Winners at Country Club Tournament

The Coquille Valley Country Club pavilion was the scene of a successful social function last Monday evening when members of the club and others met for a dinner and presentation of engraved cups to tournament winners.

Theodore (Dutch) Clinton called the meeting to order. First course, the group sang "God Bless America." Community sing, "My Old Kentucky Home." Introduction of Elton Schroeder as toastmaster. 2nd course; Roland C. Bowers, as tournaments for men:

Present runner-up for men's championship is C. O. Linn, banker from Myrtle Point.

Present, championship cup, went to C. M. Howard.

Present winner of women's runner-up is Mrs. W. B. McLarrin.

Present winner of women's championship is Mrs. Lillian McLarrin. Mrs. Florence Adams, as president of women's committee, was introduced. She was last year's winner of women's championship.

Mac Maloney and Dutch Clinton were called on and made excellent talks. The group sang, "Home on the Range" and "Oh! Susanna."

The attendance numbered approximately 80. Dancing followed and was a feature of a fine evening of entertainment.

Double-4 Entertained By Mrs. Clausen

Many novel ideas were used by Mrs. Alton Clausen in her preparations for entertaining members of the Double-Four club at their Christmas party, Wednesday afternoon. A charming little Christmas scene decorated the top of her piano. Tally cards, for pinocle, were attached to popcorn balls wrapped in red cellophane. There was a Christmas tree, under which presents were placed and an unnamed Santa Claus, who distributed the presents. Prize winners at the party were Mrs. Phil Bourmes, door prize; Mrs. Norman Fletcher, high score, and Mrs. F. H. McKibben, second prize. Members present were Mesdames George McClellan, Norman Fletcher, Chub Allard, Phil Bourmes, Ernest Whereat, F. H. McKibben and Alton Clausen. Mrs. Charles Briggs was a guest.

Fox Growers Election Held

Two officers of the Coquille unit of the Oregon Fox and Mink association were re-elected Sunday when the organization held a day long meeting at the James Spargo home, Marshfield. The two officers, Harold L. Potts, president, and Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, director of the state association, are each commencing their fifth successive term in the same office. Al Crawford, Arago, was elected vice president, and Mrs. Ben Heppler, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. J. W. Ruble, outgoing secretary, refused, despite pleas from the thirty association members present, to accept nomination for re-election.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Pierson were hosts and hostess for the meeting. A potluck dinner at noon gave members an opportunity to break the formality of the business meeting and enjoy each other's company.

The next meeting will be Jan. 12 at the J. W. Ruble home.

W. C. T. U. To Meet In Baptist Church Friday

The December W. C. T. U. meeting will be held Friday, Dec. 13, in the Fellowship room of Emanuel Baptist church. A special Christmas program has been arranged for the meeting, which all members are requested to attend. Friends of the members will be welcome. The local W. C. T. U. has adopted girls between the ages of 5 and 16 at the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, for this Christmas season. Members attending the meeting are asked to bring gifts suitable for these children.

Screen Version Of Hit, "Too Many Girls," Alive With Melody and Dance

To Be Shown at Roxy Theatre Sunday, Monday, Tuesday

Seldom have there been so many catchy tunes incorporated in a single film as are interpolated throughout the sparkling screen version of the highly successful Broadway show, "Too Many Girls."

Produced and directed by George Abbott, who was producer of the smash Broadway show, "Too Many Girls" revolves around the adventures of four all-American football stars hired by a wealthy man to enroll at a small college and serve as bodyguards to his madcap, romantically-inclined daughter.

Eight of the outstanding hit numbers from the original show, with music and lyrics by Rodgers and Hart, have been retained, and through the magic of the camera are set against lavish, colorful backgrounds. They include "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," "Love Never Went to College," "Heroes in the Fall," "Cause We Got Cake," "Spic and Spanish," "Look Out," "Conga" and the Pottawatomie College "Alma Mater" song.

In addition to these, Rodgers and Hart composed a new melody, "You're Nearer," a romantic ballad sung by Lucille Ball, who heads the all-star cast comprised of Richard Carlson, Ann Miller, Eddie Bracken, Frances Langford, Desi Arnaz and Hal LeRoy.

The musical numbers are said to embrace a wide range of rhythms and moods, including collegiate spirit, the cakewalk, rumba and Spanish tempos, torrid love songs and the spirited tropical Conga.

Adding additional color and rhythm to the offering are the four spectacular dance numbers in which more than 100 students join in the ensembles. Hundreds of gay costumes ensembles which are led by Ann Miller, sensational dancing star of George White's "Scandals," Desi Arnaz, new Cuban find; Eddie Bracken, from the original New York cast, and Hal LeRoy, foremost eccentric dancer—in the RKO Radio screen version.
