

Norway News Items

Last Saturday evening, a charivari party was held at the Roy Robinson home, for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pribble. Mrs. Pribble was formerly Miss Theilma Robison. Refreshments were served and everybody had a good time.

Mrs. A. R. Bennett has been confined to her bed, the past week, due to a nervous breakdown and near attack of pneumonia. She is gaining at this writing. Mrs. A. H. Bender has been in charge of the housework during her illness.

Last Sunday, Melvin Bunch took Mrs. Julia Leep to Roseburg, where she will visit for a month with her son, Harold, and family.

Last Thursday Mrs. Levi Bunch was a visitor at the A. R. Bennett home. Visitors at this home on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wannamaugh of west Myrtle Point, Mrs. Mary Gage and daughter Helene and Mrs. Frank Fish, all of Coquille, on Saturday came Miss Mina Hall, of Catching Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Brodie had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow last week. The animal supposedly got kicked by one of the horses.

Stanford Buell of Dillard, Oregon, made a business call at Norway last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Buell delivers first and second cutting of alfalfa baled hay, baled straw, etc., in this locality, and in season is also a large grower of tomatoes, cantaloupes and watermelons. He has a large farm in the Dillard bottoms on the Umpqua.

This writer attended a non-conference hoop game at the Union high school auditorium at Myrtle Point last Saturday evening between Myrtle Point and Grants Pass high schools. Myrtle Point was victorious by a score of 34 to 18. Only once was Grants Pass in the lead, and then only by one point. The Myrtle Point boys of Coach Rickard, displayed fine team work. Something which was lacking last year. The starting team for Myrtle Point was Paulson, Don Brown, Harry Brown, Jimmie Porter and Capt. Brooks. In the last quarter with a comfortable lead, Coach Rickard put in several of his second string, who gave good accounts of themselves.

L. H. Pearce, popular garage man and service station dealer of Myrtle Point has made a gift to the Myrtle Point high school of an electric score board, which is being installed in the auditorium to take care of the basket ball games. It represents an expenditure of $100.00.

Last Wednesday evening, installation of Myrtle Point Lodge No. 150, I. O. O. F., officers was held in Myrtle Point. The installing officer was Ray E. Rookard, as D. D. G. M., and was assisted by E. C. Roberts, grand marshal. Elected officers installed were J. H. Mahaffey, noble grand; Lyle A. Carver, vice grand; A. H. Bender, financial secretary; E. A. Dodge, treasurer. Appointed officers were Kermit Martin, warden; Casey Brewster, conductor; C. P. Moore, chaplain; Al E. Baker, right scene supporter; Jim Mattei, left scene supporter; E. O. Carter, right supporter noble grand; Ray E. Rookard, left supporter, noble grand; C. C. Carter, right supporter, vice grand; Chester Houser, left supporter, vice grand; John E. Dickson, outside guardian; Lyman Rackleff, inside guardian.

C. G. Wann, who just closed his six month service as noble grand, was installed as past grand. Following the installation an open house was held until a later hour, when the Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and friends enjoyed cards and dancing. Music for the evening was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laird and A. H. Bender. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Liggett of Powers, were visitors and Joe rendered valuable service as floor manager for the square dances. Preceding the lodge session a potluck and turkey dinner was held from the hour of 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. with a large attendance.

Miss Eva Schroeder motored up from Coquille last Saturday. She was accompanied on her return by the Freeman children, Claire and Jimmie, who had been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Schroeder.

The river is pretty high and too muddy at Norway for good fishing.

Mrs. Rudy Rohek, of Norway, is employed at the Goodwin Cafe, at Myrtle Point.

The following local people have been ill with the flu: Mrs. Harold Pribble, Mrs. Finley Schroeder, Mrs. Walter Laird and Mrs. Arthur Bennett. All are on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laird, accompanied by Phillip Laird, of Camp Clatsop, were dinner guests New Year's day of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Laird and family, of Empire. Phillip stayed over there till the next day when he returned to Camp Clatsop, where he is a member of the military band.

Ervin Barklow, of Corvallis, came in to spend New Year's with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Barklow, and with his two daughters, Mavis and Carolyn, who have been visiting their grandmother for some time past. The two young ladies returned with their father Thursday to re-enter Oregon State College.

Lieutenant Darrell Brodie and wife of Camp Clatsop, who visited here during Christmas vacation, left Tuesday morning on their return to camp. They were accompanied by Mrs. Vesta Soper, who planned on staying over at Brownsville, to visit her son, Bert, but found they were all sick and continued on to Seaside, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Brodie.

Mrs. Raymond McLeod returned Sunday from the Knife Hospital in Coquille. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod are the proud parents to a baby boy, named Raymond Roderick.

