On Sunday they take Rolph back to Eugene and next Thursday he will leave with the U. of O. basketball team for San Francisco from which port they will sail for a three weeks' invasion of the Hawaiian Islands.

The following news item concerning Rolph was received from the university by the Sentinel this morning: "The rangy Coquille high school product made a sensational debut in varsity basketball this season. After spending the first half of the year as a reserve player, with little actual playing experience, he got his first big chance in the Oregon-Washington game here in Eugene on February 3.

"In that game he both scored baskets that sent the Oregon team into a safe lead and eventual 57 to 35 victory over the Huskies and also wound up as the game's high scorer with 12 points. From that night on he was ranked among the squad's top seven men and started a large share of the games.

"Coach Hobson regarded Fuhrman as one of the best grounded sophomores he has at Oregon and prophesies an outstanding varsity career in the next two years."

Market Rated 100 Per Cent

Cliff Yarbrough is justly proud of the 100 per cent rating the inspector from the state department of agriculture gave the Cow Bell Dairy meat market. The milk test also was splendid, showing only 100 bacteria per cubic centimeter. The law permits 20,000 before condemning milk as impure.
