

Minor Mention

D. D. Alexander, brother-in-law of Louis Bosworth, arrived here last Wednesday from his home in Galveston, Texas, to spend a few days at the Bosworth home. Flying from Texas to Medford, it took him nearly as long to come from Medford as it did from Galveston to the Jackson county pear center.

Mrs. Wynne Farrell returned Tuesday from a visit to the Centennial at Salem.

Eva Schroeder, deputy in the sheriff's office and Rose Maloney of the Southwestern Motor Co., plan to leave Saturday for Los Angeles, where they will spend part of their two weeks' vacation. On the way home, they expect to spend several days visiting the fair in San Francisco.

Ruth and Peggy Laird gave a piano recital Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. O. Hawkins for their friends. Each student played from memory a group of five numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oeding and children and Miss Ida Oeding left Saturday for Santa Rosa and other California points, where they will visit relatives during the next week or ten days.

Margaret Belloni plans to leave Sunday for Eugene, where she will join her brother, George Belloni, and wife on a week's trip to British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sherry of Palo Alto, Calif., arrived at the J. L. Smith home to spend the night Sunday. He is Mr. Smith's nephew and they were on their way to Washington on business and pleasure. They stopped at Gold Beach for a day's fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shames and children, Robert and Mavis of Hollywood, Calif., visited Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Shames' sister, Mrs. Guy C. Torrey.

C. M. Howard, manager of the local bank, and his daughter, Alice, left last Friday for Salem, where she is staying with her sister while her father is enjoying a ten-day vacation from bank duties on the northern beach golf courses.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Swanson, of the Coquille Baptist Church, returned last Saturday from a visit at several weeks with relatives in Seattle.

Miss Myrtle Minter, daughter of Rev. H. A. Minter, who will on Sunday at 2:00 p. m. at the Baptist church, become the bride of Richard Christiansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Christiansen, will welcome her many friends as guests at the wedding.

The class of 1939 of the Coquille High school is making plans for a reunion to be held August 25 at Lakeside. Beverly Norton heads the committee in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Ray Vaughan and son, Joe, returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit to Vashon Island, near Seattle, where they visited Mrs. Vaughan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rust left Sunday on a month's vacation which will be spent in Tacoma and other Washington points. The Rusts have recently sold their charming little home to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fletcher.

Seattle were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Keener on the Marshfield road. The Sherrys will visit the Oregon Caves and other points of interest before returning to their home.

Anne Barton, who spent the weekend here from Eugene for the Pirate reunion, brought Mr. and Mrs. Don Stout, of Portland, down as her house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hansen of Portland, who arrived here Friday for Georgianna's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hansen, of Klamath Falls, came over last week to get their daughter, Evelyn, who had been visiting her grandfather, W. W. Kight, at Riverton. They left for home on Tuesday this week.

Miss Mary returned Monday from Portland. Accompanying him for a short visit here was his sister, Mr. P. J. Bottom of Lafayette.

Mrs. Effie Miller and Mrs. Edna Harton returned Monday evening from Portland. The former went on Sunday and the latter the week before to visit her daughter, Mrs. Tom Maginnis, and family.

Responsible party will take good care of plane for free rent, 273-1st St.

Joan Parrott, of Spokane, took the Spokane-Portland plane in order to reach here Saturday for her brother's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wharant of Los Angeles arrived Saturday to visit at the home of their son, Ernest Wharant.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Young and son, Bob, are expected in today from their home in Portland to spend a part of his vacation at his old home.

Maxine Wharant left Tuesday to visit until Friday with Luree Saylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Saylor of Fairview.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunch and Phyllis and Jimmie plan to leave Thursday morning for Yellowstone park, where they will spend a week and then drive to Wallowa Lake for several days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis entertained as week-end guests Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. M. Parkinson, Mr. Parkinson and daughter, Beverly, of Rochester, Wn.

Mrs. Bradley Tyrrell spent the week-end visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. A. Wernlich. Mrs. Tyrrell, who has been visiting on the coast for the past few months, will soon return to her home in Beloit, Wis., where her husband is vice president of Beloit College.

Janet Lewis, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Chesham and other Washington cities since school closed, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Leslie McElhenny and daughter, Mrs. Richard Kalfs, left Friday for Cottage Grove, where they are visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, who has been a house guest of Mrs. Leslie McElhenny, returned Friday to her home at Triangle Lake.

Coquille Grange No. 286 will hold a business meeting Friday evening at the W. O. W. hall. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Jack Jarvis entertained her niece, Mrs. Arthur Rango, and Mr. Rango, of Portland, over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Rango were on their way north from a trip to Catalina Island and the fair.

Mrs. Ross Neef, of Milwaukee, is expected to arrive today for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Stromquist.

Mrs. E. D. Wood, of Newberg, arrived Tuesday evening with her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Bell, and daughter, who have been visiting in Pendleton, to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Frank Thrift, and her parents. Mrs. W. A. Bell and her husband, who have been guests at the Thrift home, expect to return within the next day or so to their home in Alameda, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Clasterbos, Jr., this week bought a lot in Burns Acres, on Willard street, where they expect to build a home in the not distant future.

