

Brady-Neal Picnic Held

The second annual Brady-Neal picnic was held last Sunday at Golden and Silver Falls. Plans were made last year by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neal and many of their friends to meet each year on the first Sunday in August to picnic at the Falls. Success of the plan is evidenced by the guest list attending this year which included Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Leslie, Bert Folsom and George, E. M. Kay, H. W. Pierce, Phil Anderson, George Chaney, Teen and Patterson, F. C. McNelly, Sprig Zumwalt and Beverly, George Johnson, W. E. Bosserman and Donna Dean and Jackie Hopkins, Earl Nozler and Mary Alice, A. O. Walker and Mary Ann, T. B. Currie, Messrs. Howard Moy, R. H. Mast, H. S. Norton and Beverly, Claude DeLand and Dr. Cramer, Mesdames Ellie Folsom and Sarah Ribble and Miss Bess Maury, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Neideigh and son, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dean, of Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hansen, Earl Clark and Mrs. Frankie Stafford, all of Portland; Messrs. and Mesdames Roy Neal, James Brady, Phyllis and Kathleen, Helen Coats, Ralph Partlow, of Allegany; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Creeger, Tommy and Ann, Mrs. Virginia Hillstrom, of Marshfield; Mrs. E. M. Gallagher, of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Aasen, Audrey and John, Jr., of North Bend; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Sturdivant and Sally Kay, of Fairview.

Card of Thanks

After 18 years in business, Mrs. Florence Seeley closed the doors of her grocery store to the public yesterday morning. She wishes to thank her customers and friends for their patronage. Mrs. Seeley has found her contact with the public, through the years, very pleasant.

Coquille Has Pirates, Too

While Marshfield Pirates were staging their annual celebration during the week-end just past, the Coquille Pirates were holding their 1946 reunion, for which plans were made in 1936 when the group held a banquet at the Coquille Hotel.

The Coquille Pirates were organized sixteen years ago, when the eight members were in the grade school. Since that time the members have enjoyed a bond of friendship which has been strong enough to survive the varied interests that come with maturity—a bond so strong that it brought six of the eight members here for reunion activities. The absent members, Margaret Paulson and Betty Glaisyer Kerby, who are so situated that their presence here at this time was impossible, sent telegrams conveying their regrets.

A survey of what the grade school youngsters who formed the Pirates have been doing since they left the local schools shows that there is much talent and ability among the group.

Anne Barton, graduate of the University of Oregon, where she distinguished herself in musical circles, taught last year at Crane Union High school in eastern Oregon. This institution is unusual for its pupils, who are for the most part Basques, live at great distance from the school and must reside in dormitories during the school year.

Elizabeth Pierce, diminutive member of the Pierce-Paulson dancing team during school years, attended business school in Oakland, Calif., where three years ago she married her husband, E. W. Gallagher.

Carol Young attended business school in Boise, Idaho, and is now on the office staff of the Mountain States Power Co. She has taken a prominent part in local civic club activities.

Margaret Paulson attended Stanford and the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York. She is now touring California and Nevada with a theatrical company.

Sarah Margaret Nye, graduated from Oregon State college and then taught at Riverton. For the past year she has been Mrs. Phillip Anderson and is now living in an amusing trailer house at Fairview.

Audrey Aasen graduated from the University of Oregon, where her violin work brought her distinction and acclaim. This year she is to teach at Estacada and has been invited to play with the Portland Symphony.

Myrl Unpoed graduated from Humboldt State Teachers college and taught last year at Orick, Calif. She claims the distinction of being the first Orick teacher in fourteen years to be offered a second contract.

Betty Glaisyer attended the University of Oregon and has been married for over two years to Forrest Kerby, a teacher at Klamath Falls. At present she is travelling in Mexico.

Pirate union festivities included a picnic on Thursday at LaVerne park, a tea Saturday given by Mrs. Guy Mauney, Margaret Paulson's sister, a banquet at the hotel Saturday evening and group moving pictures taken Sunday by Alton Grimes.

Dorcas Society

Entertained Thursday

The Dorcas division of the Church of Christ missionary society was entertained Thursday at an all-day meeting arranged at Greenacres by the ladies of the Greenacres church. A hearty potluck dinner was served at noon. During the business meeting held by the Dorcas group and presided over by Mrs. Belle Hooton, the Greenacres church presented $10 to the local group for missionary work in Alaska.

