

"What shall I do?" wailed the sweet young thing. "I'm engaged to a man who just cannot bear children."
"Well," remarked the kindly old lady, "You mustn't expect too much of a husband."

Moral

A codfish lays a million eggs
While the helpful hen lays one,
But the codfish does not cackle
To inform you what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish,
The helpful hen we prize
Which indicates to thoughtful minds
It pays to advertise.

SOCIAL NOTES

The semi-annual pay-off party of the Contract club was held Friday, with Mesdames R. A. Wernich, L. H. Hazard, George Chaney and F. S. Emery hostesses for luncheon at the Coquille hotel. Centerpiece at the luncheon was an exquisite potted azalea. For cards, members of the group went to the Hazard home, which was refreshingly decorated with the season's first jonquils from Mrs. Hazard's garden. Mrs. R. L. Stewart was awarded a prize for high score. Those present were Mesdames Lafe Compton, W. S. Sickels, George Chaney, R. A. Wernich, F. L. Greenough, R. S. Stewart, F. S. Emery and L. H. Hazard.

The George McClellans gave an informal pinochle party Saturday evening. Their apartment was decorated with pussywillows and scacia. Guests winning prizes were Mrs. Joseph Allard and Stan Sherwood, high score, Mrs. Charles Briggs and Alton Clausen, consolations, and Charles Briggs, travelling prize. A midnight lunch was served to the guests, who were Messrs. and Mesdames Stan Sherwood, Alton Clausen, Charles Briggs, Phil Bourns and Joseph Allard.

Co-worker club secret sisters were remembered with gifts at Thursday's party, a pot luck luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Roy Hultin. The lucky winner of the 5 cent drawing was Mrs. Jim Childs. Mrs. Ed Aasen, a guest at the club meeting, joined in sewing with the members. Those present were Mesdames Altha Young, Louis Detwiler, Jim Childs, Lou Smith, Charles Donodono, George Hultin, Mac Gant, John McNair, Genie Chase, Homer Detwiler, James McGuffin, Adna Holycross and daughter, Glenda.

Maud Skaggs Woodyard gave a party Thursday evening for the high school girls who are studying music with her. This, the first of a series of parties planned by Mrs. Woodyard for her students, was a great success, with its amusing games and good refreshments. Those present were Harriet Tozier, Mary Alice Nosler, Patricia Berg, Verene Bailey, Martha Berg, Marie Standley, Maxine Whereat and Mary Louise Woodhurst.

Mrs. Joe Nilsen was the Thursday afternoon hostess for the Laf-a-Lot club. She served refreshments of a deliciousness to merit superlatives to the group after sewing had been put away. Mrs. Lee Stonecypher was a guest present at the party. Members there were Mesdames W. E. Cross, Ed Dettelsen, George Gilman, John Martin, Will Myers, O. K. Rakestray, J. W. Ruble and Joe Nilsen.

Maroon chrysanthemums were effectively arranged by Mrs. L. F. Hatcher for the centerpiece of her luncheon table Thursday, when she entertained members of the Ace of Clubs, at the Charles Mansell home. Maroon was the key color for all decorations. The afternoon's prizes were won by Mrs. A. A. Kyle, high score and traveling; Mrs. Roy Wheeler, door prize; and Mrs. Ben Leatherwood, consolation. Mrs. Charles Lewis was an invited guest. Members present were Mesdames A. L. Fowrie of Myrtle Point, Orville Hughes, A. A. Kyle, Ben Leatherwood, F. H. McKibben, Charles Mansell, Roy Wheeler, Ernest Whereat, L. F. Hatcher and the Misses Grace McKibben and Dulcie Donaldson.

Ernie Wallace paid up a bet of long standing Wednesday evening, when he furnished the chickens for a dinner party in honor of Mrs. George Burr, the bet winner. Pinochle and Chinese checkers were played after the excellent chicken had been reduced to bones. George Burr won a nice prize for high score at Chinese checkers, while Jim Towne's prize was less beautiful but more useful. Mrs. E. E. Benham was the high scoring pinochle player, while Mrs. Jim Towne received the consolation prize. Members of the party were Messrs and Mesdames Reuben Humbert, E. E. Benham, George Burr, Jim Towne and Ernie Wallace.

Members of the Omic club were entertained at one of the season's first Valentine parties, Thursday evening, when Mrs. Ray Mattoon, was hostess to the group. Favors, place and tally cards, decorations and refreshments reflected the Valentine influence. Norene McKeown won first prize at bridge and Margaret Belloni received the consolation prize. Members present were Mesdames Preston Moy, Monroe Swindall, Lloyd Wood and the Misses Margaret Belloni, Maxine Johnson, Helen Lund and Norene McKeown.

Bobbie Burr's fourth birthday was celebrated Thursday at a birthday-Valentine party given for him by his mother, Mrs. George Burr. Valentine favors, favors, balloons, pink and white cake with four candles all joined in giving a festive air to Bobbie's big day. His guests were Mrs. Marion Alice and Bobbie Jean Harris, Clinton Humbert, Sharon Larson, Joan and Dean Benham, Nonie and Marjorie Travis, Jo Deanne and Bobbie Burr and the children's mother.

Mrs. William Woods entertained fellow members of her pinochle club Friday at 1:30 dessert luncheon. Mrs. F. H. McKibben, a guest for the afternoon, won the first prize. Mrs. Clovis Church received the travelling prize and Mrs. Clyde Minard was consoled. Members present were Mesdames Elton Savage, Clyde Minard, Clovis Church, D. G. Ireland, Jay Carter, Ted Snyder and William Woods.