Freddie and Kathleen Brockmann returned last Friday from a two weeks' visit with cousins at Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brockmann, parents of C. L. Brockmann, of this city, and Mrs. Mabel Jones, all three of Portland, left Tuesday after a four days' visit at the Brockmann home, just out of town on the Marshfield highway.

Mrs. H. A. Minter and eight boys, who had spent ten days at the Baptist camp at Cascadia, returned last Thursday. The boys in the group were John Minter, Remel Nivens, Joe Sayre, Fred Vogt, Fred Murphy, Bud Hickam, Vernon Brockmann and Wilbert Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton are entertaining Mr. Barton's sister, Mrs. T. A. Livesay, and husband, of Portland, who arrived here Tuesday.

Finley returned late Monday night from a trip to Klamath Falls on which they left Saturday. They expected to be home sooner but had car trouble when a Corvallis man turned directly in front of them, without any signal, and their car struck a tree off the road, inside the park, when Chell turned quickly to avoid a collision. He was driving only 35 miles an hour at the time.

Commander R. E. Smith, of the U. S. Navy, who is brother of Mrs. J. E. Axtell of this city, came in Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, from the Naval air base at Seattle, where he has been stationed for the past four years, and left yesterday morning for San Diego, where he will return to active sea duty on the S. S. Holland—a submarine mother it is called, serving the subs at sea in much the same way as an airplane carrier does the navy's flying machines. He expects to leave for the Islands, where a part of the U. S. Pacific fleet is located, about the middle of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle, who left Coquille twenty years ago to make their home in southern California, arrived here Monday evening from North Hollywood where they are now located, and have been guests at the J. A. Lamb home. They intend leaving Monday for Vancouver, B. C., and will stop here again on their way home.

Mrs. Frank W. Parker, daughter of Geo. W. Bryant, and her son arrived here this morning to see her father who is still a patient in the Belle Knife Hospital.

Drill Team Is Invited To Portland

The Coquille Eagles Ladies Auxiliary drill team has been honored by the Portland Eagles with an invitation to attend the Eagles state picnic in Portland on Aug. 25, where they will demonstrate the drilling ability which brought them a prize at the recent state convention in Marshfield.

To raise the funds needed to take the team to Portland the Auxiliary is advertising a dance to be held in the Coquille Community Building a week from Saturday night, on Aug. 17.

Swift Annual Picnic Aug. 11

The Swift & Co. annual picnic will be held in LaVerne Park, on the North Fork above Fairview, next Sunday, Aug. 11. The employees of the six Swift plants in southwestern Oregon—Coquille, Myrtle Point, Norway, Bixim, Cushman and Neesport—and their families, to the number of about fifty are expected to be in attendance.

Births At Coquille Hospital

To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, Coquille, Aug. 3, a nine pound, one ounce, baby girl, who has been named Judy Marlene.

To Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Hampton, who reside on the Marshfield highway, a baby girl, Etta Mae, who weighed six pounds ten and one-half ounces.

Vivian Watson who will play the leading role in the four-act drama entitled, "Their Last Warning," by Manfred Evans, which will be presented by the Watson players on Friday night, August 9, at eight o'clock in the Pioneer Church, here. The production is under the direction of Rev. Ray Watson, who also plays two leading parts. Joyce Watson, their eight-year old daughter, who was born here at the Belle Knife Hospital when the Watson family conducted services in this city in 1931, plays a leading part. The public is invited and admission is free.

Duke Richmond Talks On Flag

"The Flag That Grows," was the subject of a very interesting talk by Rotarian J. E. "Duke" Richmond, of Eugene, at the Rotary Club meeting yesterday. Illustrated by five small replicas of the American flag showing its progress from the time of the revolution up to the present day, Mr. Richmond's talk also told of the paralleling development of this country into the greatest nation on earth today.

Preceding Mr. Richmond's talk, Mrs. Richmond, who was here with him, sang a verse and chorus of "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Jess Rover at the piano.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Richmond also led in singing "God Bless America," in the chorus of which all present joined.

Lou Blanc, of Marshfield, was present and said that the joint picnic of the Marshfield and Coquille clubs would be held at the Mingus, formerly Paul Bunyan Park in Marshfield, on Thursday evening, August 29.

President Clinton appointed Chas. Stauff chairman of the picnic committee.

Rotarian guests present were Jerry Katre and Charley Robinson, of Marshfield, Harry Bower, of Eugene, Spencer Truax, of Memphis, Tenn., who reported 13 years without missing a Rotary meeting, L. Weisenberger, of Medford, and Hugh Erickson.

Lou Blanc also said he had not missed a meeting in nine years. Tallant Greenough was also a guest.

