

Call Made To Legion Members

Coquille Post, No. 36, American Legion, will undertake to register all Legionnaires and unaffiliated World War veterans in this community and surrounding area.

"This is a summons for possible important service to God and Country whom we served as young men in 1917-18," Commander George E. Oerding of the local post said. "I feel certain that every Legionnaire and World War veterans generally will welcome this opportunity of perhaps doing another bit for their country. We do not expect to be called for active military service. Most of us are beyond that age. But there are many home defense duties to be performed."

"I urge every Legionnaire and other interested World War veterans in this community to register at once at the commander's office or Dave Rackleff's drug store. It is a patriotic duty and we of the American Legion have never shirked our duty, or lagged in our patriotism. The time has come again when we may be called upon once more to stand up for America, and I am sure every Legionnaire in this community is ready."

Job's Daughters

Job's Daughters members continued at their Monday evening meeting to pile up points for the visitors' contest. Several girls added to their scores by bringing guests to the meeting.

Donna Dunn, honor queen, appointed Kay Leslie and Betty Emery as members of a committee to make posters to advertise a cooked food sale scheduled for March 8. Betty Donsted and Dorothy Yarbrough will work with Mrs. D. G. Ireland, guardian of hospitality, in making plans and arrangements for the sale.

Two new girls, Dorothy Starr Wood and Jean Griggs, who were initiated into the organization at the joint inspection held last Wednesday at Marshfield, were welcomed into the group.

Whether your home be modern or traditional, there is a Rittenhouse Door Chime styled in such superb taste that it becomes a decorative accessory. Hooton Electric Shop will assist you in selecting the correct model for your individual need.

SOCIAL NOTES

To celebrate her husband's birthday, Mrs. Frank Thrift entertained at bridge Monday evening. Top honors were won by Mrs. T. K. Foss and Don Estes, second prizes by Mrs. Don Estes and Don McNiry, while Mrs. J. K. Henninger and Ted Foss were consoled. Guests enjoying the party were Messrs. and Mesdames D. G. McNery, Harold Ziegler, T. K. Foss, J. K. Henninger, D. B. Estes, H. S. Norton and W. M. Sandall.

The daughters and granddaughters of Mrs. A. J. Nussell gathered at her home Tuesday to wish her a happy birthday. At noon the members of the party enjoyed a lovely luncheon. They spent the afternoon sewing and knitting. Those of Mrs. Nussell's daughters and granddaughters making up the party were Mesdames John Belloni and John Arnold, of Myrtle Point, Mesdames Theodore Clinton and Stanley Furman and the Misses Marjorie Knight and Phyllis Belloni.

Mrs. Woodrow Jones entertained fellow members of the Three "S" club Wednesday for 1:30 dessert and pinocle. Spring flowers were used for decorations. The prize winners were Mrs. John Shoemate, high, Mrs. Oscar Larson, consolation, and Mrs. John Fisher, door prize. Mrs. Pearl Grant was a guest at the party. Members present were Mesdames John Fisher, Orville Hughes, Fred Grant, Glenn Jones, Woodrow Jones, Oscar Larson, Charles Mentzer and John Shoemate.

In honor of Mrs. Leo Sohler, who left Coquille, this morning for Toledo, Oregon, and Miss Lorelei Kesner, of Seattle, Mrs. W. M. Sandall entertained at dessert bridge on Tuesday. Other guests included Mrs. D. B. Kesner, Mrs. Harold Stromquist, and the hostess, Mrs. Sandall.

Mrs. L. J. Bunch and Mrs. Thelma Burgess were luncheon hostesses on Wednesday for members of the Rink Creek Friendship club, who congregated at the Bunch home. The rooms were gay with Spring flowers. Mrs. Bunch, and Mrs. Colinda George, both of whom have had birthdays recently, received presents from their club friends. During the afternoon, club members sewed, exchanged recipes and related their newest discoveries for making housework easier. Mrs. Anna Bunch was a guest at the party. Members present were Mesdames Jim Jacobson and Billy, Edith Tennant, Walter George, Colinda George, Thelma Burgess, Winnie Steward, Alma Cunningham, Bill Mulkey, Edith Campbell, and L. L. Bunch.

