SOCIAL NOTES

Newest club to appear on the social horizon is the P. B. C.—meaning of the letters is a secret—a sewing club, that held its first meeting Thursday at the James Richmond home. Good members of the P. B. C. plan to meet one day each month. As at their initial meeting, they will gather in the morning, serve a covered dish luncheon and spend most of the day sewing. Charter members, who attended Thursday's meeting are Mesdames William Peart, Clyde Minard, Lee Peterson, Leland Peart, Orville Newton, Walter Oerding, Frank Leslie, James Richmond, Zelia Ireland, Ernest Purvance and Jack Hultin.

Mrs. Leslie McElhaney, hostess for the current meeting of the Tuesday Pinochle club, entertained her guests for luncheon at the Riviera restaurant, which she purchased last week. According to members of the party, the luncheon was an eloquent advertisement of the restaurant. They thoroughly enjoyed the excellent food served by their hostess.

The group went to the Ed Yarbrough home for pinochle. Mrs. A. S. Wells won first prize, Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt, second, and Mrs. Ernest Whereat, traveling prize. Mrs. Whereat was a guest for the afternoon. Members present were Mesdames Charles Lewis, A. A. Kyle, A. O. Culbertson, Roy Wheeler, Jack McElhaney, Ralph Hurlbutt and Ralph Menning.

The new home of Mr and Mrs. Ernie Johnson was inspected and thoroughly approved Wednesday afternoon by a group of Mrs. Johnson's fellow members of the Royal Neighbors, who arrived with a handsome table lamp to adorn the living room of the new house. Though members of the party called it a galloping tea, they violated all but one of the regulations for that type of gathering. The one rule to which they adhered, was that the party was a surprise to Mrs. Johnson. She did not have to feed her guests, for they arrived with all the makings for a tea party. Those present were Mesdames Guy Torrey, Melvin Giles, Oscar Larson, A. A. Kyle, James McGuffin, Betty St. Clair, William Jones, Jack Leach, Mae Ensele, Emma Stonecypher, A. L. Burch and Ellis Martindale.

Donna Dunn, honor queen of Job's Daughters, announced at the Monday evening meeting of the group, that a visitors' contest would start at the next meeting, Feb. 10, when new members will be initiated. The girl who brings the most visitors during the contest period will receive a prize. All officers and council members were present at the meeting.

Officers Preside For First Time

All but one of the new officers of Mamie Rebekah lodge were present Tuesday evening to assume their duties at the first meeting of the new club year. The absent officer was Dora Kendall, chaplain. Edith Gruenwald, incoming Noble Grand, conducting the business meeting. Other officers participating in the evening's business were Catherine Erickson, vice grand; Florabelle Boober, secretary, and Ena Harless, treasurer. Several new projects were discussed by the thirty members and officers present.

Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Lillian Clarke, chairman, Frances Brown and E. C. Briner. During refreshments new secret sisters names were drawn.

Three new members will be initiated at the Feb. 11 meeting. At that time anyone wishing to participate in the secret sister name drawing may do so.

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore.

Hardee Mast's Sixty-eighth Birthday

Honoring H. H. (Hardee Mast) on his sixty-eighth birthday, a large group of friends gathered at the L. C. Mast home on Saturday night. The evening was spent in singing, dancing and talking. About midnight a supper of fried chicken, potato salad, sandwiches, birthday cake and coffee was served to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy L. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. William Frame, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gant, Mr. and Mrs. James Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Beyers, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rhule and son, Gary, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rhule, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Pointer, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Michael, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lawhorn, Messrs. Harry Lasswell, James Parry, Roy Stout, Henry Glenn, Bert Looney, William Mast, Lloyd Mast, Miss Jotty Watson, Mrs. Kate Watson, and the guest of honor, Hardee Mast.

Junior Women's Club Card Party Boosts Milk Fund

Thanks to the efforts of Gertrude Mehl, ticket sale chairman for the Junior Women's club Milk Fund card party, the club treasury was upped enough by party proceeds Monday evening to carry the milk fund through another month. U. E. McClary topped all bridge scores with a total number of points that exceeded 12,000. Mrs. McClary held the high score for women playing bridge. The two high pinochle players were Druce Cunningham and Mrs. F. H. McKibben.

Jean Laird, chairman of the table committee; Mary Stevens, chairman of the refreshments committee and Emma Briggs, tally chairman, who made unique tallies shaped like small milk bottles and inscribed with the words "Milk Fund," all assisted Catherine Maynard, general chairman of the party.

