One of the week's loveliest parties was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Mansell and Mrs. Robert Powrie of Myrtle Point when they entertained at the Mansell home with a bridal shower for Miss Dulcie Donaldson, daughter of Mrs. A. L. Powrie of Myrtle Point, who will soon become the bride of Lyle Knox.

Though the date of the wedding is not being announced, friends have been told that the ceremony will take place at Reno. The couple plan to make their home in Myrtle Point.

Gifts for the honored guest were presented to her in a huge blue crepe paper umbrella. The rooms were decorated with bouquets of pink and white carnations. Refreshments were served at card tables, with each table adorned by a bride and groom figurine. Miss Donaldson wore an attractive powder blue dress under a navy redingote.

At a jumbled name contest made of words pertaining to marriage, Mrs. W. H. Mansell won first prize and Mrs. Ben Burgess second prize.

Pinochle prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ernest Whereat for high score and Mrs. Ben Leatherwood, second.

Guests from Myrtle Point were Mesdames John Belieu, Henry Harmon, Ben Burgess, Jerene Burgess, Robert Powrie, O. B. Powrie, Carl Anderson, Cliff Wilson, Elizabeth Hamm, Miss Sadie Harmon and the guest of honor, Miss Dulcie Donaldson. Local guests included Mesdames W. H. Mansell, Ernest Whereat, F. H. McKibben, A. A. Kyle, Archie Hatcher, Bill Strong, Orville Hughes, L. F. Hatcher, Ben Leatherwood, Frank Pook, Reuben Humbert, John Darby, A. E. Wells, Roy Wheeler, Kenneth Donaldson, Ed Walker, Mary Meager, S. A. Morris and Miss Tessie Ruble.

Mrs. William Peart entertained the members of her Bridge club at a dessert luncheon Thursday. Mrs. M. Morrott won high score and Mrs. Frank Dungey was consoled. Club members present were Mesdames A. L. Burch, Frank Dungey, M. Morrott, Ralph Menning, W. H. Jones and William Peart.

Members of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons club were entertained Friday evening by Judge and Mrs. J. Norton at their lovely country home. Chinese checkers and Pedro—two hilarious games—made the evening fun for everyone. Mrs. Norton served refreshments to the following members of the party: Mesdames H. W. Pierce, E. W. Lorenz, Julius Ruble, Henry Lorenz, Miss Bess Maury, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton and Judge J. E. Norton.

Mrs. George L. Maynard entertained Friday at a dessert bridge, given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wernich. Margaret Paulson held high score for the afternoon's play, Mrs. U. E. McClary placed second and Mrs. R. E. Harbison was consoled. Mrs. Harold Stromquist and Mrs. George Mc-Clellan assisted the hostess in serving the following guests: Mesdames J. S. Barton, Bob Nelson, U. E. McClary, H. W. Pierce, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich, Guy Mauney, R. E. Harbison, J. A. Berg, Albert Powers, C. E. Stark, R. F. Milne, George Chaney, J. A. Lamb, Jane Williams, George Oerding, Leo Sohler and Miss Margaret Paulson.

An unusually lovely centerpiece was devised by Mrs. Edna Hartson for the dinner party she gave Monday evening to members of the Monday Night club. Water lily candles floated in a shallow bowl circled with ivy. Flanking the "Pond" were attractive arrangements of heather and pink roses. At bridge, Mrs. J. A. Lamb held high score and Mrs. J. L. Smith won the travelling prize. Members present were Mesdames J. A. Lamb, H. W. Pierce, Jane Williams, Bert Folsom, E. W. Lorenz, Merle Pettit, J. L. Smith and the hostess, Edna Hartson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Godard were the host and hostess for the regular meeting of their Pinochle club Friday evening. Members of the club are playing a series of games to determine who will, by virtue of score points, entertain whom at dinner. Mrs. Godard served dessert before the evening's play commenced. Members present were Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Boober, Ralph Taylor, Rudy Johnson, W. E. Boeserman, H. R. Godard and Mr. O. B. Harriman.

A delightful one o'clock luncheon was served Friday by Mrs. Ted Snyder to members of her Pinochle club. Prize winners during the afternoon's play were Mrs. Elton Savage, high score, Mrs. Clovis Church, consolation and Mrs. Bill Woods, travelling prize. Members present were Mesdames Clyde Minard, Elton Savage, Clovis Church, D. G. Ireland, Jay Carter, Ted Snyder, Bill Woods and Betty Payne.

Mrs. W. H. Myers entertained her fellow members of the Let-A-Lot club at her home Thursday afternoon. The group enjoyed a jolly time sewing and visiting. Mrs. Myers served refreshments late in the afternoon to the following members: Mesdames J. W. Ruble, O. K. Rakestraw, W. E. Cross, Alex Mackey, John Martin and Millie Waters.

Birthday club members met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Goodman, whose birthday occurred on that day. Members of the club joined in giving Mrs. Goodman a nice present. A great attraction of the afternoon was a bouquet of the season's first narcissus from Mrs. Goodman's garden. Birthday cake and other refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Gordon Epps, Ealle Oddy, Ivan Shuck, William Gaffey, Wayne Goodman, Ed Morris, Charles Lewis, Albert Wells, Leslie McElhaney and the following children: Harold Oddy, Jackie Lou Wells, Lambert and Gary Morris and Janice Epps.

