Mrs. Clifford Kern gave a birthday dinner party Friday evening for Max Morgan. Guests included Lois Morgan, Yvonne Kern, Frances Ann Kern, Ludwig Scharfer, George Gratke, Max Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kern.

One of the week's most important parties was the birthday luncheon Monday for Mrs. Sam Briggs, who on that day became 81 years old. Friends and relatives brought Mrs. Briggs a host of beautiful presents to show their pleasure in the anniversary.

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. Briggs' three sisters, Mesdames Annie J. Robinson, Jennie Rose and Miranda Way, her brother, John Leneve, her husband, Sam Briggs, Mrs. Charles Craine of Bandon, Mary Baumgartner, Mrs. Velorous Call, Mrs. Maud Haga, Mrs. Tom Lewis, Mary and Gertie, Mrs. William Holcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fellows.

Woman's Club Sponsors Evergreen Players

The Evergreen Players of Seattle, featuring Don Taylor and VyDel Martin, those famous Northwest comedians, bring you a riot of fun and laughter in the shape of a three-act comedy-thriller, "Scientific Romeo."

This production was written especially to fit these two rivals for the imperial crown of mirth. It is a battle for laughs from the time the play starts until the final curtain with neither side pulling any punches. However, the critics to date have given Vydel Martin, doing a part as Maxine Braun, the red-headed chat-box, a slight lead on the decision. But Don Taylor after his many years of experience refuses to be bested by his younger partner who has less experience, but seems to be quicker on the trigger.

However the script and plot of the play is never disrupted except for the added laughs and the battle of wits and comedy goes on.

The play itself envelops the occult sciences, astrology, hypnotism, palmistry, spiritism and tea leaf reading which leaves a wide open field for plenty of added gestures and tricks when the opportunity affords itself, so come prepared, for with this screwy team anything can happen.

In addition to the play will be special vodvil and plenty of music, so bring out the whole family and laugh away your worries through chattering teeth.

This grand evening of entertainment is being brought to you under the auspices of the Coquille Women's club on Tuesday, April 1, at 7:30 and 9:15 p. m., two shows, at the Liberty Theatre, and no one need stay away for it is being presented at popular prices.

Proceeds are to be divided between the city library and the Camp Fire Girls. Be on the watch for the girl with the tickets.

A Cappella Choir Here March 20

The a cappella choir of Cascade College, Portland, Oregon, composed of thirty-five members and directed by Willard R. Hallman, will be heard in concert in Pioneer Methodist church next Thursday evening, Mar. 20.

This vested choir, now in its seventh season, has toured each year different sections of the West, touching every major city, and has been acclaimed by leading musicians one of the finest organizations of its kind. Their present tour has taken them to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Long Beach, San Diego, and other California cities.

Willard R. Hallman, director of the choir, is a graduate of the Westminster Choir College of Princeton, New Jersey, and of Willamette University, Salem, Oregon. He has established a nation-wide reputation as soloist, choir director and song leader, and is head of the Department of Music at Cascade College.

The program next Thursday evening will include sacred selections by some of the best-known composers, among whom will be Bach, Beethoven, Christiansen, Ivanoff and Scheutky.

There will be no admission charge but a free-will offering will be taken.

City Police Cases

Seven arrests by the local police last Saturday, Sunday and Monday were all for the same usual offence against the peace and dignity of Coquille.

Wm. A. Fletcher was fined $10. He had another fine hanging over from last year and the recorder suspended both on condition he leave town by noon.

Bacon Sanders $10 fine was suspended to allow him to go to work on a job he claimed to have waiting for him.

Ralph Edward Wilson and D. J. Kirker both forfeited the $5 bail they posted.

Mike Martin pleaded guilty and paid the $5 fine imposed.

Jas. Montgomery promised to pay next Monday the $5 fine the recorder assessed against him.

Ralph E. Youngblood's $10 fine was suspended on condition that he leave town.

Coquille Boy Heads Photography Society at U. of O.

Jimmie Leonard, Coquille, has been elected president of Pi Iota Xi (PIX), the newly organized photography society at the University of Oregon, says a news item from Eugene to the Sentinel.

The fraternity was organized to encourage active participation in news photography among university students. The membership will not be restricted to photography students, but anyone showing sufficient interest in news photography will be eligible.

Leonard, a graduate of Lostine high school, is a senior majoring in journalism, at the University. He is vice president of Sigma Chi, men's journalism fraternity, and is managing editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Leonard, sr.

County Jail Arrivals

Donald P. Crawford and Rommey E. Meek were brought to the county jail here to serve 30 days on a petit larceny charge. They pleaded guilty in justice court to stealing three tires.

E. McMillen was brought to the jail from Marshfield last Thursday, with bail set at $1,000 by Justice Bolt. He was bound over to the grand jury for issuing a couple of small worthless checks. This week he was taken before Judge Brand in circuit court and pleaded guilty to the charge.

Auto Freight Carriers Met Here

The Oregon Coast Auto Freight Bureau held its monthly dinner meeting at the Coquille Hotel Tuesday evening, with a good number of members attending. The towns represented were Reedsport, North Bend, Marshfield, Bandon, Powers and Myrtle Point.

The members of the Freight Bureau were much pleased to have Ralph Mitchell, secretary; B. Ericson, chief auditor, and Russell Pratt, rate section, in attendance.

There were some changes of minor importance in a few rates but nothing of a radical nature. General discussion of law enforcement regarding some private carriers errors was had.

The next meeting will be held in Marshfield on April 8.

The Eagles Auxiliary will hold a cooked food sale Saturday at Thrift's Grocery.