Attending the meeting from Coquille were Mesdames Guy Kelley, Willard Sloan, Belle Hooton, Walter Newton, Elwyn Nozler, Levi Wilson, Don Shore, Maude Bean, Eugene Nozler, Ned Kelley, Arthur Hooton, Alton Dungey, Irvin McKee, Earl Hardenbrook, Mary Carter, Verne L. Bailey, Paul Simpson and Miss Jennie Lafferty. Representatives of the Greenacres church were Mesdames Fred Lee, H. A. Pike, Arthur Smith, A. Chapman, Geo. Lee, M. F. Lytle, and J. A. Goldbury.

Past Noble Grands Meet

At A. T. Morrison Home

Members of the Past Noble Grands organization had a splendid time Friday evening when they drove to the A. T. Morrison home near Bandon for a potluck dinner in Morrison's beautiful yard. Prizes awarded for winners of the games played after dinner went to Ida Oerding and Myrtle Benham. Those attending the party included Mesdames Jennie Price, Fred Schaefer, Belle Kay, Myrtle Benham and daughter, Flora Dunne, Birdie Skeels, L. A. Greene, A. T. Morrison, Inez Chase and the Misses Ida Oerding and Genevieve Chase.

B. P. W. Preparing For Conference Here August 24-25

Announcements of plans for the Business and Professional Women's club district conference to be held here August 24 and 25 were made Monday evening by Margarita Brodie, local conference chairman, at the meeting presided over by Ellen Braxton at the Richmond's Bandon cottage. According to Mrs. Brodie, the conference will open with a reception scheduled for 8:00 p. m., August 24, at the Guild hall. During the reception Leona Bryant will show some of the motion pictures she has taken of local logging operations and high-lights of her European trip. On Sunday at 7:30 a. m. the Executive Council breakfast will be held at the Coquille Hotel, where state officers, state committee chairman and club presidents will confer. An open forum will be held at 10:00 a. m. the same day at the I. O. O. F. hall. Following it, there will be a patriotic luncheon scheduled for 12:30. Members have been requested to make their lunch reservations with Clara Bosserman before Friday, Aug. 23.

Mrs. Bosserman headed the committee in charge of Monday's potluck dinner. She was assisted by Blythe Saylor and Ida Oerding. The next meeting will be held at the home of Ruth Beyers. Mrs. Beyers heads a committee, composed of Florence Barton, Lois Fenn and Edna Robison, which will make arrangements for the meeting.

During the business meeting, Ellen Braxton, the president, appointed Myrtle DeLong as chairman of the Courtesy committee, a body which will function throughout the remainder of the club year. Members of the committee are Martha Mulkey and Georgia Richmond.

Genevieve Chase gave an interesting but all too short talk on her work as dean of a women's school.

Guests attending the meeting were J. P. Beyers, the Misses Barbara Peterson, May Nissen, of Pocatello, Idaho, Genevieve Chase, of New York, Marie E. Keeler, of The Dalles, and Naomi Robison, recently returned from California. Members present included Ellen Braxton, Florence Barton, Edna Robinson, Martha Mulkey, Eva Stevens, Lois Fenn, Georgia Richmond, Belle Knife, Annah Blythe Saylor, Ruth Beyers, Edith Walton, Jennie Price, Clara Stauff, Viola Newton, Bertha Smith, Mae Barton, Clara Bosserman, Ida K. Owen, Inez Chase and Leona Bryant.

Girl Scouts Here From Port Orford

A group of high school girls from the Port Orford Girl Scout troupe of Port Orford visited here the first of the week on their annual outing. This year the group is making the loop from Port Orford to Bandon, Coquille, Myrtle Point, Roseburg, then south on the Pacific highway to Glendale; from there over the forest service road to the end of Mule Creek on Rogue river then to Galice and Alameda and back to the Pacific highway at Grants Pass. From there they go to the Oregon Caves, then complete their trip by way of Crescent City and up the coast highway. Those in the group were: Ruth McClintock, Doris Carson, Pat Johnson, Helen Lindberg, Elmyra Holcomb, June Crowley and Scout Lieutenant, Kathryn Smith.