Mrs. W. M. Jones and Mrs. D. H. Sinclair were co-hostesses Friday evening at the Jones home for members of the Tauk-an-So club. Mrs. R. T. Newton, who found the most words contained in the letters which spell "Valentine" was awarded a prize for her efforts. Pinochle prizes were won by Mrs. Elmer Benham for high score and Mrs. Melvin Giles for consolation. Refreshments were served by the hostesses late in the evening. Members present were Mesdames R. M. Waggoner, George Burr, Jim Towne, Melvin Giles, Mollie Wersh, Al Burch, Elmer Benham, R. T. Newton, Guy Torrey, Henry Belloni, D. H. Sinclair and W. M. Jones.

Small friends of Dorothy McKibben had a large afternoon Monday, when Dorothy's mother, Mrs. F. H. McKibben gave a party to celebrate the young lady's fifth birthday. Among the games planned to intrigue the children's fancies was a drawing contest, which was won by Nancy Perrott. Small angel food cakes decorated with green candles, ice cream and punch were provided for the young 'uns. Balloons and other favors made it a most successful time for those on the guest list, who were Dorene Robbins, Marlyne Gurney, Diana and Janice Schroeder, Gary Claver, Bobbie Jean Harris, Peggy Hughes, Nancy Jenkins, Linda Gambelin, Nancy Perrott, Donna McClellan, Darlyne Mallick, Marcia Mauney, Demaris Salisbury, "Pooky" Salisbury, Sherry Leatherwood, Lonnie McKibben and Dorothy McKibben.

Members of the Co-Workers club gathered Thursday noon for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jim Childs. After luncheon, some of the club members played pinochle while others busied themselves with fancy work. Those present were Mesdames Ted King, Lou Smith, Charles Dondono, Frank McNair, George Hultin, Mac Gant, Roy Hultin, Detwiler, James McGuffin, Adna

Holycross, Ivan Robison and Lizzie Robison.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. W. T. Alpine joined Thursday afternoon in giving a farewell party and birthday party for her. The Alpines, who have lived in Riverton for many years, plan to move to Myrtle Point, where Mr. Alpine is operating a lumber mill.

The party started with a potluck luncheon, held at the home of Mrs. Ira Baumgartner. There was a birthday cake for Mrs. Alpine and presents—birthday presents as well as farewell presents. Sewing and visiting kept everyone occupied throughout the afternoon.

Members of the party were Mesdames Alton McCue, William Church, George Steward, George Edwards, Lester Clausen, C. W. Martin, W. A. Bean, B. F. Royce, Myrtle Peterson, Eli Brault, E. A. Holbrook, John Smith, C. Danielson, Ira Baumgartner, Carroll Rycraft, Adolph Moltu, H. B. Hansen, W. T. Alpine, C. M. Hartwell and Mrs. Perley Way and daughter, Nancy Lou, of Michigan, who are house guests of Mrs. Eli Brault.

Mrs. Fred Jensen gave a beautiful dessert luncheon party Wednesday for fellow members of the Neighborhood Bridge club. Besides the customary bridge prizes, there was a door prize won by Mrs. Irving Larson and a travelling prize won by Mrs. Don Gillespie. Mrs. George Johnson was high at bridge and Mrs. Fred Hudson was second. Mrs. E. W. Tichenor was a guest for the afternoon. Members present were Mesdames K. P. Lawrence, Irving Larson, Don Gillespie, Fred Hudson, George Johnson, Lester Greene, George Holbrook and the hostess, Mrs. Fred Jensen.

Mrs. Ernest Whereat entertained members of the Ace of Clubs at a delicious luncheon Thursday. Pinochle, the chosen game of the group, occupied everyone during the afternoon. Mrs. A. S. Wells won both the first prize and a door prize. Mrs. Robert Powrie was consoled with a prize for low score. Mrs. A. A. Kyle won a door prize and Mrs. L. F. Hatcher won the travelling prize. Guests invited for the afternoon were Mesdames A. S. Wells, Robert Powrie, of Myrtle Point, Charles Lewis, A. S. Wells and S. A. Morris. Members present were Mesdames Ben Leatherwood, F. H. McKibben, Charles Mansell, A. A. Kyle, Orville Hughes, Ernest Whereat and Dulcie Donaldson.

Deserves The Limit

Alfred A. Oliveria, arrested at Marshfield last Friday on the charge of placing his wife in a house of prostitution, pleaded guilty to the charge in circuit court here Tuesday and is to be sentenced Feb. 3. His wife, Pauline Oliveria, was fined $20 on a vagrancy charge in Justice Bolt's court at Marshfield last Friday. After serving five days in the county jail, she paid $10 and was released.

E. J. Wageman, arrested Monday at Marshfield on the charge of defrauding an innkeeper, was fined $5 and sentenced to ten days in the county jail by Justice Bolt.

Harry Pierce, who with three others was arrested at North Bend on Monday for pin ball machine manipulation, was brought to jail here. The others are out on bond.

Carl Hickenlively is serving 80 days in the county jail. He was arrested by the state police this week for possession of venison, Justice Bolt fining him $100 and sentencing him to 30 days.