Miss Joyce Schroeder returned home Sunday evening from Coquille, where she spent the Christmas vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner. She started to high school in Myrtle Point Monday morning, where she is a high rating student.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner, of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Freeman, Barbara, Ann, Claire and Jimmie, of Fairview, and Joyce Schroeder were New Year's day dinner guests at the J. Finley Schroeder home on Grady's creek. Jimmy and Claire remained with their grandparents over the week-end.

Cloverleaf Dairy, pure milk and cream. Phone 7R42.

Arago News

Bobbie and Doreen Dykes returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit with their grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Betters, at Portland.

Miss Lillaverle spent the week-end visiting her mother, Mrs. L. A. Myers in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tomlinson and Albert, Jr., spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Tomlinson in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Farm Patrick and Tommy Kerr, of Bandon, spent Sunday visiting at the Andrew Patrick home on Fishtrap.

Miss Betty Blondell returned to O. S. C. Wednesday after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty, Allen, Mayre Lee and Howard, of Langlois were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Keltner, of Nampa, Idaho, were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keltner and Mr. and Mrs. Adria Halter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Root and Lois, of Powers, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Snyder in Coquille.

J. F. Burtis and Mrs. Merle Hill and Lyle left Thursday for their home in Portland after visiting at the J. L. Burtis home for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dunning and Stephen Aasen left Saturday for Anacostis, Wash., and Pullman, Wash., after visiting at the L. M. Aasen home over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root and family visited relatives in Arago last Friday. Mrs. Edith Woodward returned to Arago with them after visiting with them over the holidays and Miss Ruth Woodward also came in from her visit with her sister, Miss Rachel Woodward, at Bremerton, Wash.

Miss Bernice Gillespie left Sunday night for Oakland, Calif., where she will resume her studies at the Merit business college.

Ellis Rackleff returned Wednesday to Corvallis where he is attending O. S. C. this winter.

The regular weekly Bible study was held Tuesday evening at the church with H. E. Watkins leading the discussion on the eighth chapter of St. John. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root and John Paul, I. B. Sevy, Wayne Woodward, S. C. McAllister. They will meet again this Tuesday at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. George Gillespie returned to Catching creek to resume her duties as school teacher Sunday.

Rev. H. A. Minter, of Coquille, conducted the regular Sunday morning church services. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 44. There will be services again next Sunday as follows: preaching at 10 a. m. and Sunday school at 11 a. m.

E. J. Myers, who has been ill at the Wayne Woodward home for about two weeks, is feeling quite a little better.

Fairview News

Mrs. Mary Diggs, Ray Comer and Frank Snodgrass, of Fairview, spent Christmas and New Year holidays in Kelso, Washington, and other nearby places.

Owen Brown and friends of Oak Grove, Oregon, were visiting in Fairview last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hall and family have moved to Fairview from Pendleton. Mr. Hall has been employed in the past at the Bailey sawmill.

Miss Annamae Holverstott returned to her studies at Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, after spending the school vacation in Fairview with her parents.

Billy Wall, who was injured at the Kline Logging Camp at Fairview last fall, was permitted to leave the Belle Knife Hospital in Coquille after a two and one half months period and he returned home New Year's day.

Mrs. H. M. Waldo returned to her teaching position at Florence after spending the school vacation with her family in Fairview.

Miss Nancy Sonneland spent the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sonneland, in Fairview. She is a student at Willamette University.

Mrs. Juanita Hedden and two girls returned to their home in Marshfield last Saturday, after spending the previous two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deadmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deadmond returned recently from Chico, California, where they visited Mrs. Deadmond's brother and family, Major and Mrs. Fred Byerly. Ray and Bill Foord, of Marshfield, stayed at the Deadmond's home during their absence.

Harold Morris, has returned to the Bible School at Eugene after spending the holiday season with his mother, Mrs. T. H. Benham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Worden and family spent the Christmas and New Year's holidays visiting in California. Many people have been ill with the flu the past few weeks.

McKinley News

Mrs. R. J. Holverstott is in the Belle Knife Hospital following a major operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler, of Coquille, were New Year's callers of the Jack O'Sullivan's.

McKinley Grange No. 582 held a special meeting Saturday night to decide upon what to do with the Montag circulating heater that the Grange won as a fifth prize in last year's sales slip contest. The executive committee proposed selling chances and at the drawing have a basket social and a program. Grange voted to do so. The drawing will be March 15. The executive committee was also given power to make money in any way it saw fit for the purpose of building the new Grange hall.

Mrs. Harry Mast, the Grange Lecturer, drilled the new officers for the new officers' seating drill after the Grange meeting.

The fallers and buckers of the Cal Ray logging camp are beginning this week to work on the McKinley side of the Fairview mountain.

