

County Reduces Interest To 3 Per Cent

In accordance with the general trend of interest reduction, the Coos county court last week authorized that all warrants indorsed after Jan. 1, 1941, will carry three per cent interest rather than four per cent, the present rate. Warrant interest in Coos county has been cut from six per cent to three per cent in the past three years.

County Jail

Two new names appeared on the blotter at the sheriff's office the past week. Oscar Shields was brought up from Bandon to serve a $7 fine and costs for failure to transfer title to a car, and Lyle Potter was brought in by the state police on a larceny of an automobile charge. He took the car at the Bay and it was found up somewhere near Florence.

They Are Captains Of Their Souls

If the suitor of one of the Bachelor Girls finds her a bit diffident about accepting a diamond, he must not lay it merely to feminine coyness. He must realize that a certain amount of real and justifiable fear lies behind her restraint. That fear of consequences, dire, awful ones, was put into her mind at Friday's luncheon meeting of the club. Then, at the Coquille Hotel, certain secret, but nonetheless severe regulations were adopted as punitive measures to be used against the maiden who would be a matron. At present all members of the club are, so far as eye can see, captains of their souls. There isn't a diamond among 'em.

Ellen Braxton, the lab technician, demonstrated her swing technique by leading the Bachelor Girls in songs. Marjorie Knight conducted the meeting. Those present were Aloha Allen, Gladys May, Maxine Johnson, Norene McKeown, Marjorie Knight, Carol Young, Ellen Braxton, Vesta Miley, Lydia Holstien, Lorraine Sanders, Rose Matney, Harriet Webb, Margaret Belloni, Winifred Stone, Patricia Peart and Eileen Kendall.

Belle Knife Hospital

Mrs. E. F. Jacobson, of the Myrtle Point highway, entered last Thursday for treatment for pneumonia.

The same day Guy Neal entered for treatment. Last Saturday Patricia Nosler, home from school at Eugene, underwent an appendectomy, and Lorraine Tennant submitted to a major operation.

Ted King, of Allegany, entered for a major operation last Saturday. Jimmy, seven-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCurdy, underwent an operation for appendicitis, and Mrs. Bessie Hatfield, of Myrtle Point, a major operation, both on Monday this week.

On Tuesday Cecil Finley entered for sinus treatment and Geo. Adams reentered for treatment of his injured back.

Mrs. Jacqueline Bond, of Coquille, entered yesterday for chest treatments.

Dismissals the past week were Francis Ferre, of Arago, and Mrs. E. Pruitt, last Sunday; Lee Mast and Betty Gray on Tuesday.

Zodiac Club

Members of the Zodiac club enjoyed a lovely evening Wednesday, when they were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Ora Tennant, who gave her party to compliment Mrs. Ethel Fuller, of Marshfield. A gaily trimmed tree and attractively decorated rooms provided a nice setting for the party. Lorina Tharpe won the door prize and Ruby Johnson, Jane Burch, Lorenna Thorpe, Opal Buckles, Edna Kern, Vera Hooton, Mildred Howe, Blanche Mast, Ethel Fuller, Gladys Wheeler, Edith Tennant, Helen Detlefsen and daughter, Marianne, Ora Tennant and a guest, Myrtle Asen.

Football Letters And Awards

Howard Moy received his fourth football letter at a special high school assembly last Friday morning, the other seniors who were awarded letters being Rolf Holmstrom, Don Landaker, Chas. McIntee, Paul Walker, LeRoy Gilbert, Dale Stevens, Raymond Rowland, Norman McCool, Don Hurlbutt and William Pettengill. Wayne Terry, Don Whereat, Louis Gilbert, Paul Crouch were the juniors, and Tom Martin the sophomore who also received letters.

The annual honor roll awarded by the Coquille Lions club for the best blocker on the Red Devils squad was announced at the Lions noon session last Thursday at which Mike Mikulak was present for the university instead of John Warren as previously announced. Holmstrom's selection was made by a committee of Lions fans.

At the Eagles meeting last Thursday evening, the football squads from Coquille, Myrtle Point and Bandon high schools were guests. The outstanding player on each of the three teams, as designated by the players on each team, were presented with pen and pencil sets by the lodge. Those to whom President C. A. Barton made the presentation were Don Landaker of the Red Devils, Don Brown of the Bobcats, and Leonard Smith of the Tigers.

H. George To Be Grange Master

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Willey and William Eveland were initiated into the Grange Friday evening, Saturday, the 21st, Henry Gustafsen, of North Bend, will conduct installation ceremonies here for the new officers of the local grange, the Myrtle Point and Bridge granges. Henry George will be installed as the local master to succeed Joe Varney.
