

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sutton and daughter Joan plan to leave Friday for McMinnville, where they will spend a short vacation.

Marjorie Jones and Pat Young spent the weekend at Seaside.

BICYCLES
Bought, Sold and Repaired
SWAP SHOP
Front & Willard

STEAM BATH
SHOWER BATH MASSAGE
at LeRoy's
Open Sundays and Evenings
by appointment
Phone 1032E

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. Jane Williams returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Salem on which they left last Friday morning. They visited at the Paul Van Scoy home and Mr. Lamb used a part of the time there to attend sessions of the legislature.

Misses Patricia Nosler and Eileen Kern came from Eugene last week to spend a couple of days at home. The former brought a friend with her, Nola Lee.

The Catholic Altar Society of Coquille announces a public card party to be held in the Coquille Hotel on the evening of Washington's birthday, Saturday, Feb. 22, play starting at eight o'clock. Tickets, now being sold, are 35 cents.

The P. N. G. club will meet this week at the home of Birdie Skeels on Friday, Feb. 7. An interesting program of entertainment has been arranged by the committee in charge. The first, seventh and thirteenth arrivals will be suitably rewarded.

Al Arnold of Estacada was a weekend guest at the R. A. Wernich home.

Cleona Hill, Hazel Moffett and Aileen Dement enjoyed a pleasant weekend at Bandon, where they were given the use of the Richardson cottage.

Alice McKibben of Roseburg arrived Thursday to visit for two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McKibben.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Haynes of Marshfield spent Thursday here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McKibben.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stromquist are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Stromquist's mother, Mrs. Rosa E. Naef of Milwaukee, and her aunt, Mrs. Rudolph Kiesel of Portland, who arrived Tuesday to stay until the last of the week.

Mrs. Lida Rogers of Leneve is spending the week here as a house guest of Mrs. Clara Wheeler.

Venita Ferris, who has a job in Portland, is spending a week's vacation here visiting her father, Oscar Ferris, and other relatives and friends.

Del W. Bond came over from Chiloquin, Oregon, last Sunday to take charge of Bond's Market for his father, W. H. Bond. His wife and daughter will not join him here until May, after the young lady has graduated from high school.

Miss Carol Young, of the Mt. States Power Co. force, spent the week-end with Miss Harriet Webb at the latter's home near Bandon.

The Woman's Club will hold a rummage sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week in the vacant room next to the bank.

Miss May B. Perry, of the Industrial Division Children's Bureau, U. S. Dept. of Labor, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11, at 2:11 p. m., in Guild Hall.

Burton Johnson celebrated his 17th birthday Saturday, Feb. 1, by entertaining some friends after the game with North Bend. Those who were present were Arlie Knife, Harriet Tozier, Patty Brady, Merriell Tozier, Carl Johnson and Burton Johnson.

Parents of grade and high school students will be interested to know that Spring vacation will be March 21 and 22. Another important date on the school calendar is the Senior Play on April 4.

Walter Van Moos, 18, and Robert Bishop, 26, were brought to the county jail last Sunday, with bail set at $250 each by Justice Olson. They are accused of stealing a railroad frog and other stuff over on the Bay, the estimated value of which was $600 and which they sold to a junk dealer for a few dollars.

A baby boy weighing seven pounds, eight ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hultin, of Sitkum, at the Coquille Hospital last Friday. He has been named Frederick Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Crews plan to spend the weekend at Eugene, where Mr. Crews will attend the annual conference of Elementary School Principals at Frances Willard school.

By and by, everything will be O. K. and O. K. today if you drive on our O. K. Tread Wield Hoops. Fastest starting and stopping and safest from skidding of all Hoops. — O. K. Rubber Welders Tire Shop, Coquille, Ore.

Jno. W. Leneve, deputy county clerk, received an eye injury last Saturday while chopping wood that could easily have cost him the sight of his left eye. As it was the needle-sharp splinter pierced the outer corner of the eyeball. It is improving and the doctor says danger of infection is past.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hatcher left Tuesday with Miss Dulcie Donaldson and Lyle Knox for Reno, where Miss Donaldson will become the bride of Mr. Knox. The two couples expect to return Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Knox will live in Myrtle Point, where they have rented an apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brisbin and children left today for Ferndale, California, where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. B. C. Minard arrived Sunday evening from Spokane to visit for a week or more with the family of her son, Clyde Minard.

A baby girl weighing 6½ pounds and who has been named Patricia Gail, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mast at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Harold Varney reports.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Claver, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barrow and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Claver drove out to Eugene Tuesday to see U. of O. nose out Washington in that 37-36 game.

Geo. Gratke of the First National Bank intends leaving this evening for Portland, where he will join the group with which he has enjoyed the pastime for several years and go to Sun Valley in Idaho for his two weeks' vacation.

B. P. W. Hobby Night, Feb. 17

The Business and Professional Women's club met Monday evening at Guild hall to discuss matters of interest to club members. Clara Bosserman, first vice president, conducted the meeting.

