May Fete Set For May 3

The Guild Hall was attractively decorated with spring flowers for the regular meeting of the Coquille Woman's club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Barton led the singing of the club song with Mrs. Leland Peart at the piano. This was followed by the salute to the flag and club collect.

Mrs. Geo. Chaney presided at the business session. Nearly $60.00 was realized at the recent rummage sale held in the bank building. Mrs. T. B. Currie, reporting on "Bundles for Britain," announced that $73.60 had been realized from various parties held recently to raise money for yarn, etc.

The following nominating committee was appointed by the president, Mesdames R. A. Wernich, Geo. Taylor, Guy Mauney, Keith Leslie, K. P. Lawrence and Mary McKeown. It was decided to hold a May Fete in the high school gymnasium Saturday evening, May 3.

The next meeting of the club is to be held jointly with the Junior Woman's Club Monday evening, Mar. 10, in the Guild Hall and the business sessions to commence at 7:45 p. m. The tea committee listed for March will serve jointly with the Junior club.

Two bills appearing before the legislature were read. Following the meeting, young Ronald Williams, talented violinist, played two excellent selections, accompanied by Verene Bailey, accomplished pianist. Ronald and his brother, Morris, played a most pleasing violin duet.

Miss Mary B. Perry, of the Industrial Division Children's Bureau, U. S. Dept. of Labor, gave a most interesting and enlightening talk on the regulation of Child Labor in hazardous occupations. This was followed by the tea hour.

Present were: Mesdames J. D. Gillespie, Harry Godard, O. C. Sanford, Mary McKeown, R. B. Rogers, C. W. Tyrrel, T. B. Currie, Lawrence Lundquist, Roy Barton, R. E. Boober, Geo. Taylor, Leland Peart, Birdie Skeels, Geo. Oerding, W. H. Mansell, Harold McCue, F. S. Emery, Geo. Chaney, Lewis Holiman, Fred Sherwood, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich, J. L. Smith, Clarence Tuttle, D. B. Kesner and W. S. Wood.

Job's Daughters Initiate Two

Donna Rankin and Marianne Rackleff were initiated into the Coquille Bethel, No. 15, Order of Job's Daughters, at an impressive meeting held Monday evening, February 10, in the Masonic Temple. Many visitors were present to witness the first initiation given by Honored Queen Donna Dunn, and her newly elected officers of the order.

Mrs. Florence Sanford, D. E. Rackleff, Mrs. Harriet Oaika, Supt. B. W. Dunn and the Bethel guardian, Mrs. Idyle Godard gave short talks following the initiation.

After the meeting, light refreshments were served in the dining hall.

Other visitors present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Hicking, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ireland and Mesdames J. D. Rankin, D. E. Rackleff, Jay Carter, T. S. Stevens, B. W. Dunn, George Sherwood, F. S. Emery, W. P. Laws, Jack Tozier, Harold McCue, I. A. Elrod, W. Litzberger, Bob Harbison and Mr. Oliver Sanford.

B. P. W. Met Monday Evening

Ellen Braxton, president of the Business and Professional Women's club, announces that at Monday evening's meeting, she will make the last call for quarters to be sent to national headquarters for aid in the purchase of a mobile kitchen for Britain.

Members are asked to bring their baby pictures as well as collections to be displayed for Hobby Night. A prize will be given for the member bringing the most easily recognized baby picture.

At the request of Florence Barton, club members are urged to attend the district conference at Eugene, Feb. 23. This, says Mrs. Barton, is Coquille's best chance to bring home the traveling cup.

Members of the Get-Together club showered their hostess, Mrs. Guy Torrey, with dish towels Tuesday evening. The shower was the club's way of saying "Happy Birthday." At pinocle, Mrs. Gene Cole won first prize, Mrs. William Jones, consolation and Mrs. A. A. Kyle, door prize. Guests were Mesdames Gene Cole, A. A. Kyle and D. H. St. Clair. Members present were Mesdames E. E. Bennett, Myrtle Giles, Wyn Jones, Ellis Martindale, Jim Towne and Guy Torrey.

Lunelle Chapin spent the week-end at Salem, where she visited her parents.

"Bundles" Group Most Active Here

Authorization entitling the Coquille Bundles for Britain, Inc., arrived here this week, Mrs. T. B. Currie, president of the group, announced at Tuesday evening's business meeting.

Mrs. Charles Stauff, treasurer, reported the amount of cash on hand as being $46.72. One large disbursement has already been made by Mrs. Stauff for yarn. According to Mrs. A. O. Walker, knitting chairman, forty women had by Tuesday commenced working on knitted garments. In addition to the articles still on the needles, several completed garments have already been turned into Mrs. Walker. More yarn, she stated, would have to be ordered immediately to supply knitters.

In giving her treasurer's report, Mrs. Stauff announced that she had received contributions from the following sources: Mesdames George Chaney, R. E. Harbison, Jack Dolan, Sam Thomson, Leona Bryant, Martha Mulkey, Maud Bean, Miss Doris Pickard, Mr. E. G. Opperman, The Woman's club, Campfire Girls, Sixth Column First Aid class, and benefit parties; given by Mrs. U. E. McClary, Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. Don McEniry, Mrs. Ed McKeown, Mrs. F. L. Greenough, ten Woman's club and Jr. Woman's club members and nine St. James Guild members.

