

SOCIAL NOTES

While members of the Three "S" club were meeting Thursday evening with Mrs. Glen Jones at the Woodrow Jones home, John Fisher, a pinochle widower, gave a stag party for other husbands of Three "S" club members. Woodrow Jones was the high scorer at pinochle, while Glen Jones was consoled. Mr. Fisher spread a Dutch lunch for his guests, who were Oscar Larson, Charles Mentzer, Ross Kistner, Glen Jones, Chester Roth and Woodrow Jones.

The Three "S" club party ended earlier than the stag party. Winners were Mrs. Fred Grant, high score, Mrs. Oscar Larson, consolation and Mrs. Charles Mentzer, door prize. Guest substitutes were Mrs. Ross Kistner, Wilma Roth and Mildred Smith. Members present were Mesdames John Fisher, Orville Hughes, Fred Grant, Glen Jones, Woodrow Jones, Oscar Larson and Charles Mentzer.

Daffodils and narcissus, arranged in a fashion to please St. Patrick, decorated the luncheon tables arranged by Mrs. D. G. Ireland Friday for members of her Pinochle club. Tallies and place cards were designed to accentuate the St. Patrick motif. Mrs. George McClellan won the guest prize, Mrs. Ted Snyder, first prize for club members, Mrs. Jay Carter, traveling prize and Mrs. F. H. McKibben, consolation. Guests were Mesdames Don Gillespie, Orville Hughes, F. H. McKibben and George McClellan. Members present were Mesdames Jay Carter, Clovis Church, D. G. Ireland and Ted Snyder.

The luncheon party at the hotel Thursday noon was composed of members of the Contract club, who were being entertained by Mrs. Life Compton. On the table was a centerpiece of exquisite white camellias and red carnations. Two guests, substituting for absent members were Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. Leona Bryant. Members present were Mesdames George Chaney, Life Compton, F. S. Emery, F. L. Greenough, W. S. Sickels and R. A. Wernich.

Knitting needles clicked vigorously Thursday at Mrs. Fred Hickok's when she invited a group of Bundles for Britain knitters to come for luncheon and bring their knitting. Members of the party were Mesdames D. H. St. Clair, F. A. Pook, A. O. Walker, Robert Plieth, Mary Williams, T. B. Currie and Fred Hickok.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark, who are now living in their new home, the former Bert Kay house on Riverton Avenue, were given a surprise housewarming on Saturday evening by friends, who brought a nice card table for the new home. The card table was put into immediate use for pinochle. Refreshments were brought by members of the surprise party, who were Messrs. and Mesdames Marion Clayton, E. E. Benham, Joe Sutton, Walter Moore, George Holbrook, Alton Dungey, Val Harless and Irving Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harry entertained the members of the Rook club Monday evening at a waffle party. Favors and decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames E. H. Souder, Ernest O'Dell, Levi Wilson, Paul Simpson, Marvin Thomas and Ralph Harry.

Mesdames Ed Detlefsen, George Gilman, Alex Mackey, John Martin, Will Myers, O. K. Rakestraw and J. W. Rubie were guests Thursday afternoon of Mrs. E. A. Wimer, who was the hostess for the Laf-a-Lot club. Mrs. Wimer served tea when members had put away the sewing that occupied them during the afternoon.

Cherry blossoms and daffodils were used Friday evening by Mrs. Harold Stevens for party decorations when she entertained her card club for dessert and bridge. Mrs. Harold Dey was high scoring player, Mrs. Dennis Wagner, second and Mrs. LeRoy Swinney, low. Mrs. Irving Larson was a guest substitute. Members present were Mesdames Harold Dey, Arlin Elliott, John Norton, Harold Stevens, Tom Stevens, LeRoy Swinney and Dennis Wagner.

Six little girls, all dressed up in their party clothes, spent Saturday afternoon at the Irving Larson home, where Mrs. Larson entertained the youngsters to celebrate Sharon's sixth birthday. Mrs. Lewis English introduced some new games for the girls while Mrs. Larson put the finishing touches on birthday party treats. Sharon's guests were her sister, Judith Anne, Geraldine Smith, Shirley Witters, Ruth and Hazel English and Janice and Donna Schroeder.

