Vera Hadrell, who on September 12 will become the bride of Don Stevens, was complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. L. Stevens. The hostesses were Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mrs. Paul Simpson, Mrs. J. L. Stevens and Mrs. Harold Stevens. Guests played several games before the honored guest discovered that she had to find her shower presents, whose location was conveyed to her by means of golden arrows, which carried directions in verse composed by Mrs. Paul Simpson. Not until several arrows had been located did Mrs. Hadrell discover her presents in an umbrella. Refreshments, which featured a wedding cake complete with bride and groom and candy carriage favors, were served to the following guests: Mesdames Willard Burrell, Donald Shore, C. V. Smith, Stanton Stevens, L. P. Fugelson, Hadrell, C. C. Farr, Adrian Sias, Carl Alwert, Ralph Harry, Jess Davidson, Ernest Odell, Levi Wilson, Geo. Chapman, C. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clatterbos, Jr., the Misses Beverly Norton and Ruth Hamlin and Messrs. Charles Howell and Bob Ziegler.

Mrs. Melvin Schroeder was the high prize Thursday when members of the Co-Workers club met for pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Schuster. Following luncheon, the group spent the afternoon sewing and talking. Next meeting of the club will be September 8, at the home of Mrs. Clarence McFair. Members present were Mesdames Charles Deanna, Jim Gledin, Melvin Schroeder, W. E. Schroeder, Lois Avery and Andrew Schuster.

Violet Sutton, bride-elect of Ralph Foster, whose marriage will occur Friday evening, was complimented Thursday evening with a miscellaneous bridal shower, given by her mother-in-law, Emma Woodcock at the R. E. Harrison home. Shower gifts were piled in a pink and white basket and concealed with flowers so that the honor guest was presented with what proved a giant basket of flowers. Refreshments were served after the gifts had been opened and admired. Those present were the Misses Vesta Duncanson, Jeannette Wheeler, Shirley Mye, Dorothy Belle Nowlin, Eileen Griffin, Robert Griffin, Eileen Kendall, Evelyn Gano, Doris Anna Wood, Wilda Van Meter, Susie Rowe and Maryvne McClellan.

Figural, baby bottles, bibs, in fact most of the paraphernalia associated with the very young, was in abundant evidence at the Theodore Clinton home Friday, when Gretchen Clinton entertained some of her contemporaries at a "baby" party. Jane Kramer, whose costume was the most youthful of any present, won the prize for the being the youngest baby. After a buffet dinner at 8:30 on the lawn, members of the party played games suitable to their attire. Not until 10:30 p. m. did they attain sufficient maturity to attend the show at the Liberty. Those attending the party were Beverly Norton, Jean Laird, Yvonne Coquilla, of California, Ann Hawkins, Yvonne Kern, Marjorie Smith, Donna Dunn, Mary Jane Dunh, Jane Kramer, Marjorie Knight and Gretchen Clinton.
