SOCIAL NOTES

Christmas greens, yellow and white chrysanthemums and other Christmas decorations made the Fred Watson home lovely Monday evening when Mrs. Watson entertained members of the Tuesday Night club at their annual Christmas party. After the gift exchange, the group settled down to its regular business—bridge. Prize winners were Mrs. O. T. Gant, high score, and Mrs. Donald Estes, second prize. The N. O. M. A. club enjoyed its Christmas party Tuesday evening at the Craig Perrott home, when Mrs. Perrott entertained the members. After silent sister gifts had been distributed from the Christmas tree, the girls sewed. Christmas pudding was served late in the evening to the following members: Mesdames Harold Dey, Melden Carl, Donald Auer, Ray Detlefsen, Denton Ellingson, Harold Stevens, Marion Clayton, Dennis Wagner, Tom Stevens, and Sherman Morris. Mrs. Lucille Ellison, of Santa Rosa, was a guest at the party.

Mrs. Ed Yarbrough and Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt were given towel showers in honor of their birthdays. At the pinochle contest, Mrs. Ernest Whereat rolled up high score. Mrs. Ed Yarbrough came in with second high and Mrs. A. O. Culbertson caught the travelling prize. Guests invited for the party were Mesdames Loal Hicksonbottom, Ralph Menning and Ernest Whereat. Members present were Mesdames Ed Yarbrough, Charles Lewis, L. P. McElhane, Ralph Hurlbutt, Jack McLaren, Ben Leatherwood, A. A. Kyle and A. O. Culbertson.

The Royal Neighbors enjoyed their Christmas party Tuesday evening. After gifts had been received by all the members, the secret sisters were revealed. A miniature Santa Claus presided over the party. Reigning from the refreshments table, he kept his benevolent eyes on the gay party. Mrs. George Burr won first prize for her skill at the games. Nineteen members and guests were present. Next meeting will be held Jan. 7, when Mrs. Ann Montgomery of Marshfield, will install the lodge's new officers.

Friendly neighbors of Mrs. Julius Ruble surprised her Monday afternoon, when they arrived with the makings for a birthday party. Refreshments included a lovely three-tiered birthday cake. The instigators of the party were Mesdames P. W. Culver, Don Gillespie, Stanley Fitzgerald, Fred Hudson, G. M. Deyoe, Emily Hersey and George Hartley.
