As a special treat for members of the Eastern Star, who held their regular meeting Thursday evening, Maud Skaggs Woodyard presented her pupil, Jack Carroll, who sang two Irish numbers and encored with "Asleep in the Deep."
 Members of the refreshment committee were Wanda Cochran, Annie Rooney, Mrs. Rex Brown, Muri Pettit and Rudy Johnson.

Just too, too and absolutely and utterly inappropriate and incongruous were Janie Kramer's party and all her guests Thursday evening. This isn't libel or malicious slander. It's simply a true account of an upside down party. If you don't believe it was topsy-turvy, you should have seen Donna Dean Bosserman strolling into the party. She wore her father's woolies: long sleeved and longer legged underwear. To Donna Dean went the prize for wearing the most appropriate costume for such a party. Jegn Laird, shivering as the brisk blasts of Coos county wind hit portions of her scantily clad self, ran Donna Dean as a close second for honors. Jean wore an authentic Hawaiian costume, complete with camellia lei.

Chow was served in the Kramer living room, where Janie spread table cloths on the floor and invited her guests to dine Roman style, without the couches. Those attending the crazy jam session were Yvonne Kern, Jean Laird, Elvira Hansen, Jeannette Wheeler, Donna Dean Bosserman, Clarabelle Watson, Eunice Howe, Mrs. Walter Addison and Mrs. Chester Price.

Guest of honor at the Zodiac club meeting Wednesday afternoon was Helen Dettelsen, whose birthday was celebrated at a luncheon party given by Vera Hooton. Place cards were attached to baby cacti. Other favors and decorations carried the St. Patrick's theme.

To mark the last meeting of the current club year, members exchanged gifts with their secret pals and then drew new pals for the coming year. Edna Kern was elected president of the club and Gladys Wheeler, secretary. Florence Smith was taken into the club. Plans for the coming year were discussed during the greater part of the meeting which was attended by Mesdames Lorraine Thorpe, Edna Kern, Mildred Howe, Jane Burch, Ethel Fuller of Marshfield, Blanche Mast of Allegany, Edith Tennant, Helen Dettelsen, Florence Smith and Gladys Wheeler.

Mrs. Frank Dungey entertained her club Thursday at bridge-luncheon. Mrs. Maggie Simmons won first prize and Mrs. Al Burch was consoled. Members present were Mesdames Gene Cole, Al Burch, Maggie Simmons, Bill Buell, Morris Morrott and William Jones.

A trip to Myrtle Point Wednesday made a pleasant variation in meetings of the Friendly Dozen, who were entertained at a sewing party given by Mrs. Aaron Wilson. Special recognition went to Mrs. Grant Wilcox, whose birthday was observed by club members. Mrs. Ralph Harry was a guest. Members present were Mesdames Sam Arnold, Sr., S. S. Hardenbrook, Jack Hultin, Clyde Minard, Howard Taylor, A. G. Trendell, Fred Von Pegert, Fred Wheaton and Grant Wilcox.

Several members of the local Royal Neighbors of America lodge drove to North Bend last Wednesday evening to attend the lodge meeting and hear a talk by Mrs. Lenora Broili, state supervisor. High points of the state convention to be held in Portland April 15 and 16 were outlined by Mrs. Broili. Coquille women attending the meeting were Mesdames Al Burch, Ellis Martindale, Ernie Johnson, Guy Torrey and Agnes Schroeder.

The Tuesday Night club met for bridge this week with Mrs. Ed Walker. High score was held by Mrs. Walter Litzenger and second by Mrs. O. T. Gant. Three guests, Mesdames Don McEniry, George McClellan and T. K. Foss, were present. Members attending were Mesdames J. E. Ax-tell, Don Estes, O. T. Gant, Walter Litzenger and Fred Watson.

Reports come of the attractive St. Patrick's party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Phil Bourns for the Double-Four club. Mrs. Bourns served dessert at card tables. Each table was spread with a white cloth. In the middle of it was a green shamrock which held a potato frog filled with primrose and other small flowers. Place cards and favors were symbolic of St. Patrick festivities. The prizes were wrapped in green and white. Mrs. F. H. McKibben won first prize; Mrs. George McClellan, second; Mrs. Norman Fletcher, consolation; Mrs. Phil Bourns, door prize and Mrs. Charles Briggs, traveling. Mrs. Bourns' guests were Mesdames Ernest Whereat, F. H. McKibben, Alton Clausen, Charles Briggs, George McClellan, Joseph Allard and Norman Fletcher.

Winning player of the last series of scores kept by the Duplicate club was Mrs. A. B. Collier, who made the final winning score of the series at the Duplicate club party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. U. E. McClary. Mrs. Collier's partner for the afternoon was Mrs. R. E. Boober. Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. T. B. Currie were second. Mrs. Currie was a substitute player. Members present were Mesdames R. E. Boober, A. B. Collier, E. E. Leslie, U. E. McClary, Ed McKeown, H. W. Pierce and Frank Thrift.

The Three Links Sewing club members were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. George Holbrook. Frances Brown, club president, conducted a short business meeting. Amanda Sutton won the door prize. Mrs. Holbrook served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Myrtle Benham, Frances Brown, Bernice Clark, Mary Clinton, Cathryn Erickson, Ena Harless, Merle Kellenberger, Helen Larson, Iola Moore, Alice Morris, Harriet Schaar, Amanda Sutton, Ruby Tuel and Miss Edna Bates.

Bethel, No. 15, Order of Job's Daughters, held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. S. H. Donsted Wednesday afternoon, March 19, from three o'clock to five. Bouquets of purple and white flowers, colors of the Bethel, added to the beauty of the rooms. The table was attractively laid with a lace cloth and silver service. Mrs. B. W. Dunn, Mrs. D. G. Ireland, Mrs. W. C. Ulett and Mrs. G. W. Sherwood poured.

Musical numbers, consisting of piano solos by Marianne Rackleff, Mary Belle Yarbrough and Jeanie Griggs and accordion solos by Doris Anne Wood were given for the entertainment of the guests.

Hostesses were: Donna Dunn, Clarabelle Watson, Geraldine Cole, Glenda Clinton, Dorothea Yarbrough, Evelyn Gano, Betty Donsted, and Marybelle Yarbrough.

The tea table committee consisted of Kay Leslie, Jeannie Griggs and Betty Emery, the dishes and silver committee. Harriet Tozier, Gwendolyn Elrod, Marianne Rackleff, Donna Rankin and Jessie Sherwood.