The Davenport home at Myrtle Point received the ministrations of a bunch of amateur interior decorators Friday when Helda Davenport invited friends to bring their paint brushes to help her redecorate her kitchen. Mrs. Davenport interrupted the painters at noon to serve them luncheon. Her crew of workers included Katie Detlefsen, Virgie Folsom, Minnie Leach, Tessie Rubie, Opal Buckles, Zelma Duncan and Mildred Goodwin.

Invited for tea Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. L. P. Fugleson were Mesdames H. J. Jensen, Raymond, Preussler, Elton Savage, Don Gillespie, Jack Hultin, Clyde Minard, Harold Ziegler, S. F. Stevens, J. L. Stevens, and D. B. Kesner. The tea table was attractive with a centerpiece of Iris and white daffodils.

For the Royal Neighbors' convention fund, Mrs. R. M. Waggoner and Mrs. Guy Torrey gave a benefit pinochle party Friday evening at the Waggoner home. Mrs. Art Warner won first prize and Mrs. Gene Cole won the door prize and consolation. Refreshments were served at the close of play to the following: Mesdames James Watson, Swinney, George Gosline, Lans Leneve, Ernest Whereat, Charles Lewis, Art Warner, Gene Cole, M. J. McCarthy, Carl Alwert, Guy Torrey and R. M. Waggoner.

Members of the cast of "The Minister's New Car," the comedy skit performed recently by the Riverton Woman's club, were luncheon guests Sunday of Mrs. Alton McCue. Plum blossoms, arranged in an Early American crystal bowl, made a delightful centerpiece for the luncheon table. Lavish bouquets of spring flowers added their beauty to the rooms. After luncheon, the group held an informal discussion of garden culture and spring plantings. Marcella Rawe, director of the play was presented with a myrtlewood bowl by members of the cast, who were Mesdames A. Molthu, B. T. Heppler, William Church, Alton Clausen, Lester Clausen, Norris Kemp, Ellis Holbrook, Ed Gibson, George Shelton and Marcella Rawe. Other guests included Mrs. Adolph Molthu, general manager of the play and Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, promptress.

The Co-Workers gathered Thursday noon at the home of Mrs. Homer Detwiler for a covered dish luncheon. While members were sewing during the afternoon, they discussed plans for a bridal shower, which will be given March 27, at the home of Mrs. James McGuffin for Maxine Clark. Miss Julia Donono was a guest at the party. Members present included Mesdames Homer Detwiler, C. H. Donono, Mac Gant, George Hultin, Roy Hultin, John McNair and Lou Smith.

Newest member of the Ace of Clubs is Mrs. Charles Lewis, who is taking the place of Mrs. Ben Leatherwood. Mrs. Leatherwood has been forced by illness to withdraw from the club. The group was entertained Thursday at luncheon by Mrs. Lyle Knox, who held her party at the attractive home of her mother, Mrs. A. L. Powrie of Myrtle Point. Decorations carried the St. Patrick's theme. Pinochle winners were Mrs. L. F. Hatcher, high score and traveling prize; Mrs. Roy Wheeler, consolation and Mrs. A. S. Wells, door prize.

Members present were Mesdames Orville Hughes, A. A. Kyle, Lyle Knox, F. H. McKibben, Charles Mansell, Roy Wheeler, Ernest Whereat, F. L. Hatcher, A. L. Powrie, A. S. Wells, Charles Lewis and Miss Grace McKibben.

New projects for school and community improvement were discussed Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Roy Mothers club held at the home of Mrs. Ronda Johnson. Refreshments were served after the business meeting. Mrs. Ed Detlefsen won the house prize. Members present were Mesdames Ed Detlefsen, Ray Detlefsen, Alvin Hazel, Ronda Johnson, Alex Mackey and O. K. Rakestraw.

Roy 4-H Clubbers Have Fun At Teacher's Home

Last Saturday the members of the Roy School 4-H club hiked out to the home of their leader, Mrs. Cora Mackey, who lives on the Marshfield highway.

Over a large bonfire, members prepared steak, bacon, hamburger or weinies to satisfy individual tastes. Buns filled with these meats formed the principal dish. Potato salad, pickles, fruit jello, assorted cookies and Kool-ade filled out the menu.

In the afternoon the members hiked to Coquille and attended the matinee.

Those enjoying the day were Lorna Willard, Barbara Mullen, Buddy Buckles, Darrell Stevens, Lillian Aber, Jack Buckles, Ardis Johansen, Wayne Mullen, Dick Buckles, Wallace Cross and Mrs. Mackey, the hostess.
