After Thursday evening's regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, conducted by Gladys Gano, worthy matron, Helen Ayers introduced Frances Holmstrom, who read several of her poems. Mrs. Holmstrom delighted her audience by giving a brief background of the circumstances which motivated the writing of each poem she read. The program had been arranged by Mrs. Ayers and Mrs. Estelle Harbison. Bertha Holbrook headed the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Clovis Church entertained the members of her Pinochle club Friday at one o'clock luncheon. The centerpiece was a pleasing arrangement of Spring flowers. At pinochle, Mrs. Jay Carter held high score, Mrs. Elton Savage, low score and Mrs. Clyde Minard, traveling prize, honors. Guests enjoying the party were Mesdames Leland Peart and Walter Paulson. Club members present were Mesdames Elton Savage, Clyde Minard, D. G. Ireland, Jay Carter, Ted Snyder and Clovis Church.

Members of the Ace of Clubs were entertained Thursday at one o'clock luncheon by Mrs. Orville Hughes. Only guest was Mrs. Charles Lewis, who won high score at pinochle. Other prize winners were Mrs. Roy Wheeler, traveling, and Mrs. Ben Leatherwood, consolation. Members present were Mesdames A. A. Kyle, Lyle Knox, Ben Leatherwood, F. H. McKibben, Charles Mansell, Roy Wheeler, Ernest Whereast, L. F. Hatcher, A. L. Powrie and Miss Grace McKibben.

Members of the Omic club drove to Bandon Friday evening to attend a club party given by Mrs. Wosley Laird. Dessert was served at the dining table, which bore an attractive centerpiece of Spring flowers. Norene McKeown held high score at bridge, while Maxine Johnson was consoled. Members attending the party included Mesdames Preston Moy, Monroe Swindall, Ray Mattoon, the Misses Maxine Johnson, Norene McKeown, Helen Lund and Margaret Belloni.

The Laf-a-Lot club members on Thursday afternoon were entertained at a sewing party given by Mrs. J. W.

Ruble. Guests enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames C. V. Smith, Fred Wheaton and George Oeding. Members present were Mesdames W. E. Cross, Ed Detlefsen, George Gilman, John Martin, O. K. Bakestraw, J. W. Ruble and E. A. Wimer.

Mrs. John Norton entertained her card club Friday evening at dessert bridge. Spring flowers made a gay party setting. Mrs. Arlin Elliott held high score and Mrs. Dennis Wagner, second. Members present were Mesdames Harold Stevens, Arlin Elliott, Ray Detlefsen, Tom Stevens, Dennis Wagner, Harold Dey, LeRoy Swinney and John Norton.

The Contract club met Thursday for dessert luncheon with Mrs. George Chaney. Mrs. Guy Mauney was a substitute guest. Members present were Mesdames W. S. Sickels, F. L. Greenough, R. L. Stewart, F. S. Emery, R. A. Wernich, Lefe Compton and George Chaney.

Mrs. Elywn Nosler arranged a series of unique and amusing games Friday evening for the party attended by members of the Cornerstone class of the Church of Christ. Among the games was an anagram contest in which names of famous people born in February were assembled. Donald Farr was winning player of that contest.

Committee in charge of the party included Mesdames Elywn Nosler, Tom Brown, Gordon Epps and Elda Souder. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Donald Farr, Elda Souder, Elywn Nosler, Ernest O'Dell, Loren Salisbury, Irwin Woodward, Elmer Winslow and Mesdames Tom Brown and T. F. Harrington.

Several members of the Co-Workers club received birthday and anniversary presents from their secret sisters Thursday, when the club met with Mrs. Frank McNair for a delicious potluck dinner, at noon. For Mrs. C. H. Dondono, there was an angel food cake decked with birthday trimmings. Good wishes for the speedy recovery of two absent members, Mrs. W. H. Schroeder and Miss Julia Dondono, were expressed. Members present were Mesdames Lou Smith, C. H. Dondono, Roy Hultin, John McNair, Genie Chase, Homer Detwiler, James McGuffin, Lizale Robison and Altha Young.

An opportunity to see Spring's newest fashion whims will be offered March 19 at Oddfellows hall when Marjorie Child presents a variety of costumes for the Business and Professional Women's club style show. Fashions will be modeled by members of the club and by several models from out of town.

In conjunction with the style show there will be a musicale, featuring several artists who have not previously performed for local audiences.

Viola Newton, chairman of the B. P. W. finance committee, is working with Mrs. Child in arranging the entertainment. According to Mrs. Newton, door prizes will be awarded. Other members of the finance committee include Bertha Smith, Ida Owen, Mae Barton, Annie Robinson and Gladys Gano.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gillespie invited friends Saturday evening for a pinochle party. Winners of first prizes were Mrs. C. Vernon Smith and Ralph Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ashworth were consoled. Mrs. Gillespie served a delicious midnight supper to the following guests: Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Ashworth, Drue Cunningham, Lee Hand, Rudy Johnson, Ralph Taylor, C. Vernon Smith and J. L. Stevens.

