Members of the Watson family enjoyed a good time Sunday when they met at the Neil O. Watson ranch on the South Fork of Coos River for a picnic, which was held under the walnut trees. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence Tuttle, James Watson, Neil O. Watson and A. T. Folsom, of Marshfield, Mrs. M. R. Kramer, Mrs. Kate Watson, Jettie Watson, Clarabelle and Frederick Watson, Don, Sammie and Jim Kramer.

Mrs. Tallant Greenough entertained Friday afternoon at dessert luncheon and bridge to compliment Mrs. E. W. Hope of Vermillion, South Dakota. Mrs. R. A. Wernich held high score and Mrs. George Chaney won second prize. Guests were Mesdames F. L. Greenough, George Chaney R. A. Wernich, E. W. Hope, Leo Sohler, Stanley Ayres, F. S. Emery and Herman Ellingsen.

Mrs. Harold Stevens entertained her card club at dessert and bridge Friday evening. The dessert featured a birthday cake for Mrs. Craig Perrott, who was presented with a gift from her hostess. Mrs. Harold Dey held high score, and Mrs. Dennis Wagner took second prize. Guests present were Mesdames John Norton, Tom Stevens, Harold Dey, Dennis Wagner, Arlin Elliott, Ray Dellefson, Craig Perrott, Darrell Brodie and Harold Stevens.

Mrs. L. W. Oddy entertained at a lovely luncheon party Friday to compliment Mrs. Estelle Gray of Los Angeles, who has been spending the summer here with her sister, Mrs. F. G. Leslie. Guests included Mesdames Sam Nozler, Birdie Skeels, Thelma Dale of Myrtle Point, Estelle Gray, F. G. Leslie and L. W. Oddy.

Members of the Myrtle club and their families had a splendid time Sunday night, when they went to the Ellis Southmayd ranch near Myrtle Point for a steak fry in the Southmayd's fine grove. Those attending the party from here were Messrs. and Mesdames Pat Mullen and children, Mike Mullen and children, J. W. Ruble, Mrs. Ruth Varney, Miss Tamsie Ruble and Bill Jarvis. Many of Mr. and Mrs. Southmayd's friends from Myrtle Point were also present.

Mrs. E. L. Ferrott invited members of the younger set to gather at her home Saturday afternoon to celebrate the fifth birthday of her small daughter Nancy. Mrs. J. J. Stanley, Carolyn Perrott and Mrs. Craig Perrott assisted the hostess in serving Nancy's cake and arranging games to entertain the small fry. Those present were Diana Schroeder, Marcia Mauney, Jane Gould, Patty Brown, Helen Taylor, Hal Stevens, Bobbie Swinney, Johnnie Clayton, Judy Perrott and Nancy Perrott.

Members of the Past Presidents club of the Coquille Woman's club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. O. Hawkins to make arrangements for the annual tea to honor the incoming officers of the Woman's club, who are Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, president, Mrs. Fred McElly, first vice president, Mrs. B. W. Dunn, second vice president, Mrs. Julius Ruble, recording secretary, Mrs. H. R. Godard, treasurer and Mrs. Carl Kramer, corresponding secretary. Other local women, who have achieved prominence in the Federated Women's club, and are to be accorded special honor at the tea are Mrs. O. C. Sanford, vice president of the state organization of federated clubs, Mrs. Albert Powers, National Youth Guidance chairman and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, who is state chairman of Child Welfare. Decision was made to hold the tea September 8 at the R. H. Mast home.

Mrs. M. O. Hawkins was reelected president of the Past Presidents club and Mrs. C. Vernon Smith was reelected secretary of the organization. Members present at the meeting were Mesdames M. O. Hawkins, E. E. Leslie, Frank Leslie, Bertha Smith, Bert Folsom, C. V. Smith, T. B. Currie, H. R. Godard and R. A. Wernich.

Members of the Laf-a-Lot club had a very good time Wednesday, when they drove up to Coos county park above LaVerne park, for a hamburger fry and weenie roast. Later in the evening, the group roasted marshmallows. They spent the night at the park. Plans were made for the same group to spend a day at Bandon. Those participating in the outing were Mesdames Opal Gilman, Pearl Ruble, Millie Waters, Lois Meyers, Marguerite Detlefsen, Edna Rakestraw and Cora Mackey. Ruth Varney was a club guest and Gweneth Kellison and son, Bobbie, spent the afternoon with the party.

Mrs. Birdie Skeels entertained at dinner Monday evening for Mrs. Estelle Gray, who plans to return to her home in Los Angeles within the next week or ten days. Guests at the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mrs. Estelle Gray, Mrs. Gladys Gano and Mrs. Birdie Skeels.

A spaghetti dinner was given Friday evening by Mrs. R. A. Wernich for Mrs. E. W. Hope, house guest of Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen. Guests were Mesdames E. W. Hope and Pearl Ellingsen, Dr. and Mrs. T. De La Rhue, Major and Mrs. Geo. L. Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wernich and Al Arnold.

Mrs. Reese Daniels and Mrs. F. D. Medlock, of Gaylord, gave a surprise shower Friday afternoon for Mrs. Thomas Luttrell at the Daniels home. Each guest wore a white crepe paper bib on which was written a name suggested for the baby-to-be. Quantities of lovely presents were received by Mrs. Luttrell from the following friends who attended the party: Mesdames Fanny Medlock, A. H. Hayward, Charles Knight, Robert Palmer, Faye Young, George Boren, Ray Grant, Carl Halsey, H. D. Bones, Kermit Hayes, Charles Wagner, Carey Bones, W. P. Lear, Louis Lund F. D. Medlock, Reese Daniels, Clinton Carman and Thomas Luttrell, all of Gaylord; Mrs. J. W. Ruble, the Misses Ellen Watson and Tessie Ruble, of Coquille; Mesdames Lilly K. Dement and Bruce Henry, of Powers; Mrs. Winifred Newbury and Miss Ebel Eggers, of Broadbent.

Reception Friday For Recent Bride

Guests at Mrs. R. E. Harbison's beautiful reception Friday afternoon in Coquille Hotel banquet room for Mrs. Kenneth Waggoner were greeted by Mrs. J. Arthur Berg and Mrs. Ray Jebb. Mrs. Harbison, who introduced many of her guests to Mrs. Kenneth Waggoner and Mrs. Robert Waggoner, wore a gown of royal blue velvet with gold accessories and a corsage of red gladioli blossoms. Mrs. Kenneth Waggoner was beautiful in a simple gown of aqua satin, whose only ornament was a gardenia and stephanotis corsage. Mrs. Robert Waggoner, mother-in-law of the recent bride and newcomer, wore a long dress of white lace and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Elbert Schroeder and Mrs. William Barrow poured during the first four, Mrs. Ida Owens and Mrs. John Bergen presided at the table from 3:00 to 4:00 and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Mrs. O. C. Sanford poured during the last part of the afternoon. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of pink and white asters, yellow rosebuds and yellow gladioli skillfully arranged in a crystal bowl. Table accessories were of silver and crystal. Mrs. Lawrence Gulseth, Mrs. Robert Harris, Ann Hawkins, Marilyn Compton and Margaret Stewart, who all assisted with the serving, were attractive in long dresses.

About 75 guests called during the afternoon to meet Mrs. Waggoner. The banquet room was decorated with chrysanthemums and asters.

Miss Fern Cain entertained members of the Double Four club for dessert and pinochle at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George McClellan took first prize and Maxine Carver held low score. Guests at the meeting were Mesdames Roy Beyers and Fred Mittendorf and Miss Carver. Members present included
