs. Brown stated that she came to Coos county in 1875 and still resides in the same place on Rink creek that she did that year.

Mr. Ross, whose home is on Ross Inlet, responded to the introduction of being the best story teller in Coos county, with a humorous piece of fiction.

Ira Carl, Portland attorney, who was present with his brother, Jno. D. Carl, responded to an invitation to make a few remarks. He lauded the pioneers who made the first moves in developing the southwestern Oregon empire and urged their descendants to carry on the good work begun by their forebears. In this day of governmental changing of every form of living, of government control and dictation in matters that were formerly left to the individual he urged those present to remember and be true to the faiths and practices of the early Coos pioneers.

Gregory Decker, of Marshfield, accompanied by Miss Iner Rover of Coquille at the piano, rendered two excellent vocal numbers.

The new president invited all those present to be here the last Sunday in July next year and Mr. Clinton gave a short talk before declaring the meeting adjourned.

Grandma Henry Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Bandon, Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Harriett A. Henry, lovingly known over southwest Oregon as Grandma Henry, who passed away Sunday morning at the age of 97 years. The services, with Rev. D. Loree officiating, were conducted by Schroeder Bros. Mortuaries and interment was in the Bandon cemetery.

Mrs. Henry was born Oct. 13, 1842, in New York, and had been a resident of Bandon for the past 39 years. Her husband, a veteran of the civil war, passed away many years ago. She is survived by five children, Miss Amelia Henry, who has been city librarian at Bandon for a quarter of a century; Mrs. May Pike, of Baltimore, Maryland; Chas. Henry, of Langlois; Geo. Henry, of Berkeley, Calif., and Antle Henry, of Bandon.

Mrs. Beryl Wilson Will Completely Recover from Injury

Frank Fish received word from Mrs. Fish on Tuesday that their daughter, Beryl, who suffered a fractured skull a month ago when thrown from a horse, was making remarkable recovery now, and the doctors say there will be no future trouble due to the accident. She must, however, remain in bed for two or three weeks which means that she and Mrs. Fish will not return to Coquille for some weeks yet.

Births At Coquille Hospital

A baby girl, Sanda Levone, and who weighed eight pounds and five ounces, was born on Tuesday at the Coquille Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Simmons, whose home is in the Knife Apartments on North Coulter street.

J. E. Norton Named County Judge By Governor Sprague

has been conferred upon Judge Norton, for there is no man in Coos county who has labored more efficiently for the development and upbuilding of southwestern Oregon, in the past 25 years, than has Gene Norton. Without a cent of profit to himself, except that which accrues to all business men as their communities grow and prosper, Mr. Norton has been indefatigable as a good roads advocate, he has been on the Port of Bandon commission since it was organized and he was appointed to the commission by ex-Gov. West; he was one of the men responsible for the building of the Coquille Hotel—and the start of Coquille's development as an important business center dates from the hotel's opening—and there has been no matter of importance to Coquille or Coos county in which Judge Norton has not been a most important factor in bringing about satisfactory results. He did not always succeed as he would have liked but always he was on the right side.

It is no secret that in the not distant future, Mr. Norton intends retiring from business and settling down on his ranch, three miles down the river, where a fine new home is just ready for himself and Mrs. Norton to occupy, where he has a dairy herd and the bottom land which will support them for the rest of their days.

Judge Norton is eminently fitted for the office to which Gov. Sprague appointed him. He has the judicial temperament, he is a careful business man who will watch county expenditures carefully for the next five months and will be of untold help on the county court. That Judge Norton would not permit his name to be used as a candidate for nomination on the republican ticket in May for county judge, is and has been a source of regret to his friends, and they are legion in all sections of the county. Judge Norton, the Sentinel salutes you, and wishes you a most successful tenure of office for a term which is all too short.

Hugh McLain Made Good Record As Judge

Ex-Judge Hugh McLain, who was compelled last week to resign the office of county judge, which he has held since Jan. 1, 1935, is deserving of more credit than he has been publicly awarded. His administration of the office has been good and Coos county is in better financial condition than it has been since bonds were first issued for good roads in the first world war period.

According to Auditor W. H. Wann, the debt of the county has been so greatly reduced the past few years that he anticipates a county and state tax levy for next year of about 17 mills where it was 20 this year.

Yes, Hugh McLain has made a good record as county judge and deserved better at the hands of the voters than they accorded him at the primary in May.

HERE ARE THE CANDIDATES in The Sentinel's Campaign

Each active candidate in this campaign is sure of winning a prize bicycle or a cash commission as only as many candidates will be allowed to be active in this campaign as there are prizes and cash commissions.

The candidates are separated into two districts. Those living outside the City of Coquille are in District Number One, and those living inside the city limits of Coquille are in District Number Two, but any candidate may secure subscriptions from anyone, anywhere.

There are two first prizes—the high candidate in each district will each receive one of the District Capital prize bicycles. The other prize bicycles will be given to the candidates, regardless of which district they are in, having the next highest number of votes.