Lots Are Selling On The Terres Tract

J. H. Feden, who plans on building a home there on Hillside Drive, purchased a three-quarter of an acre tract of the Terres place on Monday this week. Another recent sale by Mrs. C. L. Brockmann was a third of an acre to Ivan Hadox, who expects to build.

The Wm. Smock four-room house on the Terres tract is nearly ready for occupancy.

Rummage Sale Some Time This Month

The ladies of the Pioneer Missionary society request the Sentinel to say that they will hold a rummage sale some time the latter part of this month, the date and place to be announced later. Such an item has no value which is primarily what the ladies wish it known that such an event will be held.

Belle Knife Hospital

Virginia Young, daughter of Mrs. Fred Bull, underwent an appendectomy last Thursday.

Alfred Barrows from the Brady & Neal camp at Beaver Hill, was brought to the hospital Saturday for treatment for a back injury.

Tonsillectomies were performed for a six-year old Myrtle Point boy, Valina Mannila; for Dee Colpitta, of Dora route, both last Saturday; for Francis Ferris and Douglas Ostrander, both of Coquille, on Monday.

Mrs. R. B. Cameron underwent a major operation last Monday. On Tuesday Orville Chard entered for treatment for broken fingers on his right hand, and Ronald Weaver, from Kline's logging camp for an infected eye.

Jno. W. McGuire, from the Bryant camp on Myrtle creek, entered yesterday for treatment of an infected arm.

Dismissals the past week were Margaret Davis on Sunday, Mrs. Frank Wilson on Monday, Carl Briggs and Mrs. Marvin Thompson yesterday, and Jack Sperry last Friday.

A. L. Hooton, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St., Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies.

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore.

City Police Court

Harold Colie Armstrong, McKinley 3-C youth, was picked up at the city jail door last Saturday. He was charged with trespassing and then released with a warning.

Carmel Sanders and John Darling were arrested last Saturday. An additional $20 fine to the old fine of the same amount will cause the former to spend 20 days in the city cooler. Darling is serving ten days in jail.

Gerald Carney Cronin, an itinerant from Klamath Falls, who was given a $5 fine on April 1, was arrested Tuesday on the same old count, drunkenness. He was fined $10 this time, suspended on condition that he leave town and stay away.

LIBERTY

YES, SIR, IT'S TRUE!
EACH FRI. & SAT.
During the Month of August
The LIBERTY THEATRE is Showing
One Good Feature
Comedy - Cartoon
Latest News Events
ALL FOR THE SMALL
ADMISSION OF
ADULTS 20c
Kiddies 10c

FRI. - SAT.
AUG. - 9 - 10

THE 'BARON' DEALS OUT TROUBLE APLENTY... BUT CASSIDY HOLDS AN ACE!

Clarence E. Mulford's
THE SHOWDOWN
A Paramount picture featuring
William Boyd
Russell Hayden - Britt Wood
Bertie Adams - Jane Clayton
Color Cartoon
"THE FISHING BEAR"
Leon Errol Comedy
"TOOTHACHE"

MATINEE SAT. 1:30
Wed. - - Thur.
AUG. - - 14 - 15
BARGAIN NITE
Kiddies Adults
10c 15c

TRUST THE LONE WOLF
at 8:00
at 10:00

TO LICK BOTH COPS AND UNDERWORLD!

THE LONE WOLF

Strokes

APRIL WILLIAMS - JOAN PERRY

Mrs. Woodcock Won Gas Company's Pyrex Set

Mrs. R. B. Woodcock, who resides on East Third street, was awarded the seven-piece Pyrex set which the Coquille Gas & Power Co. gave away as a prize for attendance at the recent canning clinic. The award was not announced until last Thursday afternoon.

Roxy

Thur., Fri., Sat.
AUG 8-9-10

Mickey and Judy... together again... in gay New York! Mickey woo woo! Judy sings! The Hardy family's adventures are merri-ly exciting!

Andy Hardy Meets Debutante
STONE - ROONEY
PARKER - HOLDEN
JUDY GARLAND

PLUS SHORT SUBJECTS

Sun., Mon., Tue.
AUG. 11 - 12 - 13

As romantic as a new moon!
As thrilling as a pirate raid!
The King and Queen of Song... in 1940's mightiest musical triumph!

Jeanette MacDONALD
NELSON EDDY
New Moon

with Mary Boland - George Zucco
- J. B. Warner - Grant Mitchell
BARGAIN MATINEE EVERY SUNDAY
Kiddies Adults
10c 20c

WED. Dish Nite

A ghost... haunted by the living!

EARTHBOUND
Starring WARNER BAXTER
ANDREA LEEDS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

$1.00 HAAS CANDY 1 1/2 lb. Special	73c
50c Boycimore Shower Balls Large size	39c
M. D. SANITARY NAPKINS	15c
2c Medford Portfolios	19c
2c Shoots, 24 Days	43c
2 for $1.19 THERMO JUGS	98c

WE'RE NEVER JUST OUT
FUHRMAN'S PHARMACY
We fill any Doctor's Prescription