School Directors, Clerks To Meet Marshfield, Saturday

State Superintendent of Schools Rex Putnam and L. A. Wilcox, also of the state department, will be out of county speakers for the school officers' meeting in Marshfield High school Saturday, November 30.

This organization meets annually, alternating between meeting places in Coquille valley and in the Bay section. A count is taken each year to see which school districts are 100 per cent in attendance of their officers. Which will have the honor this year? Last year Valley View and Brewster Valley were 100 per cent; the latter members also had brought their wives. Three other districts lacked only one member of being 100 per cent—these were Arago, Norway and Pleasant Point.

A potluck dinner, which will be served in the Marshfield High school cafeteria, will be enjoyed by all, after which the visitors will be shown through the new building.

All the people who were serving as either director or clerk at the time their district consolidated during the last year, are urged to be present at there is to be a short ceremony for these, with presentation of a small token of appreciation of their efforts. The districts are: Riverton and Lenewa; Catching Inlet and Sumner; Allegany and West Allegany; Gravelord, Shiloh and Pleasant Hill; Haynes Inlet, Larson Inlet, Hauser and Mulkey; and New Lake.

The following have been nominated as officers to be voted upon November 30: president: 1. Charles Mahaffey, Coos River; 2. George C. Huggins, Marshfield. Vice-president: 1. Boyd Arnot, Eastside; 2. Adam Donaldson, Jr., Sumner Consolidation. Secretary-treasurer: 1. Mrs. Alta Peterson, Sunny Hill Consolidation; 2. J. F. Burkhardt, Bunker Hill.

Visitors are cordially invited to attend any or all sessions in which they are interested.
