

SOCIAL NOTES

Wives of the State Police Officers, who annually hold a Christmas party, were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Roy O'Mara. After their gift exchange, the members of the group played amusing games. Mrs. O'Mara's home was attractively decorated with a Christmas tree, holly wreaths and greens. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Irving Larson, Thayer Kressler, R. S. Beala, Harold Stromquist, Earl Tichenor, Chester Liechty and Roy O'Mara.

Mrs. Marlin Brandon and Mrs. William Barrow entertained members of the bridge club at a Christmas party Thursday evening at the Brandon home. Though Mrs. Andy Anderson received high score prize and Mrs. Don McEniry, second prize, all members of the party took home a present—from the gift exchange. Refreshments were served late in the evening. Club guests were Mrs. Dan Fish and Mrs. Louis Wiltshire. Ray Vaughan, J. Eric Tucker, Henry McCue, Andy Anderson, Don McEniry, W. Spencer Ross, Elbert Schroeder and the two hostesses.

The Three Links Sewing club members were entertained by Mrs. Merle Kellenberger and Mrs. Florence Brown at the Kellenberger home Thursday evening, when the club had its annual Christmas party and gift exchange. No practical gifts were permitted in the exchange, a price limit of 10c had been set. The amusing toys and trinkets provided much amusement during the evening, which was spent in making caps for the Oddfellows New Year's dance. Members present were Mesdames Lois Stevens, Maude Green, Bertha Holbrook, Lillian Clarke, Bernice Clarke, Edith Gruenwald, Mildred Schaer, Amanda Sutton, Harriet

Coquille Hospital Christmas Party

Staff members of the Coquille Hospital held their annual Christmas party Friday evening at the hospital. The nurses' living room was decorated with the traditional Christmas trimmings, including a tree, and an imitation fireplace. Refreshments were served after the gift exchange. Attending the party were Dr. J. D. Rankin, Dr. Marshall Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Gould, Mesdames Verna Reynolds, Clara Little, Emily Smith, Catherine Homenyk, Myrtle Leatherwood and Maggie Leatherwood, the Misses Ellen Braxton, Lydia Holstien, Norene McKeown, Eleanor Rudd, Maude Law, Norma Pett, Ruth Okesson, Margaret Homenyk and Bud Knife.

Schaer, Catherine Erickson, Iola Moore, Evelyn Brisbane and Helen Larson.

Mrs. Gordon Epps, member of the Birthday club, entertained members of the group Friday afternoon at a Christmas party and birthday party. After the gift exchange, Mrs. Epps received a fine birthday present from the club members. Refreshments were served in the living room, where the guests could admire the gay Christmas tree. Those present were Mesdames A. S. Wells and daughter Jackie Lou, Charles Lewis, John Sanders, Leslie McElhane, William Gaffey, Earl Goodman, Wayne Goodman, Blanche Williams, Ealie Oddy, the hostess, Mrs. Gordon Epps and her young daughter, Janice.

Mrs. Elwyn Nosler, Mrs. Ralph Harry, Mr. C. C. Farr and Mr. Don Shore were members of the committee in charge of the Cornerstone Class Christmas party Friday night at the Church of Christ parlors.

During a short business meeting, the class elected officers. Ernest Odell is the new president, Delbert James, vice president; Mrs. Chas. Griffin, second vice president, and Dophus Bash, secretary.

After the gift exchange, the group played games until refreshment time. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames C. V. Goble, Ernest Odell, M. Boots, George Chapman, Ralph Harry, Herb Souder, Paul Simpson, Dolphus Bash, Levi Wilson, Elwyn Nosler, Fred Martin, C. Adrian Stas, Don Shore, C. C. Farr, Delbert James and Mrs. Irwin Woodward.

The Laf-A-Lot club's Christmas party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Ed Dettelsen. To put everyone in the proper mood for the gift exchange, Mrs. Alex Mackey played the piano so that everyone in the group might join in singing Christmas carols. The Dettelsen home was attractively decorated for the holiday season. Adornments were so chosen as to highlight the beautiful tree. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon to the following members: Mesdames George Gilman, O. K. Rakestraw, W. E. Cross, Will Meyers, Alex Mackey, John Martin, Joe Nielson and the hostess, Mrs. Ed Dettelsen.

Red candles lighted the place cards and tiny red candles topped the individual Christmas puddings. Margaret Belloni served Thursday evening when she was hostess to members of the Omit club at a Christmas party. After dessert, the members exchanged gifts and then played bridge. Norene McKeown won first prize and Mrs. Bob Littrell won second prize. Patricia Peart was a guest at the party. Members present were Mesdames Lloyd Wood, Monroe Swindall, Bob Littrell, Preston Moy, Ray Mattoon, the Misses Maxine Johnson, Aloha Allen, Norene McKeown, Helen Lund and the hostess, Margaret Belloni.