Sewing groups gave several benefit parties during the past week. On Friday, nine members of St. James' Guild, Mesdames F. A. Pook, Chas. Stauff, A. O. Walker, C. M. Guilbert, C. L. Tuttle, William Mansell, John Martin, Annie Robinson and C. V. Smith entertained forty-eight guests at Guild hall. Mrs. O. K. Rakestraw won the door prize and other prizes were won by Mesdames Martha Gratke, Holliman, J. J. Stanley, Ida Owen, Fred Schaefer, Detlefsen, Dan Brown, H. A. Young, Jack Tozier, George Sherwood and C. T. Selbig.

Mrs. P. W. Culver and Mrs. Fred Kunz invited Mesdames Anna Rooney, Grace Phelan, George Gilman, Geo. Taylor, Don Gillespie, Edna Hartson, Harry Hunt, Nellie Frey, Lee Hand and Miss Bess Maury to come to their benefit party Tuesday evening at the Culver home.

A 1:30 desert luncheon and sewing party was given Wednesday by Mrs. L. P. Fugelson and Mrs. Earl Nosler at the Fugelson home. Guest list for that benefit party included Mesdames D. B. Kesner, Marion Clayton, L. W. Oddy, J. L. Smith, G. B. Howe, C. V. Smith, H. A. Young, C. C. Farr, J. R. Bunch, Elizabeth Couch, LeRoy Starr, James Starr, Harold Stromquist, Fred Wheaton, P. W. Culver, Fred Watson, Harold Beadner, Grant Wilcox, Gladys Gano, A. M. Willey and Miss Blanche Sandon.

Interest in the Bundles for Britain benefit parties continues to run high. This coming week is already promising a good crop of quarters. Several bridge parties and sewing parties are scheduled. Pinocle parties are expected to be under way before the week ends.

D. A. R. Luncheon By Mrs. Powers

Special guests at Saturday's D. A. R. luncheon meeting, for which Mrs. Albert Powers was hostess, were girls who represented high schools in the county. Each girl had been chosen by her school as the year's outstanding good citizen. The guests, who were Donna Dunn, Coquille; Alice Petron, Bandon; Johanna Dixon, Marshfield; Pauline Olson, North Bend; Ingrid Carlson, Coos River; Blanche Detlefsen, Myrtle Point, and Alice Root, Powers, lunched with county D. A. R. officers. Other organization members were seated at a separate table.

Following the regular D. A. R. meeting, each high school representative gave a short talk in which she summarized her own scholastic and extra-curricular activities, before expressing her ideas on how members of a community may assist in making good citizens of high school students.

D. A. R. members present at the meeting were Mesdames M. J. Boileau, J. H. Bennett, R. J. Dixon, E. D. Duncan, Fred Hillstrom, G. A. Martin, G. N. Murch, John Baer, J. W. McInturff, R. M. McKeown, O. P. Heller, Roy Fox, J. H. Stadden, L. L. Bonney, Patrick Hughes and A. J. Sherwood.

Duplicate club members met Friday for dessert luncheon with Mrs. R. E. Boober. Winners at the boards were Mrs. F. C. McNelly and Mrs. Boober, high; Mrs. Albert Powers and Mrs. H. W. Pierce, second. Mrs. F. L. Greenough and Mrs. McNelly were guests. Club members present were Mesdames Frank Thrift, A. E. Collier, Ed McKeown, Albert Powers, H. W. Pierce and R. E. Boober.

Mamie Rebekah Initiates Three

The ranks of Mamie Rebekah lodge were increased at Tuesday evening's meeting, when three candidates, Mae Ensele, Gertrude Curtis and Mabel Gould, were initiated at a beautifully executed ceremony. Many local members as well as a large number of people from out of town were present to witness the exercises. Each candidate gave a short talk. Two visitors, Mrs. William Taylor of Reedsport and Mrs. Mahaffey of Myrtle Point, addressed the meeting. The three candidates and the sixteen members of the Drill team each received a corsage made of pink camellias. The lovely blossoms were Fred Schaefer's gift. Members of the committee serving refreshments during the social hour were Florabelle Boober, Ruth Beyers and Belle Belloni.

During the business session, Hester Holverson was elected to receive the degree of chivalry when the Grand Lodge meets at Baker during the latter part of May. Those members who were not present at the last meeting, drew the names of their secret sisters.

Announcements were made concerning several important meetings scheduled for the near future. The annual Father and Son banquet will be held Wednesday at 7:30. Sonless members are to borrow boys to be their sons by proxy. Feb. 21 and 22 will find many members of the Encampment at Gold Beach. On Friday, the 21st, the local Rebekahs will put on degree work at a special program.

Saturday evening, the 22nd, the Gold Beach lodge is sponsoring a public Americanization program, which will feature a George Washington tableau by local Rebekahs and Oddfellows.

M. E. Rally To Be Held at Bay

A sub-district rally of all Methodist churches in this area is being held Friday morning and afternoon of this week in the Marshfield Methodist Church. Dr. Sidney Hall, the district superintendent for the Cascade district, will preside. The connective work of the Methodist Church for the present conference year will be reviewed, and special emphasis placed upon the nation-wide "Day of Compassion, on March 2, when eight million American Methodists will be asked to give a minimum of one million dollars in cash for overseas relief, camp service, and British Methodism.

Delegations to the rally will be in attendance from the churches in Marshfield, North Bend, Gardiner, Elkton, Bandon, Myrtle Point and Coquille. Immediately after the noon luncheon there will be a separate meeting of members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

All members and friends of the Methodist Church are invited to the rally.

Listen in on the "Take it or leave it" programs on the radio every week and buy the Eversharp pens and pencils which are guaranteed "forever" at Norton's.
