

SOCIAL NOTES

A pink and white party was a big part of the birthday celebration of three-year old Daunt Caudle, whose mother, Mrs. Ambrose Caudle entertained for him Wednesday afternoon. Favors—in shades of pink and white—a three-layered birthday cake, covered with white frosting and decorated with three pink candles and pink punch all combined to make the youngsters at the party happy. Those present were Lambert and Gary Morris, Linda Gamblin, Judy Wilson, Beverly McBride, Harold Stewart, Cliff Briggs and the guest of honor, Daunt Caudle. Mothers—attending the party were Mesdames Edgar Morris, Russell Wilson, Sandy McBride, Dorothy Williams and Charles Briggs.

Helen Detlefsen entertained members of the Zodiac club at a birthday luncheon party for Edith Tennant. Mrs. Tennant received a gift from all the club members and one from her secret pal. Ruby Johnson was also the recipient of a secret pal gift. Jane Burch, was the lucky member for she received the hostess' gift as well as the lucky number present. Two guests, Mrs. R. V. Smith, of Texas, and Mrs. Don Schmidt, of Norway, attended the party. Mem-

Church Societies

Mrs. C. T. Selbig, president of the Episcopal Guild, conducted a short business meeting of the organization Wednesday afternoon. Plans were discussed for holding a party Feb. 19. Drawings were won by Mesdames L. H. Hazard, Henry Lorenz, T. B. Currie, C. L. Tuttle and Ada Lemon. Mrs. William Mansell and Mrs. A. O. Walker were the hostesses. Those present were Mesdames E. N. Briner, T. B. Currie, Lee Hand, L. H. Hazard, Fred Hickok, E. W. Lorenz, H. N. Lorenz, William Mansell, John Martin, Ida Owen, Plieth, F. A. Pook, Annie Robinson, L. L. Rosa, C. T. Selbig, C. Vernon Smith, C. L. Tuttle, A. O. Walker, James Watson, Geo Taylor, Sr., Julius Ruble and Mrs. Ada Lemon, of Myrtle Point.

During the business meeting of the Church of Christ Missionary Society, conducted by the president, Mrs. Elwyn Nosler, Thursday at the church, Mrs. Paul Simpson was elected treasurer of the organization. The group voted to draw from the treasury $10 to buy milk and shoes for a needy family; $20 to be sent to the missionary at Jamaica; $5 for a former pastor; $15 for state missions; $10 for working capital for missionary projects for the Helping Hand division and a like amount for the same purpose for the Dorcas group.

Mrs. Fred Schaefer, program chairman, conducted a round table discussion on the subject, "Christ for the Healing of Nations," which is the theme for the year's study. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Irvyn McKee, Mrs. Belle Hooton and Mrs. Elwyn Nosler, to the following members: Mesdames Pearl Cardwell, John Sanders, C. C. Farr, Alton Dungey, Adrian Sias, Geo. Chapman, E. Souder, Leona Foley, Elva Philpott, Fred Schaefer, Gus McCulloch, Berlyn Billings, Lula Woodward, Doftus Bash, Paul Simpson, Harold McCue, Archie Hatcher, Earl Mitts, Grace Sias, V. L. Bailey, Lyman Roth, Tyrrell and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Mrs. C. Adrian Sias opened the devotionals which opened the W. C. T. U. meeting held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Laws. Members answered the roll call with a current event topic pertaining to alcoholic beverages. Mrs. Laws read Oregon's new liquor advertising code. A quiz about the Lillian Stevens' legislative fund was conducted by Mrs. H. A. Minter.

Mrs. W. A. Ireland gave an interesting talk on some of the problems that confront towns adjacent to training camps, and Mrs. L. P. Fugelson reviewed current national legislation regarding subjects of interest to the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Berlyn Billings read an article entitled, "The Anniversary of Repeal."

During a short business meeting $15 was voted to be paid on the budget. Plans were made to hold a rummage sale the week of Feb. 21. Mrs. C. C. Farr, president, appointed Mrs. Fred Schaefer as rummage sales chairman. Announcement was made that the next W. C. T. U. meeting will be the county institute at Marshfield Jan. 28, starting at 10:30 a. m. at the Marshfield Methodist church.

Leila Eirod, county health nurse, was the guest speaker at the Thursday meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Pioneer Methodist church. Mrs. Eirod gave a short talk on tuberculosis preventive measures and then showed an excellent motion picture dealing with the subject. The motion picture projector, owned by the County Health Department, was used to run the film.

The meeting opened with devotions led by Mrs. Howard Graybeal. Mrs. Lee Peterson, chairman for the meeting, Mrs. Harold Ziegler and Mrs. George Taylor, each gave brief talks on health problems. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Lee Peterson, Orville Haga, James Richmond, Leland Peart, Fred Houston and Jack Hultin. Elbert Schroeder Takes Office

Southwestern Oregon funeral directors held a dinner meeting in the Coos Bay Hotel, North Bend, Monday night and voted to hold the thirty-eighth annual state convention of the Oregon Funeral Directors Association on May 5-6-7. W. O. Campbell, of Marshfield, Henry Schroeder, Myrtle Point, and Harry C. Stearns, of Oakland, were appointed convention and program committee.

Officers for 1941 elected at the last meeting were E. C. Thuerwacher, of Marshfield, president; Elbert Schroeder, Coquille, vice-president, and Eugene C. Morrow, Marshfield, secretary-treasurer. They were installed in their respective offices by the retiring president, Chas. E. Schroeder, of Bandon.

The Oregon Funeral Directors Association was represented by Executive Secretary George Ryan, of Portland, who reported on legislation and state association activities and outlined a tentative program for the state convention of funeral directors next May.

Discussions on professional and educational subjects were led by Messrs. Thuerwacher, Morrow, Henry Schroeder and A. M. Peterson, of North Bend.

Invitation to hold the next meeting in Reedsport was unanimously accepted. Mr. and Mrs. John Unger were appointed to prepare the program and arrange for place of meeting.

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. A. M. Peterson for the dinner arrangements and beautiful table flowers.

Winners Were Losers

Mrs. George Durrand and Jean Nye gave a pinocle party at the Durrand home Thursday evening. As an incentive to piling up a high score, the hostesses announced that the two players with the lowest scores would assist them in preparing and serving waffles, while the two high score players would be rewarded by seats of honor at the supper table. Mrs. Powell Yarbrough and Mrs.

Verne Oederkirk were the fortunate high scorers, while Mrs. Ray Mattoon and Mrs. Sandy McBride assisted in the kitchen. Those present were Mesdames Lawrence Gulseth, Ray Mattoon, Powell Yarbrough, Sandy McBride, William Walker, Georgia Hansen, Verne Oederkirk, Jim Schaefer and the Misses Eileen Kendall and Patricia Peart.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
