

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oiska intend leaving after school closes for the holidays in Salt Lake City, where his mother is in the hospital in a serious condition. They expect to be back before the first of the year.

Paul Roberts left Sunday for Lebanon, where he has a new job. Mrs. Roberts and Virginia plan to move to Lebanon when the schools here close for Christmas vacation.

Recorder F. G. Leslie was off duty at the city hall today, being confined to his bed with an attack of the flu.

William H. Eveland, who recently purchased the Houston apartment house last Thursday bought the H. L. Johnson home, which he plans to convert into apartments. Both of these transactions were made through the George E. Oerding real estate office.

Mrs. Harold Stromquist, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Rosa Naef, at Milwaukie for the past week, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Larson, daughter Judy and Mrs. Hilma Larson returned last Thursday from a short visit with relatives at St. Helens.

A. N. Gould left last Wednesday for San Bernardino, San Francisco and Porterville, all in California. He will visit his mother in the first mentioned city over Christmas and expects to be back before the end of the year.

Mrs. Marvin Hopkins and daughter, Jackie, arrived here Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman for a week. Mr. Hopkins is expected here Sunday to take his family back to their home in Eugene.

Mrs. Charles Mansell and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Powrie of Myrtle Point drove to Portland Monday for a short visit with friends.

Though the flu epidemic raging along the coast has not, according to local doctors, reached here, many local people are spending miserable days as they battle against flu germs. Among those who have been suffering from the malady are Mrs. L. P. Fugelson, Mrs. Annie Lund, and Mrs. W. H. Schroeder.

Mrs. George Johnson and daughter, Maxine, left Monday for Portland. They are expected to return home today.

Alvin Shaver, former local resident, spent the weekend here visiting old friends. Mr. Shaver is now living in Portland.

Merle Kellenberger and Frances Brown will entertain the Three Links Sewing club tonight at the Kellenberger home. All Rebekahs are invited to the party. There will be a 25c gift exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jacobson and young son, Donald arrived here Monday to visit Mrs. Jacobson's sister, Mrs. John Purkey. This morning Mrs. Purkey, Marilyn and Jackie, left with the Jacobsons for Tacoma, where they will visit Mrs. Purkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Peers.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brandon, who have been spending their honeymoon here at the Richmond cottage at Bandon, left Wednesday to return to their home at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Bernadean Wilson and daughters, Margaret Ann and Helen came down from their home in Portland last Friday and returned home Sunday. They came especially that Margaret Ann might attend the Senior Ball Friday evening. She was formerly a member of the present senior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Goodwin, who live on the Rink creek road just off the highway, and conduct the Myrtle Cafe in Myrtle Point, returned Sunday evening from a trip to Los Angeles, where they were called by the serious illness of her son. He was somewhat improved when they left.

Hazel Moffett plans to leave Saturday for Medford, where she will spend the holidays visiting her mother.

Two were arrested by the local police for the customary offence. One was Jos. R. Crocker of the McKinley CCC, and the other was Wm. Henry Butler, who hails from North Dakota. They were each given a $10 fine.

V. R. WILSON, U. D. OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined. Glasses Fitted. Broken lenses duplicated. Optical repairs while you wait. Artificial eyes furnished.

Flu caused Ludwig Scharfer to enter the Coquille Hospital Monday for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman plan to leave Saturday for Portland, where they will spend Christmas with their children. After Christmas, they expect to go to Tacoma, where Mr. Harriman will attend a meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, while Mrs. Harriman visits old friends. They plan to be back here December 29.

Mrs. Mannie Cunningham, of Marshfield, arrived Saturday to spend the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Morris.

Mrs. William Preston organized a surprise party to celebrate her husband's birthday, Saturday evening. Presents brought by Mr. Preston's friends were, with the exception of one slipped in by a brigand, very nice. After several rounds of pinochle, Mrs. Preston served refreshments. Members of the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Brinkley, Aaron Smith, Elmer Davis, Charles Briggs and William Preston.

The Friendly Dozen club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Howard Taylor, whose home was beautifully decorated for Christmas. Members of the club exchanged Christmas gifts. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Clyde Minard, S. Hardenbrook, Fred Van Pegert, Sam Arnold, Sr., Fred Wheaton, Grant Wilcox, Aaron Wilson of Myrtle Point, Jack Hultin, A. G. Trendle and Howard Taylor.

Eagles Auxiliary Holds Christmas Party Yesterday

The Eagles Auxiliary met for its Christmas party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Norma Hickenbottom. After a delicious potluck dinner, the group played pinochle. Lilly DeCosta won first prize, Babe Menning received consolation prize and Naomi DeGroat won the travelling prize. Next meeting of the group will be Jan 8, at Molly Hughes' home. Those present were Mesdames Mable Kyle, Naomi DeGroat, Pauline Kohler, Margaret Spores, Molly Hughes, Lilly DeCosta, Lottie Aber, Babe Menning, Hattie Gaffey, Naomi Dunham, Gertrude Leneve, Agnes Lewis, Jan Burch, Virginia Heintzelman and Norma Hickenbottom.

Buy your Christmas cards and smart gift wraps at Norton's. We imprint your name on your cards on our Kingsley Gold Stamping Machine at a small additional cost. Norton's.

Hand-made, crocheted
Bedsread
extra large size
Martha Washington pattern
See it at
Biegger Furniture Company
An ideal Christmas gift

DOROTHY GRAY CHRISTMAS TREE SET

Four Dorothy Gray fragrances in 2-oz. scroll bottles, nestled in a shiny blue tree. "Floral Fantasies" in South American and Old-Fashioned Pink Bouquet scents; plus Eau de Cologne in Jasmijn Bouquet and Rose Geranium Bouquet.