Beulah Chapter Holds Social Hour After Regular Meeting

Gladys Gano, worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, presided last Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the chapter. When the business meeting had adjourned, Mrs. Clarence Osika and Mrs. Hazel Hanna introduced games to fill the social hour. W. E. Bosserman won a prize for high score at contract and John Jayes was the most successful Chinese checkers player. Refreshments were served.

After the Star meeting was over, Mrs. H. R. Godard called a meeting of the Social club to perfect plans for a public card party on Feb. 8. Mrs. Godard is general chairman for the party.

Arago Union Receives Award

The Arago union of the W. C. T. U. received the attendance award at the institute meeting Tuesday at the Marshfield Methodist church. Fifty per cent of the Arago membership was present at the meeting attended by 30 women from various units in the county.

Mrs. C. C. Farr, president of the county organization opened the morning's business session. Some attention was devoted to bills S-183 and S-185, introduced in the senate by Senator Neely. These bills relate to motion pictures. Mrs. Pearl Cardwell led a round table discussion about the Literature department, and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, of Marshfield, talked on the evangelistic aims of that department.

During the afternoon Rev. W. S. Burgoyne, pastor of the Marshfield Methodist church, gave a talk entitled "Defending our Defenders" Ruth Woodward, of Arago, followed Mr. Burgoyne on the program with a review of the book, "The Amazing Story of Repeal." Mrs. Flora De Vaul, of Marshfield, led the devotions. The program ended with a quiz on the Lillian Stevens fund.

Next county institute will be held here during the latter part of March.

Two In Jail From Other Counties

Gilmore Welch, who is accused of burning his car down in Curry county, was brought to the county jail here for safe keeping last Saturday. The Curry justice of the peace set his bail at $500.

The only other new name on the blotter in the sheriff's office is that of Paul Alvin Tibbett, who was picked up by the state police yesterday on a forgery charge, alleged to have been committed in Benton county. Justice Dodge at Myrtle Point set his bail at $1000 and he is being held for officers expected from Corvallis.

I. O. O. F. Joint Installation

A large crowd attended the joint installation of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, and Coquille Lodge, No. 53, held in the I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening, Jan 15. Mrs. Ena Harless and Delos Richardson conducted the installation ceremonies, with Mrs. Ruth Beyers and E. C. Briner as installing marshals.

Six courtesy girls, gowned attractively in aqua lace floor length frocks, assisted the installing officers in seating the new officers of the lodge.

Mrs. Bertha Holbrook, retiring Noble Grand, and Miss Edith Gruenwald, incoming N. G., were presented with lovely bouquets by the officers. Appropriate original songs, composed by one of the members, were sung by Mrs. Amanda Sutton.

Following installation, dancing was enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall. Officers installed into Mamie Rebekah Lodge were:

Two Couples Separated In Court Tuesday

Judge Brand granted two divorces in circuit court here Tuesday, granting divorces to the plaintiffs in the cases of:

Dorothy Christianson vs. Wm. Christianson.

Veryle R. Smith vs. Carlton A. Smith.

Feb. 3, Cheese Co-op Meeting

The feasibility of organizing a co-operative cheese factory in the vicinity of Coquille will be discussed at a meeting to be held in the Coquille city hall next Monday, February 3, at 1:30 p. m. All dairymen interested in this matter are being urged to attend the meeting by local dairymen who are interested in this project, reports the county agent.

Pendleton Club Pledges Support To Mrs. Sanford

Tribute was paid to Mrs. Oliver C. Sanford, of Coquille, candidate of the Coquille Woman's club for the presidency of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs in a note which came last week from the Current Literature club of Pendleton which pledged its support to her candidacy. "We feel great confidence in her qualifications and ability to further the best interests of the Oregon federation if elected as its president," wrote Mrs. Lowell Stockman, secretary of the Pendleton club.

Writer Had The Last Two Letters of Name Correct

Secretary of State Cordell Hull at Washington has manifold duties these troublesome times, which probably accounts for the fact he cannot take time out to be secretary of state for Oregon too.

A letter addressed to Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, Salem, Oregon, was rerouted to Washington by Salem postal officials, opened at the office of Mr. Hull where it was discovered it had been intended for Secretary of State Earl Snell. Forthwith the letter was returned to Salem where it eventually found its way to the proper desk.

Great Country, Great Industries

The chemical industry in this country, which was a mere infant a generation or so ago, has grown by leaps and bounds as it found more ways to serve the American public. Today, to show how important this industry has become, it is interesting to note that the chemical consumption of one medium-sized New England mill town is estimated to be greater than that of all of South America.

In recent years, subsidiary government agencies in the United States have been set up at the rate of about 185 a year.