For her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Johnnie Rakes, Mrs. W. P. Hughes entertained at a shower and pinocle party Wednesday afternoon. Game winners were Mrs. A. A. Kyle, high, Mrs. Wm. Nelson, second and Mrs. Van Spores, door prize. Following refreshments, Mrs. Rakes' presents, piled in a pink and white bassinet, were brought out and opened. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames William Nelson, Van Spores, William Hughes and Mesdames Ed Tuel, Everett Denny and two sons, Rudy Johnson, Charles Lewis, Leneve, A. A. Kyle, Hattie Gaffey and Edward Brown.

Young Coquille Musicians Play For Elks At Bay

Wednesday night was Coquille Valley night at the Elks Club in Marshfield. The concert orchestra of Coquille under the direction of Muriel Dae, were asked to represent Coquille again this year. Miss Dae also introduced Ronald Williams and Verene Bailey, two of Coquille's most talented young musicians. The program was received with great enthusiasm.

Evergreen Players, Seattle, To Be Sponsored Locally

Arrangements have recently been completed by the Woman's club and the Campfire Girls to sponsor the Evergreen Players, a Seattle troupe that will appear in Willamette valley towns during March and April.

Proceeds from the show will be used chiefly in the Women's club library fund. A small portion will be allotted to the local Campfire Girls organization.

A well-known and popular troupe, the Evergreen Players have been entertaining Seattle theatre-goers for the past seven years. The three-act comedy to be presented here April 1 is "The Scientific Romeo." Several vaudeville acts will be presented during intermissions.

Just among all news that seemed too interesting to pass without mention: The evergrowing Knowlton Heights colony—Dr. and Mabel Gould plan to move into their new home March 1. The Sandalls and the Tallant Greenoughs have recently bought lots on the heights. Both couples are haunting magazine racks for the latest ideas in building.

Criminal Cases Last Friday

In circuit court last Friday Wilbert Lawson Gibson pleaded guilty to larceny from a warehouse at the Bay and was sentenced to a year in the pen.

His son, Wilbert Lawrence Gibson, also pleaded guilty to the same offense, and his case was to be acted upon by Judge Brand this morning.

Jas. H. Phillips pleaded guilty to burglary not in a dwelling and was sentenced to three years in the pen.

Archer Raser, John Raser, Joe Ravito and Henry Pierce, Portland men who were indicted last Wednesday on the charge of larceny from a store building—they were accused of taking $20 from a resort in Empire in a punchboard racket—pleaded not guilty, and their trial has been set for the third case on the February docket.

Ray Demeritt, who was indicted for defrauding his employer, the I. R. Tower Motor Co., had failed to appear last Friday and his bail deposit was declared forfeited. He, however, voluntarily came and gave himself up to the authorities on Saturday and the forfeiture order was rescinded.

Circuit Cases Set For Trial

Cases set for trial by Judge Brand at this term of court are:

Feb. 27, Wm. Perry Christianson, driving while intoxicated.

Mar. 3, Sarah Stephens, administratrix of the estate of Aslackson, vs. Lawrence and Esther Hatcher.

Mar. 3, criminal charge against Raser, Raser, Ravito and Pierce, of Portland, for larceny.

Mar. 4, Frank Crafton and Frank Porter vs. J. E. Paulson and V. V. Hagedorn.

Mar. 5, Wm. L. Snyder for driving while intoxicated.

Mar. 10, S. H. Flowerday vs. Dallas Gheer and A. L. Powrie.

Mar. 10, Gladys Flowerday vs. the same two defendants above mentioned.

Mar. 17, The two cases of Marvin Franklin and Dora Culbertson against the State Industrial Accident Commission.

Bobbie Jean Harris' query to her Grandma Holliman: "If George Washington's dead, how can he keep on having birthdays?"

County Jail Arrivals

Homer Oliver Shely was brought to the county jail last week to serve out a $100 fine imposed by Justice Bolt at Marshfield for driving a car while under the influence of liquor.

From Bandon, Karl Bethel was brought to jail here to serve a three months' sentence in justice court for indecent exposure.