Free Gift Wrapping Packages Ready to Mail Stamps

Fuhrman's Pharmacy
We're Never Just Out

Junior Women's Christmas Party Last Evening

To boost funds available for the Milk Fund, Georgianna Vaughan president of the Junior Women's club, momentarily broke the frivolity of the club's Christmas party Wednesday evening, to secure the opinion of members on money raising projects. Mrs. Vaughan outlined the condition demanded by Dr. Helen Keller for a personal appearance here. Club members, upon learning that the chief stipulation was the guarantee of a $500 honorarium voted to abandon efforts to sponsor Dr. Keller. Though this project was dropped, the group voted to investigate the possibilities of sponsoring Oregon State's R. O. T. C. band here for a concert and dance. Catherine Maynard was appointed general chairman of the public card party scheduled for January to raise cash for the Milk Fund. Introduction of business only heightened appreciation and enjoyment of the Christmas party. Emma Briggs, general chairman, planned a party that ranked high in the list of similar celebrations. Peg Gould, chairman, Ruth Wiltshire, Dorothy Fish and Louise Schroeder, all working on the decorating committee, created a lovely setting for the party. They trimmed a fine, big Christmas tree, decorated bridge tables, from which refreshments were served with wreaths of cedar and red berries, candles and Santa Claus favors, and made festive arrangements of greens and holly to place all about the hall. The wreaths and corsages of cedar and red berries tied with red cellophane ribbon were made by Mrs. Briggs, Marjorie Knight, Evelyn Mattoon and Louise Schroeder.

Christmas carols were led by Edna Sandall, accompanied by Estel Sohler, while the refreshment committee, composed of Lorraine Perrott, Carol Young, LaVerne Brodie and Maxine Stevens, were serving Christmas pudding and coffee. Gay Booklets at each table proved to carry the words for most of the carols. After refreshments a few more carols were sung to heighten anticipation for the gift exchange. Along with the members exchange, two big boxes of gifts were assembled for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

Entertainment was supervised by Marjorie Knight. Bridge and pinochle provided amusement for the bulk of the evening. Mrs. Briggs and Gertrude Mehl made charming tallies. Cut in the shape of a snowman, who wore a real feather set at a jaunty angle in his bonnet, each tally was carried home as a party souvenir. Georgianna Vaughan, high scorer at bridge, won a finger wave furnished as first prize by Evelyn Mattoon's beauty shop. Lucille McEniry received second prize at bridge. The pinochle prizes went to Pauline Mintonoye, high and Gertrude Swinney, second.

Club members and guests attending the party were Gertrude Mehl, Dorothy Fish, Hazel Foss, Pauline Mintonoye, Hazel Sutton, Louise Schroeder, Jeannette Roake of Portland, VI Connarn, Dorothy McCue, Louise Hersey, Ruth Wiltshire, Evelyn Elliott, Eleanor McClellan, Emma Briggs, Jean Laird, Donna Dean Boserman, Lucille Cottingin, Catherine Maynard, Marguerite Hartley, Gertrude Swinney, Ora Horning, Evelyn Mattoon, Harriet Webb, Vesta Miley, Carol Young, Marjorie Knight, Margaret Belloni, Adis Sherwood, Zelma Hopkins, Faye Wagner, Edna Sandall, Crystal Henninger, Myrtle Clausen, Florence Berg, Estel Sohler, Lucille McEniry, Lorraine Perrott, Maxine Stevens and May Stevens.

$3000 in Bonuses Distributed By Bay and S.W. Motors

Approximately $3000 in bonuses was distributed among salesmen of Southwestern Motors and Bay Motors at a dinner meeting held in the Coquille Hotel last week. Carl Steifel, of Portland, Chevrolet assistant Zone manager, and Henry Mauvis, factory representative, were present at the banquet and made talks. The others present were Paul McElwain, proprietor of the two establishments, Cliff Gulseth, F. N. Pendleton, Bob Holzgang, Don Keating, Archie Bushnell, Frank Bethell, Chas. Briggs, Stanley Sherwood, Iris Elrod, C. A. Finley, William Dietz, C. V. Richardson, Ralph Boak, Burton Klockars, George McClafferty, Vern Smith, Dale Stanford, Lee Pruitt, H. Weigant, Orville Hughes and Ray Ruffner.

Circuit Court Cases

Dec. 13—Chester Stanley Duncan—
Handsome 7-Way
Floor Lamp
$7.95 & up
Purkey Furniture

son vs. Russell Smith.
Dec. 14—Coox County vs. Geo. R. Johnson et al. Suit to foreclose tax liens.
Dec. 16—Jas. N. Crowley vs. Eula Mae Crowley. Suit for divorce.

Blank Warranty Deeds for sale at this office.

Don't Forget
Kiddies'
FREE SHOW
at the
LIBERTY
Tuesday, Dec. 24
1:45 P. M.

Christmas Greetings

Thur. - Fri. - Sat.
DEC. 19 - 20 - 21

Sun. - Mon. - Tue.
DEC. 22 - 23 - 24

A Merry Christmas To Our Friends and Patrons

Fri - Sat. - Dec. 20 - 21

Wed. - Thur. - Dec. 25 - 26

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS PROGRAM Wednesday & Thursday

DEC. 25 - 26
Special Xmas Matinee WEDNESDAY
Starting at 2:30 P. M. Admission 10c & 20c

Roxy