Mr. and Mrs. Donald Farr returned Sunday from Portland, where Mr. Farr attended a meeting at the Multnomah Hotel of 150 retail and wholesale seed dealers from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, who gathered to form a Seed Dealers association. On their way home, Mr. and Mrs. Farr stopped at Multnomah and Eugene to visit friends.

Ronald, the six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, who has been quite seriously ill with rheumatic fever, resulting from infection from an injured hand, is showing some improvement now. Mr. Thomas is pharmacist in Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Axtell left last evening for Salem, where Joe will try to ascertain how the legislature is functioning. They expected also to go on to Portland before returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs entertained at a pinocle party Saturday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Preston and Mrs. V. O. Richardson, Elmer Inness and Alton Clausen. The door prize was won by George McClellan. Delicious homemade doughnuts were a refreshment feature. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames George McClellan, V. C. Richardson of Bandon, William Preston, Alton Clausen and Elmer Inness.

115 friends of Rev. and Mrs. Adrian Sias, Mrs. Grace Sias and Maxine Sias gathered for a farewell party held in their honor Saturday evening at the Church of Christ.

Ruth Towne planned and directed a program which included features to interest everyone. Impromptu talks were given by Rev. G. A. Gray, C. C. Farr, W. A. Sloan and Rev. Sias.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Swinney and Ralph Harry. A number of farewell gifts were brought to the guests of honor.

Sister Comes To Stay With Mr. O. B. Harriman

Mrs. O. B. Harriman, who on Christmas Eve fell and fractured both of her wrists, returned Saturday morning from Portland where the accident occurred. Mrs. Harriman spent some time in the Portland Sanitarium and then visited her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Bittner and her son, O. B. Harriman, Jr. Though both of Mrs. Harriman's wrists are still in casts, one fracture is less severe than the other, so she will soon be able to use one of her arms.

Accompanying Mrs. Harriman on her trip home was her sister, Mrs. A. M. Platte of Albertlea, Minn. Mrs. Platte expects to be here until Mrs. Harriman is fully recovered from her injuries.

Talk To B. P. W. On "Democracy"

"Democracy," said Clarence Osika in speaking on the subject of Weighing Government Costs, at a meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Monday evening, "meets present-day issues by emphasizing human values rather than considering dollar and cent values in the national budget. Mr. Osika pointed out some of the dangers that face democracy—and the American people—should the budget become too lopsided with debt. His interpretation of the subject was extremely interesting to everyone attending the meeting.

Ruth Towne, accompanied by Maud Skaggs Woodyard at the piano and Muriel Dae with her violin, sang "Elegie" by Massenet and "Fiddle and I" by Goodere.

Technicolor motion pictures taken by C. Vernon Smith on a recent trip to Brice Canyon, Zion Park and the grand canyon of Colorado were shown by Jimmie Bunch, while Mr. Smith made pertinent comments about the pictures.

Ethep Roop and Ruth Towne won prizes for solving a complicated paper game concerning scrambled words and phrases involving terms generally used in government administration.

Junior Women's Club Card Party Next Monday Evening

Gertrude Mehl, ticket chairman for the Junior Women's club Milk Fund card party, Monday evening, 8:00 p. m., Guild Hall, announces that there are still a few tickets available for the party. Competition for bridge prizes is expected to be stiff, for Sam Gordon graduates will have an opportunity to try out their new knowledge.

City Police Cases

Walt Smith was fined $10 again last Saturday. On Sunday Jeff Davis Frye was arrested on the same charge. He forfeited the $5 bail he posted for his appearance.

The same day James Russell Angel, from Washington, and his wife were arrested at an auto court on the same charge. He paid his wife's $10 fine and promised to pay his today. A few weeks ago Angel's driving license was suspended when he was convicted in the recorder's court on a drunken driving charge. Later his appeal to the recorder to recommend that his license be restored was granted by the kind hearted judge, Angel claiming that he "had slipped over" and that it was not a customary habit with him to get in that condition.

Leonard Gerald Eaton was fined and paid $2 on Monday for driving a car with out an operator's license.

Enjoyed It After Forty Years' Absence

E. D. Webb was up from Bandon Monday, the first time he had been here since he and Mrs. Webb returned from their three weeks Christmas trip to Creston, Iowa. He had been laid up with the flu since their return.

They had a very enjoyable trip and visit with his mother and while there drove over to Red Oak, Mr. Webb's birthplace, which he had not seen before for 40 years. He found very little change there; even the druggist from whom he bought school books 45 years ago and who is past 80 years of age was still operating the drug store in the same location.

Mr. Powrie Able To Leave Portland Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powrie, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Powrie and Mrs. Charles Mansell returned Wednesday from Portland, where they went Monday to get Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Powrie.

A. L. Powrie was dismissed from St. Vincent's hospital last week and he and Mrs. Powrie have been occupying an apartment near the hospital so he might have daily treatment for the facial injury he received Christmas Day, when he was kicked by his horse.
