John S. Gardner, sometimes known as Johnie Dean Gardner, Plaintiff, vs.
Jennie Gregg Gardner, Defendant,
Case No. 12127
Suit in Equity for Divorce

To Jennie Gregg Gardner, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above-entitled suit, on or before the 14th day of November, 1940, said date being on the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which date of first publication is October 17, 1940, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, or otherwise plead thereto, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: that the marriage and marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved.

The grounds upon which said relief is based in said complaint are described in the complaint.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Coquille Valley Sentinel, pursuant to an order of the Honorable James T. Brand, Judge of the above entitled Court, made, dated and entered on the 15th day of October, 1940, which said order requires that the date of the first publication of said summons shall be on the 17th day of October, 1940, the date of the last publication thereof being November 14, 1940.

S. D. Pulford,
 Attorney for the Plaintiff,
 Residence and Postoffice address,
 Coquille, Oregon. 4015

Red Devils Swamp Indians

Unleashing an attack which swamped the Roseburg Indians last Saturday, the Coquille Red Devils kept up their winning ways, and scored six touchdowns to win 39 to 0.

The first quarter trio of assaults on the Braves' wigwam were made by Crouch, McCool and "Buster" Whereast, who caught McIntee's pass.

The second and third quarters were unproductive of scores but in the fourth stanza another trio of touchdowns resulted. From the 42-yard line McIntee passed to Gilbert and he was in the clear all the way to the final stripe.

Crouch scored the second of the inning after Holmstrom had intercepted a pass, and Butler made the final score.

Don Bailey, official statistician for C. H. S., furnishes the following figures which reveal the complete Red Devil domination of this non-conference game:

Coquille	Roseburg
212 Yards gained scrimmage.....	67
103 Yards gained passing.....	84
4 Yards lost.....	20
65 Yards penalties.....	80
7 First downs.....	6
5 Passes attempted.....	17
3 Passes completed.....	5
2 Intercepted opp. passes.....	1
3 Fumbles.....	5
5 Recovered fumbles.....	3
46 Yards punt average.....	47

Coquille Jetty Bid $342,250

Strong & MacDonald, of Tacoma, were the low bidders for the Coquille river north jetty improvement it was found when the bids were opened at the army engineers' office in Portland last Thursday. Their bid was for $342,250, which was $6,000 above the engineering estimate. Other bids ran as high as $534,000.

The job includes rebuilding the stone section of the jetty, construction of a cofferdam from 55,000 cubic yards of stone at the outer end, and a solid concrete slab on top, made of 10,000 cubic yards of concrete, and is expected to be completed next year.

Fairview News

The Home Economics Club met with Mrs. Charles Holverstott at her home in Fairview last Wednesday for the regular monthly meeting. Following lunch at noon the ladies held the business meeting with the following present: Mesdames Glenn Richardson, Albert Thommen, Ray, Norris, Dale Thurman and children, Ray Deadmond, Charles Geitner and the hostess.

Mr and Mrs. I. A. Deadmond of Harrisburg, Oregon, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deadmond.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neal charivariated them Saturday evening at the home of his father, Perry Neal. The young married couple eluded the crowd for some time, then returned to the house.

Mrs. G. B. Dow spent last Wednesday in a Coquille hospital.

The Fairview-North Fork Grange met at the local hall last Saturday evening, the ladies presenting the entertainment. A pantomime, "The Family Album," was presented, with each member cleverly dressed to fit the part. The family was portrayed by the following: Melva Richardson, the bride; Mrs. Charles Geitner, the groom; Nelda Norris, little brother; Glenda Richardson and Lorraine Norris, twin babies; Mrs. Courtland Ellis, father; Mrs. Ray Norris, mother; Mrs. Albert Thommen, aunt; and Mrs. David Tosten, cousin. Dancing followed the program.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Berkheimer gathered at the Fairview church last Friday evening for a farewell party and had an evening of fun and enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Berkheimer moved the past week-end to their new home at Eugene.

Belle Knife Hospital

Mrs. Herman Floten, who entered the hospital last Friday for treatment, is responding to the treatments and is considerably improved now.