Bonnie Walker, a club member, who is knitting chairman for "Bundles for Britain," displayed samples of the garments made according to the organization's regulations. Mrs. Walker outlined the knitting plan that is in effect throughout the nation.

Additional attention was called to Bundles for Britain when Mrs. Bosserman announced that the national organization of B. P. W. is soliciting 25¢ from each club member to be used for the purchase of a quilting kitchen for England. Members of the local club cheerfully contributed their quarters for the project.

Ruth Beyers, chairman of the Music and Arts committee, announced that the next meeting, Feb. 17, will be Hobby Night. In March, Ida Oerding, chairman of the Education committee, will have charge of a program. Miss Oerding announced that each member was to appear at that meeting costumed as she would be were she the person she had always wanted to be. To win the attendance trophy, Florence Barton, chairman of the Membership committee, urged every member to attend the district conference at Eugene, Feb. 23.

Mabel Mack, of Corvallis, who was second vice-president of the state organization of B. P. W. during the term Leona Bryant served as president, was a guest at the meeting.

Members present were Florence Barton, Dorothy Bishop, Clara Bosserman, Saima Caughell, Inez Chase, Naomi Crews, Hazel Hanna, Cherie Mae Hartwell, Martha Mulkey, Ida Oerding, Ida Owen, Joyce Owen, Annie Robinson, Ethel Roop, Edna Robison, Inez Rover, Clara Stauff, Blythe Saylor, Alberta Tyrrell, Edith Walton and Bonnie Walker.

Committee Thanks Saturday Night Dance Patrons

The President's Ball committee, of which Pat Hayes was chairman for Coquille, asks the Sentinel to express their appreciation for the fine attendance at the dance in Dreamland last Saturday evening. The number who attended was not reported but it was said to be the most largely attended of any in this end of the county.

Marriage Licenses

Feb. 1—Doris Robert Leroy Crump and Gladys Phyllis Gates, both of Powers. They were married here by Rev. E. C. Swanson at his home last Saturday.

Feb. 4—Bennie Moore and Mary Sellers, both of Reedsport.

Feb. 5—Robert L. Anderson and Harriet E. Chapin, both of Marshfield.

Feb. 5—Arlie L. Amos and Jessie Marie Deever, both of Myrtle Point.
Calling cards, 30 for $1.00.

Birthday Sale Specials

$2.00 Dorothy Gray BLUSTERY WEATHER LOTION $1.00
$2.00 Salon COLD CREAM $1.00
$2.00 Cleansing CREAM, LIQUEFYING $1.00

Valentines Valentine Candy
Fuhrman's Pharmacy
Visit Your Retail Drug Store

W. A. Darling Dies At Salem

William Allen Darling passed away Tuesday evening, February 4, after an extended illness.

He was born at Hart, Michigan, August 29, 1866, being 74 years, five months and six days of age.

He came to Oregon in 1910, settling in Coquille where he first operated a butcher shop where the Mountain States Power Company office now stands and which he managed for several years.

He then moved to Powers where he had the first grocery and meat shop in that town. Two years later he sold the store and opened a restaurant which he operated for a number of years, after which he opened a restaurant in Coquille where the Used Car lot is now located on Taylor street and continued in business there until the building was torn down. He moved then to the building now occupied by Gilkey's restaurant and continued there until failing health forced him to retire.

Survivors include the widow who is living in Portland with a son; three sons, John, of Portland, William, of Orchard, Wash., Claude, of Portland; four daughters, Mrs. Pearl Cardwell, Coquille, Mrs. Addie McCulloch, Coquille, Mrs. Lucille Hennessey, of Powers, Mrs. Helen Stout, of Eastside; one brother, George Darling, Minneapolis, Minn.; one half-brother, Frank Darling, of Hart, Michigan; one sister, Jennie Elliott, Oakland, California.

Mr. Darling was a member of the Church of Christ.
Funeral services will be held at the Gano Funeral Home Saturday, at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Sarah Caudill

Mrs. Sarah Catherine Caudill, who lived with her son, Coy Caudill, at Johnsons Mill, passed away at her home on last Saturday, at the age of 89 years, two months and 27 days.

Funeral services were held at Schroeder Bros. Mortuaries on Tuesday, Rev. E. C. Swanson officiating, and interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

She was born Nov. 4, 1851, in Sparta, North Carolina, and came here five and one half years ago from Nebraska. Her husband, Wm. Isom Caudill, passed away about 39 years ago.

Beside her son, Coy, she is survived by the following children—Mrs. Annie Gragam who lives in Tennessee, Mrs. Jane Pruitt, Miss Ollie Meyers, Quiller Caudill, Wheeler Caudill, all of whom live at Walbeck, Nebr., Mrs. Bertie Minard of Spokane and Lester Caudill of Emmett, Idaho. Also by two sisters, Mrs. Jane Holbrook of Ashton, Ore., and Mrs. Martha Edwards who lives in North Carolina.

Frank E. Smith

Frank E. Smith passed away at his home, near the Marshfield highway Tuesday evening, January 28, after an illness of three months.

He was born in Eden, Erie county, New York, September 26, 1869, being 71 years, four months and two days old at passing.

