SOCIAL NOTES

The "Bundles for Britain" treasury was swelled this week by a series of bridge and sewing parties. Most of the funds raised were turned over to the Woman's club to be used in its contribution to "Bundles for Britain," but part of the proceeds from the big party given Monday afternoon by Mesdames Ray Vaughan, R. E. Boober, J. Arthur Berg, Weldon Kline, Ray Jeub, George Maynard, Harold Ziegler, Ralph Taylor, R. L. Stewart and D. E. Rackleff, will be credited to the Junior Woman's club donation because three of the hostesses are affiliated with that group.

Four "Bundles for Britain" parties were given Thursday. Mrs. J. R. Bunch gave a sewing party that afternoon. Her guest list included Mesdames L. P. Fugelson, Don Gillespie, Fred Kunz, F. W. Culver, Earl Nosler, George Howe, K. C. Couch and F. S. Emery.

On the same afternoon, Mrs. F. L. Greenough gave a "Bundles for Britain" bridge, at which Mrs. E. W. Lorenz won first prize. Those present were Mesdames M. O. Hawkins, L. H. Hazard, R. A. Wernich, E. W. Lorenz, J. L. Smith, B. W. Dunn, G. E. Stark and Bert Folsom.

An evening knitting party was given by Mrs. T. B. Currie, president of the local organization of "Bundles for Britain." Everyone attending Mrs. Currie's party worked on knitting for the organization. Those present were Mesdames Bertha Smith, Geneva Wood, Leona Bryant, C. L. Tuttle, Annie Robinson, Bess Maury, Chas. Stauff, Wm. Mansell, A. O. Walker, Frank Pook, Orville Newton and John Martin.

Mrs. Ed McKeown gathered bridge-playing friends Thursday afternoon for a benefit party, at which Mrs. H. S. Norton won first prize and Mrs. U. E. McClary, consolation. Members of Mrs. McKeown's party were Mesdames R. E. Boober, U. E. McClary, H. W. Pierce, O. T. Gant, R. F. Milne, L. A. Lundquist, and H. S. Norton.

Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. Don McEniry gave a benefit party Friday afternoon at the Thrift home. They entertained sixteen bridge players. Mrs. Henry McCue won the first prize and Mrs. Marlin Brandon, the second.

Twenty-two tables of bridge players congregated at Guild Hall Monday for the party given by the hostesses already listed. Mrs. Don McCue won the first prize, Mrs. Phil Bourne won the second and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder received the third. Tea was served after the play. Mrs. R. E. Boober and Mrs. Ray Jeub poured at the tea table which was decorated with a stunning floral arrangement of anemones and calla lilies, made by Bergen's. Silver candelabra, holding white tapers flanked the silver bowl holding the flowers. No small part of the table's attraction was due to the trays filled with cookies and what the British would call "tea biscuits."

A sewing party, which promises to be as large as Monday's bridge, is scheduled for Friday afternoon at Guild hall.

The regular meeting of the Lincoln club was held Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. George Burr. Club members gathered for a covered dish luncheon at noon. After luncheon, Mrs. Genie Chase, president of the group, conducted a business meeting. Among other announcements, Mrs. Chase told the members that since their last meeting a layette made by the group had been given to a needy family. Chairmen of standing committees gave their reports. During the program, which followed the business meeting patriotic readings were given by Mesdames Lyman Rolfe, Harold McCue, Clara Wheeler and Flora Dunne. Members present were Mesdames Jim Childs, Genie Chase, Flora Dunne, James McGuffin, Clara Wheeler, A. M. Foyle, Charles Gardner, Reuben Humbert, Ed Aasen, John Hickam, Lida Rogers, May Rogers, Z. C. Strang, Lyman Rolfe, Harold McCue and George Burr.

Members of the Double-Four club enjoyed a special treat Wednesday when they were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. F. H. McKibben. A valentine party, Mrs. McKibben paid due homage to Cupid's emissary with valentine tallies, favors and candies. Her table arrangement centered about a radiant pink azalea. At pinochle, Mrs. Ernest Whereat won first prize, travelling prize and the consolation prize. The door prize was won by Mrs. Alton Clausen. Members present were Mesdames Joseph Allard, Phil Bourne, Charles Briggs, Alton Clausen, Norman Fletcher, George McClellan, Ernest Whereat and F. H. McKibben.

Mrs. Bertha Cross and Mrs. Ruth Griffith were co-hostesses at the Cross home for Tuesday evening's meeting of members of the Roy Mother's club. Plans were made during a short business meeting, for a Washington's birthday program at the school, Feb. 21. Proceeds derived from the entertainment will be used by the club for improvements about the school house. Mrs. Hasel, who attended the meeting, expressed her desire to join the club. The two hostesses served refreshments after the group had played several games, which were won by Mrs. Cora Mackey. Attending the meeting were Mesdames Marguerite Detlefsen, Cora Mackey, Bess Willard, Evelyn Cross, Ruth Griffith, Hasel and Bertha Cross.

Members of the English Sewing club enjoyed a potluck luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Gladys Gay. After luncheon the group sewed on garments for a baby's layette. When their work was finished, they played pinochle. Prizes distributed during afternoon were won by Gertie Laneve, travelling prize; Jane Burch, door prize; Mollie Hughes, the penny raffle. Members present were Mesdames Norma Hickenbottom, Mollie Hughes, Mabel Kyle, Angus Lewis, Gertie Laneve, Jane Burch and Hattie Gaffey.

A surprise party was held at the home of Miss Helen Martindale, in honor of Lucille Riddle's 21st birthday on February 3. Cards were played and refreshments were served at ten o'clock. The guests present were: Elda Ostrander, Wanda Lee Bailey, Gloria Vocino, Pauline Kollar, Dova Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Heintzelman, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hayes, Orle Johansen, Ray Doring, guest of honor, Lucille Riddle, the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Martindale, and hostess, Miss Martindale.

Local members of the Ecadrians drove to North Bend Tuesday to meet with Mrs. John Aasen, who entertained the club for luncheon. Two guests, Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. Harold Ziegler were invited to enjoy the party. Members attending were Mesdames Earl Nosler, George Johnson, E. Boeserman and the hostess, Mrs. John Aasen.
