

Perrott-Johnson Nuptials Sunday

Georgianna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Johnson, and Mr. Lynn Perrott, son of Mr. Ernest Perrott and Mrs. Glenn Neideigh were married Saturday at high noon at the Johnson home. Rev. W. S. Smith performed the ring ceremony, which took place before a lattice arch entwined with ivy. A great bowl of pink and white gladioli stood at each side of the arch, while pink and white flowers placed elsewhere about the room added their beauty to the charming scene.

Mrs. Glenn Neideigh at the piano played the wedding music. The bride was given away by her father. Maxine Johnson attended her sister, while Craig Perrott was his brother's best man. The bride wore an afternoon gown of dusty rose and carried a bouquet of rosebuds and gardenias. Her attendant was clothed in dusty blue and wore a gardenia corsage. Both mothers wore navy with gardenia corsages, while the men in wedding party wore dark suits.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson held a reception. The three-tiered wedding cake was given a place of honor on a table made beautiful with white cloth, white gladioli, with tapers and crystal. The serving was done by Mrs. F. C. McNelly, Maxine Johnson, Margaret Belloni, Joan Perrott, Mrs. Preston Moy, Mrs. Craig Perrott and Mrs. Wasley Laird.

Wedding and reception guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Wasley Laird, Preston Moy, E. L. Perrott, F. C. McNelly, J. E. Perrott, Craig Perrott, Glenn Neideigh, W. A. Hansen of Portland, Don Stein of Marshfield, the Misses Margaret Belloni, Joan Perrott of Spokane, Maxine Johnson and Mr. Harry Perrott.

After the reception the young couple left in their new car, which was a wedding present from Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, for a short trip. The bride's going-away costume was navy blue with white accessories, topped with a blue velvet toque trimmed with white flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Perrott expect to make their home in the Barton apartment recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Littrell.

C. of C. Presents Judge Norton With Gift

early day experience of Judge Norton's when he was chased by Indians into a high-walled canyon and finally came to the head of the canyon where the cliff was as perpendicular as were the sidewalls.

"What did you do then?" was the query.

"They killed me," was the laconic response.

In accepting the gift, Mr. Norton said he had again come to the head of the canyon.

The surprise was complete and the judge said his first thought when he stepped into the large living room was that his wife had slipped something over on him; that he would get a delayed bill for the elegant piece of furniture.

The judge had to quit there; he choked up and said he would have to write a letter to express in a small way his appreciation of the gift.

The ladies of the community have been wondering if the davenport suited the taste of Judge and Mrs. Norton. For their information, it can be told that Dave Biegger had a hard time to keep Mrs. Norton from buying that particular piece from the Biegger Furniture Co.

One gentleman present, who is not a member of the Chamber of Commerce remarked to the Sentinel scribe, "The Chamber of Commerce honored themselves as much as they did Gene in that gift, for no one man has done as much for Coquille in the past quarter of a century as has Gene."

The judge and his wife have, or will have when they get settled there in a few days, a wonderful home. Situated on the hill top, with a scattering of trees around it, the three large view windows give an outlook on the Coquille valley which is a beautiful picture. Green Point and the Yeakam place as well as some miles of the highway to Marshfield are visible, and the whole aspect is picturesque in the extreme.

The house itself is nearly 80 feet long, with two bedrooms and very roomy closets at one end, along with the bath room, the living room in the center; a lovely sun room where most of their meals will be eaten, and a most modern kitchen at the north end. Beyond that is the commodious wood room and the garage.

One of the noticeable features of the house was the lighting system. The new fluorescent lighting fixtures, two of them each about two feet long and up the ridge pole, furnish splendid light, strong enough to make reading most easy in any corner of the room.

The entire structure is of wood, a fact to which Geo. Ulett called attention as being most fitting in this timber country.

Because of his duties at the court house and at the Busy Corner, Judge Norton said yesterday that he had turned the entire moving of their household goods over to Mrs. Norton and that she expected to get that done this afternoon and tomorrow.

Every visitor at the new home agreed that the judge and his wife have a most comfortable as well as beautiful spot in which to spend their declining years.

To Attend W.C.T.U. Convention

Dorothy Leuthold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leuthold, of Bandon, left Sunday morning for Chicago, where she will attend the W. C. T. U. national convention, which started August 7 at the Stevens Hotel. Miss Leuthold is secretary of the Bandon Youth Temperance Council, an organization which she headed last year, primary superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School at Bandon, as well as Baptist Church organist, and is employed by the Bandon city office.

Major portion of expenses of Miss Leuthold's trip are being carried by the Coos county W. C. T. U. organization, with some assistance given by the state organization and a few interested county groups.

Other delegates to the convention include Mrs. Nevia Beck, state W. C. T. U. president, of Portland, Mrs. Rachel Ellis, honorary president, of Madras, and Miss Arla Jean Cox, of Portland, who represents that city's Youth Temperance Council.

Miss Leuthold joined Miss Cox and Mrs. Ellis at Portland and continued east with them. One of her tasks of an honorary nature will be to make a short speech to the convention for the Oregon branch of the Youth Temperance Council.

On her trip home, Miss Leuthold anticipates visiting friends in Los Angeles and attending the fair at San Francisco.
