Margaret Walsh, wife of Mr. Wood Walsh, was complimented Friday evening at a miscellaneous bridge shower given by Mrs. Roy Wheeler. After the honored guest had found her presents from those given her on paper covers, members of the party watched her spin and select her many gifts. Pleasant talks were brought out, as the evening could be spent at that game. Mrs. A. O. Callerton was first prize and Mrs. Everett Thompson was given consolation prize. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Callerton, Madeline A. O. Callerton, Fred Bull, George Stevenson, Gladys Orr, Everett Thompson, Allan Richmond, Robert Betty, Leonard Richardson, C. E. Martin, Louis McMillan, Frank DeCasta, William Gaffey, Jack Johnson, W. O. Terry, Joe Barry, Cliff Davidson, Albert Henderson, R. F. Weston, Robert Clark, Ralph Manning, Malie Walsh, Miss Margaret Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler.

Supper and delicious gifts were their hosts to the young Thursday evening when Blanche Barden and Mrs. Theron Thornton entertained at the L. F. Ferguson home for Mrs. Leo Stanger, Jr., at a dark shower. Following the $300 check dinner, Mrs. Stanger opened her many beautiful presents. Desserts and dessert trays featured those classic colors of babyhood—pink, blue and white. The guest list included Madeline Clarence Summers, A. D. Elliot, Russell Brown, Roy Pedway, Bill Walker, Lawrence Guleth, Ray Matson, Wm. Head, L. F. Ferguson, the Misses Eileen Kendall, Norma McKeown, Gladys Kendall, Harriet Webb, Doris Kendall and Marjorie Knight.

Mrs. D. G. Ireland entertained members of the Charis club Thursday afternoon for luncheon and picnic. Mrs. Jay Corver was the traveling prize. Mrs. Clyde Mearns held high score and Mrs. Ernest Wharost was given consolation prize. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Clovis Church and Mrs. Clyde Mearns. Members present included Madeline Val Marlin, Ernest Page, Ernest Wharost, Jay Carter, D. G. Ireland and Miss Edna Stewart.

Members of the Let-A-Lot club were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. O. K. Rabestraw at her home in the Roy district. Next meeting of the group, which will be at the home of Mrs. J. W. Huble, has been postponed until September 26, so that all members will be free to attend the county fair on the regular meeting day. Needlework occupied the group during the afternoon. Refreshments were served to the following members present: Madeline J. W. Huble, Will Meyers, Ed Deltoson, Earl Cross, George Gilman, Alex Machay, R. A. Wimer and O. K. Rabestraw.

Plans were made by members of the Rink Creek Friendship club Thursday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Edith Tennant, who, with Mrs. Billy Jacobson, entertained the group, to hold a potluck supper and party on September 7 to which husbands of the members will be invited. After the short business meeting refreshments were served. Those attending were Madeline Lois Bunch, Marie Jacobson, Dorothy Arnold, Thelma Burgess, Winnie Stewart, Grace Atkinson, Hazel George, Alice George and Gladys George.

Mrs. James McCuffin entertained members of the Lincoln club Tuesday afternoon at a potluck luncheon. After a short business meeting, members enjoyed a social afternoon. Mrs. Blanche Davis was the deer prize. Next meeting will be held October 1, at the Schram residence on the Myrtle Point highway, with Mrs. Blanche Davis as hostess. Members present were Madeline W. H. Schroeder, Blanche Davis, Flora Dunne, Clara Wheeler, George Burr, Bertha Wilson, Chas. Gardner, J. M. Downing and Jas. McCuffin. Mrs. Charles Strong, who is visiting here from California, was a guest at the meeting.

A tacking and quilting party was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Foster Wednesday, when some members of the Lincoln club assisted in finishing a quilt. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. and Mrs. B. W. Dunn entertained Sunday evening at a delightful dinner party. Amusements following dinner included a series of games. Quizzes were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Randall, Mrs. Harold Stromquist.

Announcement was made by members of the executive board of the Junior Women's club that the organization's next meeting of the current club year will be held Monday, September 8, at the Guild Hall. Many projects for the year have been planned by the board and will be presented to club members at the coming meeting.

Standing committee changes appointed by the board include: Lorraine Parrott, business committee; Malie Taylor, courtesy committee; John Randall, membership committee; Malie Taylor, Christmas and committee; Beale Christensen, musician; LeVonne Kalk, postcard; Louise McMillan, program; Catherine Maynard, publicity; Josephine Fisher, telephone; Marjorie Knight, dues.