Thomas Smith, of Bandon, spent from Friday until Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Newton. Mrs. Newton is Mr. Smith's daughter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Christian was able to begin teaching again this Monday after last week's illness.

The McKinley school has three new pupils, Robert, Jack and Jean Mahammy, who are enrolled in the 8th, 4th and 3rd grades respectively.

Delores Thorpe was absent from school Monday on account of illness.

All I.O.O.F. Branches Invited To Meeting At Gold Beach

Notices have been received by Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges that Roosevelt Lodge, No. 253, I. O. O. F., of Gold Beach, Ore., is sponsoring an Inter-State meeting for Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22.

There will be a joint meeting of the grand officers and members of the grand jurisdiction of Oregon and California of all branches of the order, Feb. 22, 1941, at Gold Beach, Oregon. This convention is being held at the instigation of the grand officers of the two jurisdictions.

The purpose of this meeting is to promote Americanism and the welfare of Odd Fellowship on the Pacific Coast. The meeting will be attended by all grand officers of all branches of the order in the two jurisdictions.

All members of the order are cordially invited to attend and to bring their families.

There will be adequate housing facilities for all.

For those preferring hotel or tourist court reservations, please let them know in advance.

There will be a meeting of Curry Encampment, No. 96 on Friday, evening, Feb. 21, at which time the Royal Purple degree will be conferred, and they advise, bring your candidates.

Rebekahs will hold a regular meeting Friday evening, Feb. 21, and will give an entertainment.

This meeting of all branches of the order will be the first of its kind ever held on the Pacific coast, and they sincerely desire cooperation of all the lodges in making it a success. It is their hope that more meetings of this nature will be promoted every year. As this meeting falls on Washington's Birthday, the program will be dedicated to Americanism and the Oddfellowship.

Publicity Committee, By J. M. Pool, chairman.

Meetings For Recreation Leaders

Recreation leaders who are confronted with the ever present problem of providing games suitable for seated groups, will be interested to learn that Miss Izola Jensen, extension specialist in community and social recreation of the Oregon State College, will be in Coos county January 14 and 15, to conduct meetings for leaders on 'Games for Seated Groups.'

Anyone interested in this phase of recreation is invited to attend either of the meetings. The first meeting will be held in Marshfield on Tuesday, January 14, at the Salvation Army hall beginning at 8:00 p. m. The second meeting will be held in Bandon in the basement of the Presbyterian church, also beginning at 8:00 p. m.

This is the third visit to the county by Miss Jensen, previous meetings having been held on 'Production of Games for Seated Groups' and 'A Fourth Meeting on "Music and Rhythmic Activities"' will be held in Marshfield on Wednesday, January 15.

Warranty and bargain and Sale Deeds for sale at The Sentinel office.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

DILLARD MARKET

Phone 135 "The Home of Quality Fruits and Vegetables" 378 Front St.

Prices effective Friday and Saturday

Fresh Solid TURNIPS 5 lbs. 10c

Swift's MILK 3 tall tins 20c

Sunbrite CLEANSER 3 cans 10c

Golden Ripe No. 1's BANANAS lb. 5c

S and W COFFEE 2 lb can 45c

MACARONI 6 lbs. 25c

PEAS tender green your choice
CORN golden bantam 3 cans
Short-Cut STRING BEANS 25c

For Appetizing Sandwiches TUNA FLAKES can 12c

Arizona Fresh Stock GRAPEFRUIT 10 for 23c

SHRIMP 2 cans 25c

Clean-up Price CANDIES 2 lb. cello bag 19c

"Sweet & Juicy" ORANGES 2 doz. 23c

"All Pork" PREM can 25c

Oregon No. 2 Mediums WALNUTS 2 lbs. 35c

Prudence 125 ft. roll WAX PAPER pkg. 15c

Formay SHORTENING 3 lb. tin 39c

Make your new car a STUDEBAKER CHAMPION

Highest quality car of lowest price

Lowest priced 6-cyl. sedan in America

More miles per gal. than any other 6 or 8

Lowest repair cost of any lowest price car

More money when you trade in

PRICES BEGIN AT $690

Champion custom sedan with trunk - $720
Champion touring sedan with trunk $770
These are delivered prices at factory, South Bend, Indiana, as of Jan. 1, 1941—subject to change without notice—Federal tax included

Come in and go for a convincing 10-mile trial drive in a big, roomy new Studebaker Champion... new slipstream torpedo body in your choice of 9 different colors... luxurious stratoliner style interior... upholstered in Canada cloth or Bedford cloth... give your present car as part payment—easy C.I.T. terms.

Coquille Auto Company
COQUILLE GARAGE
RALPH MENNING GLEN MENNING