Guests invited for this week's meeting of the Tuesday Night club included Mrs. Don McEniry and Mrs. Ray Vaughan. Club members were entertained at bridge by Mrs. Walter Litzberger. Mrs. O. T. Gant won first prize and Mrs. Kenneth Kistner took second honors. Refreshments were served by the hostess after the evening of play to Mesdames J. E. Axtell, Don Este, O. T. Gant, Kenneth Kistner, E. A. Walker, Fred Watson, Don McEniry and Ray Vaughan.

The Double Four club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at a pinochle party given by Mrs. Joseph Allard. Mrs. Allard used a novel idea for seating her guests at dessert luncheon. Rather than using place cards she had tea cakes frosted in white with each guest's name outlined in pink frosting. Mrs. F. H. McKibben won first prize and door prize. Consolation prize was won by Mrs. Norman Fletcher and traveling prize by Mrs. Alton Clausen. Members present were Mesdames Phil Bouras, Charles Briggs, Alton Clausen, Nor-mas Fletcher, George McClellan, F. H. McKibben, Ernest Whereast and Joseph Allard.

A handkerchief shower was given Tuesday evening by members of the Rebekah Degree Team for Evelyn Brinbin, who, with her family, is moving to Ferndale Thursday. Those present were: Mesdames Frances Brown, Helen Larson, Cathryn Erickson, Lillian Clark, Merle Kellenberger, Bertha Holbrook, Lois Penn, Louise Brown, Mary Clinton, Iola Moore, Mildred Schaefer, Bernice Clark, Hester Holvenstott, Harriet Schaefer, Ena Harless and the Misses Edith Gruenwald, Wilda Mae Van Meter and Eileen Kendall.

Delegates for the Neighbors of Woodcraft state convention to be held in June at Cottage Grove, were nominated Monday evening by members of Circle 214, who met at the V. L. Bailey home. Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt, guardian neighbor, presided over the evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. S. Bean and Mrs. Ed Aasen, who also directed games during the social hour. Members present were Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Hurlbutt, Pete Pointer and Mesdames Roy Pettingill, Ed Aasen, A. S. Bean, Lola Thompson, Elizabeth Lane and V. L. Bailey.

Miss Cherie Mae Hartwell entertained at a delightful dinner party Wednesday evening at her apartment in the F. G. Leslie home. The dinner table was decorated with a gay centerpiece of Spring flowers. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hatfield and son Eddie of Bridge, Mrs. C. M. Hartwell and Messrs. Miles Hartwell and Grant Hartwell.

Mrs. Ralph Manning entertained members of her bridge club at a one o'clock luncheon Thursday. Mrs. Morris Morot won first prize and Mrs. Gene Cole was consoled. Members present were Mesdames Gene Cole, William Peart, Maggie Simmons, Morris Morot, Al Burch and William Buel.

Mrs. Ed McKeown and Mrs. Fred McNeely were members of the high scoring couple at Friday's meeting of the Duplicate club, held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Collier. Mrs. Collier and Mrs. E. E. Leslie placed second in the bridge contest. Guests substituting for club members were Mesdames F. C. McNelly, Harold Ziegler and James Brady. Members present were Mesdames R. E. Boober, A. B. Collier, U. E. McClary, Ed McKeown, E. E. Leslie and Frank Thrift.

Succeeding Mrs. Charles Griffith as president of the Roy Mothers club is Mrs. Cy Willard, vice president. Mrs. Griffith resigned at the meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed Detlefsen. Mrs. Ronda Johnson was elected vice president to succeed Mrs. Willard. Co-hostess with Mrs. Detlefsen was Mrs. Cy Willard. House prizes were won by Mrs. Ray Buckles and Mrs. John McNair. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Arthur Ellingson, Charles Griffith, Ray Detlefsen, Cy Willard, Loren Willard, Alex Mackey, Maude Anderson, Ed Detlefsen, Ray Buckles and John McNair.

The Three Links Sewing club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Edith Gruenwald. During a short business meeting, plans were discussed for giving either a pie or basket social within the next month. Husbands of sewing club members and lodge members will be included in the festivities. After a sewing session, Miss Gruenwald served refreshments to the following members: Edna Bates, Frances Brown, Bernice Clark, Cathryn Erickson, Bertha Holbrook, Merle Kellenberger, Helen Larson, Iola Moore, Amanda Sutton.

America produces more finished rubber than all the rest of the world combined. As a result of this great production, the rubber industry in the United States now employs about 150,000 persons.