He had lived in Coquille for the past ten years, coming here from Cottage Grove.

He was united in marriage to Phoebe Huntington at Gowanda, New York, in 1889 and to this union were born five children, three having passed away. The family came west in 1898.

Besides his widow, he is survived by one son, Wade A. Smith, of Twenty-Nine Palms, California; one daughter, Mrs. C. W. Carpenter; and one grand daughter, both of Coquille.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, January 30, at 2:00 p. m. at the Gano Funeral Home, Rev. E. C. Swanson officiating.
Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, No. 2, of Coquille.
Calling cards, 30 for $1.00.

Asks Rotary Support

Woodie Conley of the local Flying Club was present at the Rotary Club luncheon at the hotel yesterday and asked the cooperation of the club securing government aid in establishing a landing field. He said that they hoped to secure federal assistance in getting the Arago field graded as an emergency field in the present program of national defense.

He said that it probably would not be possible to get a regular field with hangars and machine shops but that the defense program was very favorable to locating auxiliary emergency fields and that he thought this aid could be secured.

Clarence Oulka told of the plans for the Naturalization day entertainment that the club is sponsoring for the new citizens, the program of which appears in another column.

Belle Knife Hospital

An 8½ pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Scott of this city, on Saturday of last week.

Henry Belloni, of the Swift & Co. force here, underwent a major operation last Friday. The same day Sherman Hardenbrook underwent a tonsillectomy, and Sam Breuer, Jr., of Myrtle Point, an appendectomy.

On Sunday Adolph Moltu submitted to an appendicitis operation and on Monday Tommy and Loretta Griffith underwent tonsillectomies.

Arthur Milani, of Arago, was operated on for appendicitis on Tuesday. Dismissals the past week were Mrs. W. H. Fortier last Saturday, Mrs. David Nelson and baby on Monday, Mrs. Eva Shield, of Arago, on Tuesday, and Edward Knoegri yesterday.

St. James' Church To Sponsor One-Act Plays

Tryouts will be held Friday evening, 7:30, Guild hall, for casting three one act plays to be sponsored by St. James' Guild. Margaret Paulson, who spent the summer with The Roadrunners, a troupe of itinerant players, and Mary Margaret Gedney, who worked for several years with the University Players at Eugene, will assist in producing the plays.

Men and women, boys and girls, young and old, are all invited to try out for parts in the plays. In the three under consideration, there is room for every type. One of the plays is particularly well adapted for casting people who have an accent or can assume one.

Anyone interested in amateur theatricals, whether experienced or not, is cordially invited to attend the tryouts.

Buzz Holmstrom Picture To Be Withdrawn From Circulation

The last chance to see the "Buzz" Holmstrom picture, "Conquering The Colorado," comes locally next Sunday to Tuesday, Feb. 9-11, when it will be shown at the Roxy theatre. It is soon to be withdrawn from circulation.

Valley View Extension Unit To Meet February 12

The Valley View Extension Unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Mack at 10:30 a. m. February 12. A demonstration on "Winter Salads" will be given by the project leaders. All the ladies who are interested are invited to attend and bring their own plate and silver. A planned luncheon will be served.

Electrolux Cleaner and Air Purifier
Sales and Service
H. D. Vallier
Phone 185J

LIBERTY
FRI. - - SAT.
FEB. 7-8

CAROLINA MOON
with
GENE AUBRY
and
SHIRLEY BURNETTE

Plus
OUR GANG COMEDY
Admission
10c - 20c
Matinee Sat.

WED THUR FEB 12-13
Told In Terror!

BARGAIN NIGHT
Kiddies Adults
10c 15c

VICTOR McLAGLEN
in
"DIAMOND FRONTIER"
with
John Loder - Anne Nagel
Latest News Events

WED. 10c & 20c
FEB. 12th

"A NIGHT AT EARL CARROLL'S"
Featuring The Most Beautiful Girls In The World

with
Ken Murray - Lillian Cornell
A. Carrol Naish - Rose Robert
Produced by EARL CARROLL

Roxy

ROXY
Thur. Fri. Sat.
FEB. 6-7-8

Exciting as never before... as Old California's most colorful and daring bandit

TYRONE POWER
THE MARK
OF Zorro

with
LINDA DARNELL
BASIL RATHBONE
Plus
RAY WHITLEY
2 Reel Musical
"Molly Cures A Cowboy"
Admission 15c & 30c

Sun. Mon. Tue. FEB. 9-10-11

SONGS DANCES FUN
A WHOLE SHOW FULL OF GAY GOOD TIME!

Jack Oakie
Funnier than Tin Pan
SHIRLEY TEMPLE
Most Enjoyable of All her Features
CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD
Longer & Longer Funner than ever

YOUNG PEOPLE

Plus
Donald Duck Cartoon
"THE FIRE CHIEF"
Also
RETURN ENGAGEMENT
Buzz Holmstrom
in
"Conquering The Colorado"

This is your last chance to see this subject as it will be withdrawn from service after this month.
MATINEE SUN. 1:45