Mrs. Joseph Allard entertained members of the Double Four club at the home of Mrs. George McCollan Wednesday afternoon, for dessert luncheon and picnic. High score was held by Mrs. John Darby, Mrs. Roy Wheeler took second prize and Mrs. George McCollan was conceded. Members present were Madeline John Darby, George McCollan and Joseph Allard. Guests of the meeting were Madeline Lorraine Fowder, Roy Wheeler, Dorothy Harris and Marjorie Carver.

Mrs. Russell Brown entertained Tuesday evening at a farewell party for Mrs. Leo Stanger, Jr., who left recently for San Diego, where her husband has been for the past few months. Naval games entertained the guests. A Dutch lunch was served late in the evening. Those attending were Mrs. and Madeline Theron Thornton, Roy Pedway and Russell Brown, Mrs. Stanger, the Misses Eileen Kendall, Doris Kendall, Gladys Kendall and Mauri. Don Graham and Sami Nelson.

Rammy Morris, who on Friday celebrated his seventh birthday, was commemorated by a party on that day given by his mother, Mrs. Sherman Morris. Mrs. Marion Clayton selected the hostess in entertaining the young people and serving them refreshments, which included a large white birthday cake trimmed with red candles. Favors were given the small guests, who were John Clayton, Paul Clayton, Dickie Harry, Wayne Timmons, Bonnie Thomas, Eddie Howe and Rammy Morris.

Mrs. L. W. Oddy entertained many of her neighbors Wednesday afternoon at a party. While the guests were sewing, Edythe Farr delighted them with several fine piano solos. Mrs. Donald Farr, accompanied by Edythe Farr, sang several songs. Refreshments were served to the guests who were Madeline Leonard Kendall, C. C. Farr, Donald Farr, Ralph Harry and Dottie Lou, Lindeman and Barbara, George Howe, William Howell, Ernest Wharost, L. W. Oddy and Miss Edythe Farr.

First meeting of the current season was held Wednesday by the Episcopal Guild at the Guild hall. Mrs. E. W. Pratt Church
Wedding Sunday

Margaret Walsh, daughter of Mr. John Walsh, and Edward Walsh, son of Mr. James Walsh of Boise, Idaho, were married Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Assembly of God Tabernacle before an assemblage of guests representing over a hundred persons.

Rev. E. D. R. Smith performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by Mr. Paul Stanley, of Coconino Valley. Elizabeth Williams was maid of honor and Roy Kelly attended the groom. Bridesmaids were Annabelle Matthews, Helen Nelson, Bernice Ruby and Dorothy Stanley, of Coconino Valley. The brides were Betty Ann, Howard May, Corvella Wootly and Donald Graham. Little Jeanette Warner was the flower girl.

Made as lovely as the colorful picture made by the bridal party was played on the organ by Virginia Swindell. Mr. D. D. Anderson, local pastor of the Tabernacle, sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a white satin gown with train, long sleeves with points over the hand, and a finger tip veil bound to her head by a tiara of small pearls. Her bouquet was made of gladiolus blossoms, white chrysanthemums and pink ranunculus. Each of the bridesmaids carried a colonial nosegay of summer blossoms, tied with pastel shaded ribbons which harmonized with her tulle gown. Two of the bridesmaids were dressed in rose and two in blue. The maid of honor wore a gown of tulle and the tiny flower girls was clothed in a long dress of yellow tulle and wore yellow ribbons in her hair. Each of the bridesmaids and the maid of honor wore flowers in her hair.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. O. Terry, Mrs. C. B. Martin and Mrs. Roy Wheeler. About thirty-five guests attended the reception.

The young couple left immediately after the reception for a honeymoon trip to Coconino Lake. They returned here Wednesday and are making their home with the bride's mother, Mrs. John Walsh.

Roy School Opens

Seven first graders, the largest enrollment in the history of the district, entered the Roy school Tuesday, when the fall session got under way. Coon Moseley, teacher of the eight grades in the school, reports a total of twenty-five students enrolled for the session. This is an increase of just over 100 percent.

The school has been equipped with new blackboards and the Mother's club, an organization similar to the one at P. T. A., has provided new chairs for the primary class.

Mrs. Betty Walker, co-treasurer, entertained members of the Mother's club at her home. As president of the organization, Mrs. Walker appointed Frances Deltoson chairman of the calendar committee, a group which will meet Friday to arrange the schedule of meetings for the upcoming season. Other committee members are Miss Johnson and Ruth Grifflin. The organization is at present having a table built for use at the school when parties are given. Those attending the table building were Madeline Fowder, Edithson, Mary Johnson, Mrs. Lindgren, Ruth Cross, Ruth Grifflin, Margaret Deltoson, Marie Wilson and Coon Moseley.
